SPRING ELECTION.

The Democratic voters of Bedford township, are requested to meet at the Court House, in Bedford, on Saturday, the third day of March, next, to nominate a ticket for Township officers, to be supported at the coming Spring election.

DANIEL FETTER, J. T. GEPHART, J. W. SCOTT, Vigilance Committee.

GEMS FROM HELPER.

We stated in our last issue, that some of the leaders of the so-called "Republican" party, in this county, were busily engaged in circulating that infamous and detestable Abolition document, "Helper's Impending Crisis of the South." One of these leaders, Squire Oldham, of Union township, acted as colporteur for the Abolitionists during Court week, and he and his carpet-bag filled with Helper, became nearly as conspicuous, for the time being, as the razor-powder man with his knee-breeches and three-cornered coat-buttons. We have been shown one of these books, and for the benefit of those gentlemen belonging to the Opposition, who deny that they are Abolitionists, we have noted down a few extracts selected at random:

1st. Thorough organization and independent political action on the part of the non-slave-holding whites of the South.

2d. Ineligibility of pro-slavery slaveholders, never another vote to any one who advocates the retention and perpetuation of human slavery.

3d. No co-operation with pro-slavery merchants—no guest-ship in slave-waiting hotels—no fees to pro-slavery lawyers—no employment of pro-slavery physicians—no audience to pro-slavery parsons.

5th. No more hiring of slaves by non-slaveholders.

6th. Abrupt discontinuance of subscription to pro-slavery newspapers.

7th. The greatest possible encouragement to free white labor.

This, then, is the outline of our scheme for the ABOLITION OF SLAVERY in the Southern States. Let it be acted upon with due promptitude, and, as certain as truth is mightier than error, fifteen years will not elapse before every foot of territory from the mouth of the Delaware to the emboguing of the Rio Grande, will glitter with the jewels of freedom.

"Republican" orators tell us that their party does not intend to interfere with slavery where it exists, and yet here we have a deliberate plan for the ABOLITION OF SLAVERY, endorsed by 68 "Republican" members of Congress, and hawked about the streets of Bedford by the leaders of that party. Actions speak louder than words, and the conduct of the "Republican" party, in its endorsement of the heresy and treason of the Helper book and in its strenuous efforts to inculcate the doctrines of that work in the minds of the people, must be conclusive evidence to every fair and reasonable man, that "Republicanism" has become identical with Abolitionism. Who can doubt it? Who dares dispute it?

We make another extract: "For its truckling concessions to the slave power, the Whig party merited defeat, and defeated it was, and that, too, in the most decisive and overwhelming manner."

This is a choice "morcean," and we recommend it most respectfully to the consideration of those old Whigs, who in the overflow of their good nature, assist Squire Oldham and his brother "Republicans" in their election to the offices for which the Whigs, in the opinion of the said Oldham and his fellow "Republicans," suffered such merited defeat. Our Whig friends will please "stick a pin there!"

Again: "With the intelligent Protestant element of the Fatherland on our side, we can well afford to dispense with the ignorant Catholic element of the Emerald Isle. In the influences which they exert on society, there is so little difference between Slavery, Popery, and Negro-driving Democracy, that we are not at all surprised to see them going hand in hand in their diabolical work of inhumanity and desolation."

Such are the sentiments that the Black Republican party, are at present inculcating upon the public mind. Sectional, bigoted, intolerant, they denounce and vilify all citizens who do not agree with them in their politics and their religion. In their own opinion they are the saints, political and religious, and all others are heretodox and heretical. But still, these high-strung gentlemen (and some of them ought to be "strung") a good deal higher than they are), are not so intolerant that they will not accept Irish, Catholic, or even "negro-driving" Democratic votes, when they want office, and we have no doubt that some of them will be about within the next three weeks, soliciting aid from the men they stigmatize as the "ignorant Catholic element," and the supporters of the "Slave-power" of the South. We shall give some more of Helper's gems in the future.

The Tariff.

We learn from private sources, that it is the object of the Opposition members of Congress to stave off the adoption of a higher tariff, so as to throw that question into the canvass for President. How hypocritical! If, as the Opposition say, a higher tariff is necessary for the good of the country, why delay its passage? Now is the accepted time. If Pennsylvania does not get "specific duties" on coal and iron, during the present session of Congress, the chances are that she will never get them; for after the Presidential battle is fought, the Opposition will not say "Tariff," or "specific duties," once. Mark the prediction!

The people will not be deceived by resolutions of Opposition meetings, nor by the action of members of the legislature who under pretence of favoring a higher Tariff, strike at the President's influence in favor of such a Tariff, and prevent, with malice aforethought, the Democratic members from supporting Tariff resolutions. Their trickery is too palpable, and "he who runs may read it."

MEETING OF THE BUCHANAN CLUB.—Pursuant to previous notice, the members of the Buchanan Club, and the Democracy of Bedford borough generally, assembled in the Court House, on Monday evening last, for the purpose of nominating a ticket for borough officers to be supported at the coming Spring election. The meeting was large and full of enthusiasm. An excellent ticket was nominated, after which the meeting was addressed by Maj. S. H. Tate and John Palmer, Esq., in speeches that elicited the wildest and most enthusiastic applause. We will publish the ticket in our next, not having room for it in this number.

EDUCATIONAL MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the Friends of Education, in the Union School House, on this (Friday) evening. Addresses will be delivered by Hon. H. C. Hickok, State Superintendent of Common Schools, Rev. H. Heckerman, our able and efficient County Superintendent, and Prof. Dickerson, Principal of the Union School. We bespeak a large attendance.

We record with regret, the death of Adam Barnhart, Esq., a worthy citizen of Bedford township, which took place at his residence, a few days ago. Deceased leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his departure. Peace be with him!

"REPUBLICAN" SECTIONALISM.

A great outcry was raised by the Black Republicans, when the Chairman of the more prominent committees in the U. S. Senate, were taken from the South, and the charge was freely made that this was a proof of Democratic partiality for that portion of the Union. Below we give the Chairman of thirty one of the thirty seven standing committees of the House of Representatives, all of whom are from the North. Does not this demonstrate most conclusively the sectionalism of the "Republican" party?

Bill for the sale of the Poor House.

We are indebted to Geo. W. Williams, Esq., for a copy of the annexed Bill for the sale of the Bedford County Poor House, recently introduced in the Lower House of the State Legislature. The late hour at which it was issued, precludes our giving any opinion, at present, as to its merits.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT to the act to provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor of the county of Bedford, approved thirty-first of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John Black, David Sparks, Joseph B. Noble, John Metzger, Abraham McClellin and Thomas Blackburn, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to advertise and receive proposals for and to sell at public or private sale as they may deem most advisable all the real estate and appurtenances known as the poor house property and now held by the directors of the poor of said county of Bedford, at such time and on such terms as may in the discretion of said commissioners be considered most advantageous and to make, execute and deliver deeds therefor to the purchaser or purchasers thereof in fee simple.

SECTION 2. Provided, That the consideration for the real estate so purchased, together with the cost of erecting and constructing said buildings and improvements, shall not exceed the amount realized on the property hereinbefore authorized to be sold, more than two thousand dollars.

SECTION 3. That in the event of the consideration of said purchase exceeding the proceeds of the sale, the commissioners of said county, on notice of the fact, from the commissioners appointed by this act, shall provide and pay over to said last named commissioners the amount of said excess.

SECTION 4. That the aforesaid sale and purchase and erection of improvements, should any be needed, shall be so conducted as that the property purchased shall be ready for the use and occupancy of the poor before they shall be required to leave the premises now occupied by them.

That the said commissioners shall proceed to do and perform the several matters and things herein authorized and directed as soon after the passage of this act as practicable, and when the premises authorized to be purchased shall be ready for occupancy, the directors of the poor of said county for the time being shall, on three months' notice from said commissioners, deliver up possession of the present poor house property to the purchaser thereof, and remove the poor and all the personal property belonging to the establishment to the premises prepared for them by said commissioners, and the said commissioners for a nominal consideration, shall thereupon convey to the said directors of the poor or their successors in fee simple, all the right and title to the real estate and appurtenances so purchased by them aforesaid, and shall also transfer to said directors all obligations and securities for money which they may then hold as commissioners aforesaid.

SECTION 6. That all matters and things whatsoever directed to be done and performed by said commissioners, by the provisions of this act, may be done and performed by a majority of the survivors of them in case of the death of any of them, and the provisions of this act shall be and remain in full force for the term of three years and no longer.

The Negroes in Canada.

The readers of the FREE PRESS will remember the recent negro outrages in Canada, and particularly the affair in the township of Anderton, a few miles from Windsor, where an elderly female was violated, and several males, who went to her assistance, were cruelly beaten and left for dead on the floor of the house. Subsequently the perpetrators of the outrage were taken into custody, and, while being conducted to jail, were rescued by a band of their fellows. The exposure of this deed of violence in this paper brought down upon us the imprecations of the entire negro worshipping press, not only of this city and country, but of Canada, who justified the outrage by insisting that the female was "nothing but a squaw." It is true that the woman whose home was assaulted, and upon whom the outrage was committed, was of mixed blood—French and Indian, but it is yet to be proved that the virtue even of an Indian woman is not as much to be respected as that of a white.

It seems that this woman, though thus sneeringly spoken of by the negro sympathizers, is not without her friends, and her appeals for justice have not passed unheeded. The consequences of the outrage which the negro community sought to palliate, and the punishment due to the perpetrators, whom their companions refuse to surrender to justice, are to be visited upon the negro population of the township. Their homes are to be sacrificed, and they are to be banished from the township.

It seems that the greater part of the township of Anderton is held under the Canadian laws as a reserve by the Wyandotte Indians, who, by their local authorities, have entire control of their affairs. The authority is vested in a council, composed exclusively of the Indians.

In consequence of this affair, the injuries resulting from which, having befallen the Indians alone, a Council has recently been held when the case was taken into consideration, and after a full and dispassionate discussion, an order was issued expelling all negro settlers from the lands embraced in the reserve, immediately; at the same time a provision was made for the benefit of those having crops in the ground, giving them until the first of September next in which to remove. There are in this township between two and three hundred negroes, nearly all of whom are fugitives from American slavery. A few months since the entire body of them were presented by the Grand Jury of Essex county as a "lazy, thriftless, thieving set," and the government was importuned to interfere to prevent the increase of the nuisance. This was looked upon as an act of oppression and wrong toward an unfortunate and down trodden race. It has never been urged that the acts committed by these fugitives toward their white and Indian neighbors, such as sheep stealing, house burning, robbery, violence to females, and even murder, were worthy of censure. These were to be considered as the pastimes of this much abused class. The Grand Jury of the county thought differently, as do the Council of the Wyandotte Indians.—DETROIT FREE PRESS.

The Ultimatum of Sewardism.

The N. Y. "Courier and Enquirer" indignantly denies the recent story from Washington, that there is an arrangement for Mr. Seward to retire from the contest and leave the course free to Mr. Bates, to run as the republican nominee. On the contrary, it very distinctly states, that while Mr. Seward's friends will acquiesce, if he is beaten at the Chicago Convention, by a genuine Republican of 1856, they will not submit to have him overshadowed by Bell, Crittenden, Bates, or any other candidate who was not a Republican, and did not support Fremont in 1856, but in the event of such a nomination will bolt. We quote: "But if on the contrary, the Republican convention should so far forget what is due to their constituents, as to place in nomination for the Presidency, and proclaim as our standard bearer in 1860, Mr. Bates, or any person who labored successfully to defeat us in 1856, and thus secured the election of James Buchanan, we repeat what we have heretofore said, no earthly consideration will induce us to support such a nominee."

When either of them asks to become our standard bearer, and modestly requires us to fall into their ranks, in the name of the Republican party, we most respectfully, but decidedly, decline the honor intended to be conferred upon us, or in other words, we bolt in advance.

The "Courier" further announces that it is "neek or nothin'" with Mr. Seward now. If not nominated he will retire from public life.

"We will say, for the information of Mr. Seward's friends, that if not elected to the Presidency next November, his public life may be considered as terminated, as he would not even consent to a re-election to the Senate."

REPUBLICAN PERITY.—The following facts are their own best commentary. The Republican State Treasurer of Maine stole $100,000 of the people's money, and applied $36,000 of it to bribery in the elections, by that means electing Daniel E. Simes and Ezra B. French, a couple of "pure Republicans" to Congress by small majorities from the first and third districts of Maine. Bribery and corruption alone elected these men, and bribery with stolen money, too. The Republican State Treasurer of Michigan is another plunderer of the people's money to the tune of $110,198 75. In Massachusetts the Republican Liquor Agent is proved to be a cheat, and he too has "xiended" to the tune of $300,000! And one of the Republican State Senators in the same State—Frye, of Worcester—has just been compelled to resign his seat by the discovery of forgeries amounting to $15,000! These things show that the "purity and reform" of the Republican leaders are mere hypocritical professions—nothing more.

A TRAGICAL ENCOUNTER.—We learn that two men, Messrs. Northington and Welch, had a difficulty in the town of Wharton a few days since, and in the encounter Northington shot Welch through the heart, with a double barrel shot gun, but the latter immediately attacked Northington with a knife and managed to cut him several times, once to the heart, when both fell together, within 15 feet of each other, and both died immediately after, and within a minute of the same time.—Galveston News.

RHODE ISLAND DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. PROVIDENCE, Feb. 16.—The democratic convention to-day nominated Wm. Sprague for governor. Messrs. Potter, Anthony, George H. Brown, Newton, Travers, Fenner Brown, Bradley, and Sayles, were elected delegates to Charleston. They are conservatives.

LOUISIANA POLITICS. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 16.—The delegates elected from this city to the democratic State convention are Administration by a large majority.

The Alamanda Quicksilver case has been decided in favor of the United States.

POPULATION OF KANSAS. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 16.—The official returns of the assessors make the population of Kansas 69,950.

MIRACLES NEVER CEASE!

THE LATEST PRODIGY OF SCIENCE

Great truths are indestructible. When Jenner averred that vaccine inoculation was a safeguard against the small pox, the "faculty" sneered. Forty-five years later, the world laughed at Daguerrre's first announcement that he could fix a shadow and render it as imperishable as substance. Even Morse's telegraph was regarded by thousands as a myth, until the first line was put up in 1844. Now vaccination is universal, daguerreotypes are as common as wood-cuts, and we talk by telegraph with almost as much facility as across a friend's table.

Such is necessarily the progress of a grand discovery or invention in an age like ours; and of this irresistible onward movement of the useful and beneficent in practical science, we have a still more striking example in the worldwide popularity of Holloway's great remedies. If we mistake not, they are scarcely older as an invention than the photograph and the electric telegraph, and yet they are familiar to half the human race. The discoveries of Daguerrre and Morse have not been applied throughout the whole area of civilization; but barbarian and semi-barbarian races, upon whom the light of Christianity has not yet dawned, have experienced the benefits of these preparations.

When they were first introduced to public notice through the columns of the English press, about twenty years ago, some of the medical magnates of the day scoffed at them, as their prototypes of the days of Jenner and Harvey scoffed at vaccination and the theory of the circulation of the blood. But how is it now? The name of Holloway has been rendered illustrious by the spontaneous testimony of countless multitudes. The voice of skepticism has been hushed, and the specious arguments of professional dogmatists confounded, by the introduction of his Pills and Ointment into the medical institutions of the most enlightened nations.

There may possibly be here and there a dogged disciplinarian of the old school, who would see what is patent to the whole world—some fossil specimen of a bygone age of medical bigotry, who closes his ears to the great fact that Holloway's vegetable remedies are displacing and superseding the mineral poisons, once considered all in all; but such instances of confirmed and hopeless "old fogysim" are fortunately few and far between. They will probably be remembered when Holloway is forgotten—and not till then.—N. Y. "Nid. Pol. Gazette."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—An incontrovertible truth. The Blood the source of health. The blood is the river of life and conveys on its current the elements of health or disease in its course through the fibres and tissues of the human frame—if pure it strengthens the muscles, braces the nerves, gives solidity to the bone, firmness to the flesh, lustre to the eye, brilliancy to the complexion and elasticity to the animal spirits: when vitiated, it infects the whole system and is prolific of such disorders as scurvy, scrofula and all cutaneous eruptions. With these facts before us, we see how essential it is to health to preserve the blood pure—Holloway's Pills will purify it in the most effectual manner, no matter how tainted it may be.

MARRIED.

On the 16th inst., by the Rev. Saml. Yingling, Mr. Moses Crisman, of St. Clair, to Miss Mary Ake, of Union Township, Bedford co.

DIED.

On the 21st of January, last, in Juniata tp., Abraham Lehman, aged 72 years and 6 months. The deceased was a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, and died in the hope of a blessed eternity.

Dec. 10th, 1859, Ellie Daugherty, aged 3 years 10 months; and Feb. 1st, 1860, Mary Watson, aged 4 days; daughters of Maj. S. H. and Virginia Tate.

Thus within two short months, has the hand of the reaper Death swept o'er the garden of an unbroken family circle, and nipped two sweet buds, one at that age, the most interesting of human life, when the infant intellect begins to unfold itself, in all the ingenious thought, and artless prattle, and attractive endearment of childhood; binding itself to the parent heart, by those strong tendrils of fond, precious recollection, so hard to sever; the other a little cherub, just born to earth that it might be an heir of heaven.

If it be true, (and who will doubt it?) that the happiest of earth, are those who die early, comforted only the bereft parents be, that their little fold has furnished two, bright, happy spirits, for the world of bliss above.—What 'er of good or ill betide the living, two lambs are safe in the Good Shepherd's bosom.

Never to know How sorrow's blight may grow On mortal ground; Never to know, How all we trust below May wound. C. N. H.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CAN EPILEPSY BE CURED? We think the following letter from a respectable citizen of Mississippi, will answer the question, and remove all doubts from every unbiased mind:—

GREENADA, MISS., June 5, 1855. Dr. Seth S. Hance, Baltimore, Md.—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in relating a case of spasms or fits, cured by your invaluable Pills. My brother, J. L. Ligon, has long been afflicted with this awful disease. He was first attacked while quite young. He would have one or two spasms at one attack at first; but as he grew older, they seemed to increase likewise. Up to the time he commenced taking your Pills, he had them very often and quite severe, prostrating his body and mind. His mind had suffered seriously; but now, I am happy to say, he is cured of those fits. He has enjoyed fine health for the last five months past. His mind has also returned to its original brightness. All this I take a great pleasure in communicating, as it may be the means of directing others to the remedy that will cure them. Yours respectfully, &c., W. P. LIGON.

No person who is suffering from Fits, or Spasms, should neglect sending to Dr. Hance, after this, for a supply of his inestimable medicine. His prices are as follows: one box $3; two $5; twelve $24—sent by mail free, on the receipt of a remittance. Address Seth S. Hance, 108 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md.

They have never been known to fail, and they should be kept at all times by families.
