

DIED.

On the 4th inst., John Franklin, son of Richard and Rebecca Sill, aged 2 years, 1 month and 6 days. The death of this child was very distressing to its parents, it having been run over by a horse by which it was so badly injured as to cause its death in a few days.

On the 23d ult., THOMAS R. GETTYS, Sr., aged 72 years, 5 months and 16 days.

For more than a year he had been sinking under a malady which surely wasted to the grave. But life-terminated suddenly, just as the springtide of nature was breathing hopes of revived existence, through warmer suns and balmy air. The vigorous tone of the silver cord which bound him in life, beguiled as to the decay of the frail mechanism it enveloped. His elastic spirit and active intellect looked out unextinguished amid the ruins of the tenement. No word of murmur, not even a sigh or groan of weariness escaped him. God had given him peace and patience. He rested with a calm and intelligent, though humble faith, upon God's promise of forgiveness through the blood of a Redeemer. In that blood he had washed off his sins, and felt that God was reconciled. He often spoke of the freeness of God's forgiveness. He believed in that word of God, "I, even I, am he that blot out as a thick cloud thy transgression, and will not remember thy sin."

A few days before his death he remarked quietly to a friend, "How wonderful is the grace of God to sinners." For several years he had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church of Bedford. It was during the great revival of religion, in 1853, that he formally united with God's people, but his mind had been gradually preparing for that step many months before. It is a fact, however, and consistent with his character, that he was a consistent disciple. He seemed rapidly sanctified through affliction. The simple faith of childhood was blended with the cheerful fortitude of a common Christian manhood. A brave, enduring heart, that never faints in trial, is rarer on the lonely sick bed, than in the battle field. It was pleasant to him. No querulous gloom brooded around his pillow. His intelligent, bright expression, and cheerful tone of voice suggested, ever, that we too might hope not to faint in the day of adversity. He is gone. The silvered head is bowed in the earth. The conflict of life is over, and the peace of eternity is begun. If his last days on earth were his best, what must those of heaven be? J. L.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WONDERFUL, BUT TRUE.

A few days since, Mr. James H. Beadle, of Huntsville, Alabama, called on us and gave us permission to publish for the benefit of suffering humanity, the astonishing cure which had been effected in the case of his wife by the use of Dr. Hance's Vegetable EPILEPTIC PILLS. He informed us, that at the time his wife commenced using the medicine, her system was so entirely prostrated, by the number of attacks she had undergone, as to reduce her weight to 100 lbs. Since she has been taking the pills, she has entirely got over the spasms and has gained in weight and bodily health. She now weighs at least 200 lbs., and declares she is in better enjoyment of health than she ever before in her life. Mr. Beadle also related the case of Mr. Harrison Lightfoot of the same town, who has been entirely cured of the worst form of Epilepsy by these same pills. Mr. Lightfoot's case was so bad that he never passed a week without having an attack, often falling down in the street. He has not had an attack for more than a year. Mr. Beadle thinks that if the pills ever fail in curing a case, it is for the want of a proper perseverance on the part of the person in taking them, as he feels assured from observation in many cases, that if they are taken for a sufficient length of time, they will cure any case. Sent to any part of the country by mail, on the receipt of a remittance. Address: Mrs. S. HANCE, 108 Baltimore st., Baltimore, Md. Price, one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $21.

WORMS! WORMS!

Various theories have been started relative to the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are informed, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At this season of the year, the attacks of worms are most frequent, as well as most dangerous. We take great pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermifuge of Dr. M'Lane, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburg. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of success when tried. Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, manufactured by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburg, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, since its celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

THE GREAT DRAWBACK

To persons emigrating to the extreme south and west countries, it is the fear they have of the Fever and Ague—the most dreadful of all diseases. Every day we hear of persons attacked by the disease and made helpless in a short time, without any means of affording relief. In view of the great demand for a remedy, Dr. Hostetter has presented his celebrated Bitters, whose curative powers for all diseases of the stomach have been universally acknowledged. The "Bitters," prepared after a long experience and deep study, have received the encomiums of the most eminent physicians, as well as all classes, from every part of our country. To those who doubt their many virtues, all we can say is to try them and judge for themselves respectively. Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere. See advertisement in another column.
