BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 11, 1860.

NEW SERIES.

HE BEDFORD GAZETTE, IS PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING

BY B. F. METERS,

No subscription taken for less than six in No paper discontinued until all arrearages are aid, unless at the option of the publisher. it has seen decided by the United States Courts that the

B. The courts have decided that persons are ac-

Select Cale.

Property of the state of the st

the Americans, blazing under the eagle eye of schemer, a cowardly plotter, and a selfish, unious hearts of the citizens of New Orleans ; and name and influence of his uncle had obtained as night came down upon the rescued city, the for him a captain's commission, but the tap of Maur? glare of huge bonfires, the flashing of dancing the drum, and the tume of gunpowder always torches and the glutter of innumerable lamps, drove his watery blood from his cheeks. Glad kened the victor's triumph. The humble home and hand of Clara Dainemert. But he met monds of the artisan and the proud mansion of the rich blank repulse, for both were already pledged to "Come, Cousin Will-since we are newlysounds of joy. But no home was so gay and young man of noble character, good descent, who loses shall forfeit to the bride." resplendent as that of the wealthy and hospita- and rising fame. Had he dared, Huron St. "Agreed," laughed the joyous bridegroom. ble Robert Dainemert, whose twin-born sons Maur would have fought his rival for the prize, "Seek a double almond." wedded to William Avern, a young and distin- a mercenary spirit, but grasping eagerly for er, and forfeit singly." guished captain of the Tennessee Rifles. Long more, and infatuated with the brauty of his All unsuspecting, the gallant young warrior, watchword of "Booty and Beauty," William her and her fortune his own. py news to mother, sister, and betrothed.

"Thank Heaven, you have all returned safe over it in grim solitude. in life and limb," was the exclamation of the "I have come for the almond," said Huron, ron's hand, and hurried a way. and sons.

ker Hill many years before. The lovers utter- numbered one hundred. spoke volumes of mutual happiness.

the clamorous and hearty shouts of the ebon- that price-$500 a nut !" visaged servants, clustering around with eager faces that shone in the torollight, made ample faces that shone in the torollight, made ample faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight, made ample for the faces that shone in the torollight for the faces that shone in the torollight faces that shone amends.

this night. Come, wife, you are nimble with the other. Do not make a mistake." rest. Send for your bridemaids, Clara, my sons long does it take to effect its purpose?" spring from a race of soldiers, my dear boy, and failed." descent."

This was spoken as the general led the way old man, have we not met before ?" into his parlor, and every word was heard by a "Where ? until three weeks since ?" dark-faced and haughty young man, who rose from a sofa as they entered.

St. Maur was not there," said the general, with said Huron. a severe glance as the young man met his "Ah! I had a relative there; perhaps you

Detroit," replied his nephew, "pledged his her name was Bianca, the Flower Girl." word not to bear arms against England during | Huron St. Maur grew ashy pale; but in a this war. But my heart was with you all, moment he replied :

uncle."

"If I had been at Detroit," retorted the old her ?"

may give us another bait before the week's lived she blessed him; but now that she is no oxysm of countenance absolutely pitiful.

So saying the noble old soldier hastened to change his dress and scatter his orders, while for garments befitting the occasion.

it has Huron St. Maur, a coward in heart, villain in mind, had, as he said, given his parole at Deoccided by the office without the payment of ar-ige of a newspaper without the payment of ar-iges, is prima facie evidence of fraud and is a troit—given it before the dotard Holl disgraced the American arms, with a bloodless surrender, newspapers, to an inferior force; for Huron St. Manr was countable for the subscription price of newspapers, if they take them from the post office, whether they traitor as well as poltroon. He had long loved his cousin Clara, both for the wealth that would ther had been a French officer, who served under La Fayette. Both father and mother sprang The vaunting hosts of Eugland had fled, from a brave and warlike line, but the son had smitten and shattered, from the fatal rifles of inherited none of their nobler traits. A shrewd leaped from the red field of battle to the anx- ty years, and not done one worthy deed. The ling consent of Gen. Robert, the day that should see them united had been fixed upon, and that deemed that the marriage was to be so sudden lowed the other kernel.

Q. How long were young gamed the will have related, "I kin safely say that she of John Quincy Adams. Q. How long were young and the other kernel." see them united had been fixed upon, and that dreamed that the marriage was to be so sudden lowed the other kernel. may, and with old white-haired Dainemert and plotting. Ere many mixutes had passed, he before his house on Toulouse street. "What him; a lean and withered old miser, who look- Berbi at the door. happier date for a marriage anniversary than ed upon all mankind as so many vermin, deemthat which shall be a matron's pride. Ha! the ing gold the only valuable thing on earth, so ed the old Italian eagerly. good news is before us," he continued, as his said report, and Huron believed it. Who can wife and daughter sprang from the house to explain the insanity of such avarice, for Carlo plied the traitor. Berbi made no use of his wealth, save to gloat

as the chemist raised his small black eyes our country the victory !" was the response of Huron threw a purse upon the table. Carlo words : the stout old patriot, who had seen same the foe counted out the yellow coms, one by one, try- "With her last breath Bianca told me the scarcely be here with my unparaleled show on unearthing all the hidden evidences of alleged British Islands flying from the muskets that rattled along Bun- ing the weight and ring of each, until he had name of her destroyer. She knew not what she this very anspichus occashun. She is very Democratic corruption, were themselves enga-poke volumes of mutual happiness.

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no tongue,

But if the joy of the lovers found no of which was chipped at each end.

"I have a promise to fulfil," said the general, "Whoever swallows this," said the Italian, mond! "and we must invite our friends as fast as legs holding up the marked almond, "does himself can carry messages. William is to wed Clara no harm; but I would not be he who shall eat the pen-run, write to those who stand upon "Never fear," said Huron, as the chemist etiquette, and hurry verbal invitations to the glued the halves nicely together. "But how shall be your groomsmen, William. I would "Three hours-and leaves no trace, my as did your grandlather at Monmouth. You led for it, I began to think your courage had the mystery.

this campaign has proved you worthy of your "The time had not arrived," said Huron as he placed the almond in his vest. "But tell me,

"In Italy, where I lived some five years ago. There is an air-a tone in your voice which "Well, nephew, we won the fight, and Huron reminds me of some one I once knew in Rome," knew her," said Carlo, gazing sharply into his "Horon St. Maur, when taken prisoner at face. "She was very beautiful, all said, and "I have seen her-what has become of patriot, "Hull had died by my hand before he should have disgraced the name he won in the heartless villan. He deserted her; and she borne should take the stakes. Osborne had been the stakes of the stakes of the stakes of the stakes. Osborne had been the stakes of the Revolution; and if I had been Huron St. Maur died some twelve months or so, ago. The de- training his right leg the day previous, and had puts off repentance, and neglects to prepare for bave elected a black man named Thomas Bayne lad. Pd remained a captive rather than accept liber-stroyer of her young life was a German count, If remained a captive rather than accept liber-stroyer of her young file was a German count, soles as thick as two clap boards. The merty with my sword in limbo. But make ready, I have heard. He had left Rome three or four chant started up by the Tremont, Osborne detime left now to prepare, and he goes down to white men who cannot stomach negro equality don't meddle wid de subjec" Pomp." "Why,

"And justly too" said Huron, the reprobate ! Well, good night."

Well, good night."

"Good night, my young friend. Do not eat The merchant stopped and calmly inquired:

"Why don't you take the stakes?" he unmarked almond."

"Not I, indeed," laughed the heartless Huron

s he turned and sped rapidly away. vas thronged with guests, among whom he soon | vet '

was scattering jest and compliment. "Ha!" said his old uncle, as he met him near the centre of the main parlor, "you are a lagbe hers, and her lovely person. He was the gard again. Absent from the field, and tardy son of the general's youngest sister, and his fa- at the wedding. William and Clara became man and wife just five minutes since,"

"I claim a kies from the bride," said Huron,

"I wish you a hundred years of mutual joy, the immortal Jackson, and the glad tidings had scrupulous man, Huron St. Maur had lived thir- Cousin Clara-and you, too, William," said he, Rites Associashion, and they axed me if they electioneering purposes? On the night of the with smiling lips and devil's heart : and all that cood go in without payin jubilant evening-who so gay as Huron St.

At length the festive time came on, and sparkling wine and wit, over frosted cake and with jubilant shouts, cries, and exultant laugh- to forsake the field for the carpet, he had return- dainty viands, ruled the hour. Then said Hu- "do you know who we air, sur ?" ter, that met eye and ear at every turn, beto- ed to his uncle's to push his suit for the heart ron St. Maur, as he filled a plate with al-alike shone with light, and resounded with the brave and handsome William Avern, a made kinsalen, eat a Philopæna with me; and had that day, and ever since the landing of the but his craven soul instinctively shrank from a "Ah! I am sure I have one here," said Hufoe, been foremost in the battle, and who were combat with the young Tennessean. St. Maur ron, crushing the almond for which he had paid now fresh from victory to see their only sister had already wealth enough to content any but in gold. "This is yours-now! we eat togeth-before Packenham gave his soldiers the bandit cousin, he would have sold his salvation to call nearer death than when British bullets had fanned his manly cheek that morn, ate the un-Avern and Clara Dainemert had pledged their When left by his uncle in the parlor, as I marked almond, while the Judas betraying with & thinking & speaking & voting for herself? vows; and their loves having gained the wil- have related, he hurried from the house with a a kiss, half unconscious of the act, so fierce Doth she never think of these here things?"

day was the 8th of January. Though when and all just day had prayed to the evil spirits . Two nears after, when Huron stood aloof, the time was appointed, none dreamed that it he worshipped, to guide lead and steel to the watching the bride and her spouse as they swingin her umbreller in the air, "Oh, whot is was to be a day of battle. Honored and un- heart of his rival. Now he saw him returned moved in grace and joy in the lively dance, a the price that wooman pays for her experiscathed the young Tennesseean had ridden from triumphant-a victor and a bridegroom. He servant approached and told him some one wish- ence the field as the enemy turned in defeat and dis- hastened to do what his wicked mind had been ed to see him at the street door. Huron impatiently followed the call, for he hoped to see his warrior boys, had hastened to bear the hap- stood in the private office of an Italian apothe- that handsome face grow deadly pale, that mancary and chemist, a dastard who would have ta- ly form relaxed in sudden death, and to hear "She shall be yours this night, my dear Wil- ken a thousand human tives, for as many gold the crash of his rival's fall, at the very feet of liam," said the old general, as they drew rein pieces, if no danger of detection should menace his blooming blushing bride. He found Carlo

"You did not eat the unmarked kernel ?" ask-

"No, I ate the one chipped at the ends," re- gushin child of natur

"It is well," said Carlo. "Now go read this," and as he spoke he placed a billet in Hu-wife and mother, as she embraced ner husband as the chemist raised his small black eyes to discount the ground sons.

The feemale wooman is 1 of the greates liasting as the chemist raised his small black eyes to discount the ground find t name of her destroyer. She knew not what she good in sickness—good in wellness—good all ged in an arrangement to partition the profits Great Appalachian coal field the time. Oh, wooman!" I cride, my feeling of the House printing among their weak and name is given to the bied not a word, but the beaming of their eyes "Right," said he, as he swept them into his the true name of the pretended German Count worked up to a high poetick pitch, "you air an sickly partizans, and to use a portion of it as a

BIANCA'S FATHER."

How pale, how ghastly looked Huron St. Maur then! What sight so pitiable as the traitor strangled by his own treachery. He said not a word. He fied to the house of the chemist; the door was barred, he clamored in vain. When the next day came, the corpse of Huron ions to visit the theatre, or gambling hell, that your father were alive to see this happy young friend. You ordered this to be made St. Maur, lay cold and stark upon the ground, other haunts of licentiousness. He becomes disday—but he fell like a patriot at Lundy's Lane ready three weeks ago, and as you had not cal-

Bianca's father was never seen more in the Crescent City. His task was done.

Miscellaneous.

A SENSIBLE BET.

heard of, was made in Chicago on the day be- their education - has given them great advan- 'em dey'll go to berry hot place if dey is sin- globe, is its liberal distribution over the Norfore the municipal election in that city - Went- tages ; but alas ! they are only a source of vex- ners, for no place is too hot for dem dat sleep on them hemisphere, where it is most needed. worth and Gurney, the opposing candidates for ation and trouble. Poor man, he is just paymayoralty. The bet was between a Water ing the penalty of "doing what the rest wid dere faces turned up to it like a sunflower. plored regions of Central and Northern Asia. street merchant and Ned Osborne of the Tremont House, the largest cigar and tobacco dealer in the city, and was to the effect that if Wentworth was elected, Osborne should have ers do, to paint, to sing, to play, to dance, and I scare dem by cold. I talk of frozen ribbers dat day must walk on bareloot, and ob snow derebase beads foreber and eber, like discharbag. Entering a field of turnips, the dog pointed, and the boy overloyed at the prospect of the privilege of kicking the Water street mer- several useful matters. In time they marry, gin' cargoes of Yankee ice from Boston vessels, ted, and the boy overjoyed at the prospect of chant aforesaid, from the Tremont House to their husbands are unable to support their ex- which kills more of dem dan yaller fever. his master's success, exclaimed: Springer street. The day after the election, travagance, and they are soon reduced to pov- I can't talk book larning, 'cause I don't know "Lor, master, there's a covey; if you get near the merchant having lost, came to Osborne's erry and wretchedness. The good woman is any. But I fritin dem to death almost, so dey 'em, won't you playsic'em store and presented his person to him for the astonished. "Truly," says she, "I did as the call me old Scare Crow. my boys, for the wedding. Be happy while years before Bianca died in my arms. I wish livering a heavy kick as he started, but drew destruction, because he was so foolish as to "do will apparently have to emigrate from that don't ye see, nigga, dey am so fond ob de you can, for the Briton is a tough dog, and I could find the scoundrel. So long as Bianca back his foot with a spasmodic action and parnore, I think that I would give all my gold to not, and kept leisurely on his way, undsturbed not, and kept leisurely on his way, undsturbed and, and kept leisurely on his way, undsturbed and, and kept leisurely on his way. by the volley he had received. The result of this was worse than the first, and he fairly

"What have you got in the basement of your pants ?" cried Ned.

"Milwaukee bricks," shouted the merchant When he again stood in his uncle's house, it wand we arn't within a mile of Springer street

Osborne subsided, paid the champagne, and has been wearing a list slipper ever since .-Buffalo Republic.

WIMIN'S RIGHTS.

BY ARTEMUS WARD.

I pitcht my tent in a small town in Injianny is he saluted the new-made wife, and then one day last season, & while I was standin at would give a certain portion of the profit the dore takin munny, a depytashun of ladies, the printing to the Republican party, or place bessing an come on and seed they was members of the Rone, it is the control of a committee of that party to came up and sed they was members of the Ron- it in the control of a committee of that party to comville Female Moral Reform & Wimin's be used for the distribution of documents, or for

"Not exactly," ses I, "but you can pay with- Killgore, of my State, to say that I would be

"We air, sur," and the feroshus womanwe belong to a Society which bleeves wimin think it was. has rites-which bleeves in raisin her to her proper speer-which bleeves she is indowed I have not. ith as mutch intellect as man is-which Ill resist hens4th & 4ever & 4ever the achments of proud & domineering man." our intenshuns is honorable? I'me a lone man hear in a strange place .- Besides, I've a wife

Doth she never dream of freedom—doth she never think of throwing off the yoke of tyranny, whom that statement was made? A. Yes, sir. people will delight to honor.—State Sentinel. "Not being a natral born fool," said I, by

"Oh, whot -whot !" screamed the female,

"I don't know, marm," sez I, "the price to my show is 15 cents pur individoul "And can' our Sosiety go in free ?" asked the sir.

"Not if I know it," sed I.

into tears "Won't you let my darter in?" said another by the hand. "Oh, pleas let my darter in! Shees a sweet been no female wimin in the world, I should have instituted investigations for the purpose of France that viliain—I found him in you—your likeness so long worn open the boson of Bianca, speakin) git into pantyloons—when you desert vode and his fellow-laborers when they saw your firesides & with your heds full of wimmins these disclosures but no language could possibly row's sun. He has swallowed the poisoned alwhen you play the man, you play the devil, & questered spot beyond the reach of deprayed Aissouri and Arkansas Basin 739,000,000 mond!

All the productive coal fields I continude, as they were indignantly departin, upon the decay of public virtue. After all his of North America "way well what A. Ward has sed."

"I DID AS THE REST DID."

This tame yielding spirit, this "doing as the rest did," has ruined thousands.

A young man is invited by vicious compan-"doing what the rest did."

A father has a family of sons. He is weal-

CVODE STRIKES A MINE!

CATRATUM OF REPUBLI-CORRUPTION! Defrees Lore the

The testing milede "Smelling Comof Defree raise votes enough t same to was nomina-press understanding that half proceeds of the was to othe ex-

a cancus of the Rapublican party conventhe purpose of nominating a candidate for parties the c ter, a proposition that it you were elected you deligh liberal in my contribution to the dissemination "Do you know who we air ?" said one of of political truth among the people of the States the wimmin's, a tall & feroshus looking critter, of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana, and Illwith a blew cotton unbreller under her arm - inois, previous to the next Presidential election, for the purpose of informing them as to their "My impreshum is," sed I, "from a kursere true interests, and who they ought to vote for view, that you are females."

Q. Was that propisition in writing? A. I Q. Have you a copy of it? A. No, sir;

Did you state what amount you would on his armor for the great battle before us. eeves she is trampild on & abbosed-& which give? A. Let me go on with my statement; General Kilgore said he would like to be authorized to make this statement, and I hastily "I hope, marm," sez I, startin back, "that drew up a note addressed to him, and it was to the effect of what I have said here; I am not urging him to accept. Here was a noble sight. certain whether I fixed the amount or not, but such as we seldom see; a man with the gilded I think I did say that I would contribute in that bauble of honor and emolument of office forced "Les," cried the female, "& she's a slave! way half the profits; it was done very hastily. into his hands against his own will. Verily,

Q. Were you voted for in the House as the randidate for printer to the House? A. I was, ponement several days, and it was done.

didate of the Republican party. A. Yes, sir. | ica and Great Britain," annexed to the "Gov-Q. You stated, I think, that you received ernment Survey of the Geology of Pennsylva-all the votes of the Republicans present in the nia:" "Let her gush!" roared I, as mad I cood strike at their tarnal noncents, "let her gush." sir. I should like to say that I regarded his Whereupon they all sprung back with the course towards me as very strange; because, United States imultaneous observation that I was a Beest. | while an apprentice in a printing office, the Br. Prov. of N. A. "My feemale friends," sed I. "be4 you leeve, first writing that I ever did was in support of Great Britain a few remarks to remark: way them well. his father for the Presidency against General The rest of Europe

thy. Other children in the same situation in How to impress Negrous .- When I can't becomes more extensive and exact. Dr. Norlife do so and so, are indulged in this thing and 'swade'em. I fritena em -dat is a great art and denskion, a learned Flemish traveller, who has that. He indulges his own in the same way. white preacher don't always understand de na- just returned from a visit to the Arctic regions, They grow up idlers, triflers and fops. The ture ob colored folks. Now, Pompey, dere, is announces that he discovered anthracite coal as father wonders why his children do not suc- one nature ob niger and one nature ob Massa far North as Spitzbergen. One of the most re-One of the most singular wagers we ever ceed better. He has spent so much money on Buckra. You can't scare our people by tellin' markable features of the coal system of the

VOL. 3. NO. 41.

GEN. FOSTER AT HOME.

Gen. Foster always has been a public man, but now more especially, anything relating to him will be of interest. He is one of nature's noblemen. In him the oppressed find a defender, the wronged an advocate, the poor a dispenser of alms. A lawyer of great ability and raise votes enough a secure hint could not extensive practice, he might have been numbered amongst the most wealthy; yet by his exreme liberality to his triends and the needy, half of the proceeds of the pinting to e one-doubtful States for the Republians. Thathe lowing portion of his testimon, discloses. Thathe the good things of life—He is generous almost to a fault. When you first meet the man, you mative that controlled the Republians in nomate struck with his extreme modesty of demeaning him. , and the genial glow of his sociality. You assured at the first glance that you might atta, for any favor, with full confidence of you delight Such is the disposition and such of Gen. Pof the man whom the Democracy met in height personal appearance, is prepres in of benegatiemanly. He is about over his puntenance active. A pleasant tokens no ord is dark, slightly aged with or head that behis home where he is pert known to and where he is best appreciated, At varying the poet's words be little,

"None speak of him but waise him;.
None know him but to love,

He seems to feel sorry that the locafthe nom mation has fallen upon him. Yet cavinced that the interests and the will of the peome demand it, he is as willing as he is able to buckle

It is related here that when he received the ispatch informing him of his nomination, he hurried to his home, and seemed desirous to shun the many friends who pressed around him, Q. Were you nominated by the cancus to such a man, not only the Democrecy, but all

[From the Philadelphia Ledger,]

y every Republican except Mr. Adams, a son WILL THE COAL FIELDS HOLD OUT? At the present day we find the scientific pre-Q. How long were you voted for? A. I do dictions and popular fears about the exhaustion not recollect; it was postponed day after day of coal are approached under the light of wider for near a month; I do not know how many explorations, more exact surveys, and better ballots there were; I think ten or fifteen I was knowledge of the structure of the coal deposits. voted for; there were one or two ballots a day. That one hundred millions of tons have been Q. You were nominated on the day that taken and day, that the amount Mr. Kilgore made that proposition? A. Ies tainty, judging from the past, that the amount will be doubled and trebled, and still go on to will be doubled and trebled, and still go on to Q. You were voted for as the candidate of increase, as time and the world advance, is a the Republicans on the next day ? A. No, sir; startling fact to contemplate. The following is "Crooil, crooil man! she cried, & burst out not the next day. Mr. Stanton moved a post- a table of the areas and solid contents of the Q. You were nominated, though, on the as given by Professor Rogers in his admirable of the xcentric winin, takin me afeckshunitly day that the proposition was made as the can- Description of the Coal Fields of North Amer-

> Square miles of Total coal area. square miles, 204,180 7,530 (

5,400 8,964 3,564 The estimated quantities of coal in the prin-

36,000,000,000 59,000,000,000 190,000,000,000 316,400,000,000 tuminous coal field which extends through parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia,)

1,387,500,000,000 1,277,500,000,000 labors to purify the political atmosphere, his A survey of these figures will serve to tranown Republican friends go and nominate a man qualize any immediate apprehension of a short for Printer upon consideration of his using half supply of coal. It will be seen that at the presthe profits to influence elections; and the whole entrate of consumption, 100,000,000 of tons thing comes out most inopportunely, just as he per annum, the coal fields of Pennsylvania ais about showing upthe Democratic politicians. lone would meet the demand foor 3164 years. Covode has been shamefully treated. And If this consumption were doubled, viz : 200,000-then to think that after all, the Republicans 000 tons, the Great Appalachian field would should elect a man Printer at the dictation of meet the strain for 6937 years. If it were ders his property, and at last sinks into an un-timely grave. What ruined him? Simply and agreed to take care of the wounded. What the world's supply for 10,000 years to come To this we must add the consideration that new coal fields are brought to light as exploration

"Physic them, you young rascal, what do you mean ?" "Why kill 'em, to be sure," replied the

"Sam, why am Senators like de fishes?" "I