Bedford, May 11, 1860.

B. F. Meyers, Editor and Proprietor.

FOR GOVERNOR.

HENRY D. FOSTER,

OF WESTMORELAND COUNTY.

"The principle of the tariff of 1842, as far as related to the manufacture of IRON, of any description or of every description, was NOT TOO HIGH."

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Democratic National Convention which assembled at Charleston on the 23d ult., adjourned on Wednesday last, to meet at Baltimore on the 18th of June.

The Democratic National Convention which assembled at Charleston on the 23d ult., adjourned on Wednesday last, to meet at Baltimore on the 18th of June.

The absence of the Editor, will account for the sparseness of editorial matter in this issue.

The Culmination of Fraud.

As a proper finale to the astounding frauds perpetrated at the recent election, the Black Republican managers of the City administration have rendered their inquiry by "counting out" JOHN R. DOWNING, who was elected Controller by several hundred majority.

In the second and third stories over the last named firm, were the wholesale rooms of Messrs Rawson & Battlett, dealers in boots and shoes.

The loss of Mr. Price in the falling of the wall upon his premises is a serious one. The horses and carriages had been got out in season but the loft was filled with valuable sleighs belonging to him and various other parties for whom he was storing them.

What course the other candidates on the Democratic ticket intend to take in the matter we are unable to say; but it seems to us, from facts that have come to our knowledge, partly obtained by actual observation, that there is ample ground for contesting the right of every one of the Black Republican candidates on the City Ticket, who now hold the certificates of a fraudulent election.

Discontented Mormons Rejected.—It appears that Brigham Young is annoyed by reports and threats of apostasy on the part of certain weak backed saints.

The Charleston Convention. The adjournment yesterday of the Democratic National Convention, in session at Charleston, to meet in Baltimore on the 18th of June next, is a subject of congratulation, and is proceeding more likely than any other course of proceeding to result in a restoration to success.

Destructive Fire at Chicago. [From the Chicago Press and Tribune, May 2.] The alarm of fire about 8 o'clock yesterday morning, was caused by a fire which broke out in the extensive five story wholesale clothing warehouse of Messrs. Barrett, King & Co., No. 27 Lake street.

The marble block of Cooley, Farwell & Co., on Wabash avenue, was at timber in much danger, but saved by vigorous exertion.

The building is owned by Liberty Bigelow Esq., and is insured for $10,000, as follows:—Humboldt, $5,000; City of New Haven, $5,000. The injury to the building is thus fully covered.

No. 25 was occupied on the main floor and the two upper stories, by Messrs. Weber Williams & Yale, wholesale dealers in hats, caps and straw goods.

Messrs. Burnham & Smith, wholesale druggists, occupied the third store of the continuous brick block, No. 23 Lake street. Their premises were badly flooded with water, caused by the bursting of a hose.

A BLOOD-CHILLING TRAGEDY.—The Howard County (Ind.) Tribune says that one day last week Mr. Levi Sizelove, in the eastern part of that county, after he had chopped down a tree, and had walked out on it to the top, discovered something writing, and slowly approached it, thinking that the tree had fallen on a pig.

The Editorial Excursion.—Wheeler, (Va.) May 3.—The editorial excursion over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will be very large. Over two hundred editors and reporters who are now here will start to-morrow for Baltimore and Washington in charge of Wm. Prescott Smith, Esq., the master of transportation.

When a man begins to find fault, inquiring in regard to this, that and the other, saying, "Does this look as though the Lord dictated it?" you may know that that person has more or less of the spirit of apostasy.

Further from Mexico. New Orleans, May 5.—The Pizarro has received later advices from Mexico by the arrival of the schooner Star from Vera Cruz.

A Capital Truck that Ended Well.—Here is a good story which we have just heard. A young man (a brother to "Sly Boots") perhaps, for, like her, he enjoyed a good joke was studying in college.

From the Gold Mines.—Denver City, Apr 21, 1860.—Emigrants are steadily increasing in numbers, and an increased activity in business of all kinds is perceptible.

Japanese Mice.—The Honolulu Advertiser of March 1 has the following:—"While on board the Powhatan one of the sailors, who did not go to Japan for nothing, exhibited to us a sample of Japanese mice, which were of various colors—some pure white, others spotted."

Electric Telegraphs in England.—There are in England four lines of electric or magnetic telegraphs, namely, the Electric and International Line; the British and Irish Magnetic; the South-eastern Railway Line and the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway Line.

A Tragedy in Earnest.—In Wilmington, North Carolina, on Saturday evening, Joseph S. Canady, a young mechanic, who had just purchased a dirk, while jesting with a companion, playfully struck his own breast with the knife, crying, "Lay on Macduff!"

At the house of Capt. Lewis Anderson, by Lemuel Evans Esq., Mr. Abraham Reed, of Huntington Co., to Miss Matilda Anderson of Bedford County.

Handsome Testimonial.—A handsome ornamented gold box, valued at $500 has been received by Mr. W. Moore, a New York merchant from the British Government, to be presented to Townsend Harris, Esq., the American Minister to Japan, as an acknowledgement for the services rendered by him to the English Ambassador.

John Iverson was recently arrested and imprisoned at the South for aggravated polygamy; he had thirteen wives. The daughter of the jailor whose hospitality this insatiable polygamist was enjoying while awaiting trial, believed him innocent, pitied him, loved him, opened the prison doors, fled with him, became his fourteenth wife.

A Letter from Austin, Texas dated 18th ult., gives an account of a terrible tragedy which was enacted in that city on the 17th. It appears some dozen men, living upon Onion Creek eight or ten miles from there, rescued a prisoner from the hands of the sheriff while having his trial for the supposed murder of an old gentleman named Edwards, living in the neighborhood of the above-named parties.

At last accounts the Mormons were somewhat excited at the introduction of the bill in Congress making polygamy an offence against State law. They were drilling and arming to some extent, and if they will ever fight it will be in defence of their "peculiar institutions."

Two boys have been tried at Bury St. Edwards for the manslaughter of a young girl. They were romping with her, and by the way of a practical joke, had rolled her in the mud b. n. The poor child escaped from them, and after running a few yards, fell down and died, choked by the mud in her mouth and nostrils.

Hon. Edgar C. Wilson, a distinguished lawyer Northwestern Virginia, and at one time a representative in Congress from the Wheeling district, died at his residence in Morgantown on Tuesday evening last.

A runaway slave lately arrived in Cincinnati, on one of the river steamers, boxed up in a crockery crate.

The Kentucky Legislature offer a reward of one thousand dollars for a cure for the hog cholera, now prevailing in that State.

GOOD—AND PERFECTLY TRUE.—The Rock Island Argus relates a good story of a discussion between a Democrat and a Republican at that place a few days ago. The Democrat contended for the superiority of the white race over that of the negro. The Republican claimed that, naturally the negro race was fully equal to the white race, and cited as an instance the great abilities and talents of Scipio Africanus!

A Louisiana Wild Man of the Woods.—A wild man of the woods, who speaks French in a manner not at all wild, is furnishing a local topic to the New Orleans papers. He was caught in a clump of bushes on a plantation, thirteen miles below the city, armed with a revolver, which unpleasant instrument he popped at every passenger along the road.

A TRIAL of skill for the "Championship" and $125 a side, came off at Troy, N. Y., on Tuesday last, between two rival blacksmiths, named John McKenny, and Patrick Kennedy. The latter was declared the winner, having made in 10 hours, 20 dozen pairs of perfect horseshoes—in all 140. The defeated smith, made in the same period of time, 17 dozen and 6 shoes.

Public Bequest.—The will of Mr Lawrence Johnson, type-founder in Philadelphia, lately deceased, contains the following bequests, providing that his real and personal estate shall be divided as follows:—$324,000, one year after death, to The Printers Benevolent Association, $1,000 American Sunday School Union, $3,000; Union Home Benevolent Association, $1,000; Temporary Home for Friendless Children, $2,000; Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind, $1,000; Deaf and Dumb Asylum, $1,000.

A TALL FAMILY.—A Tennessean who is six feet six inches long, and is buying horses in Cincinnati, says he is the shortest of seven brothers, the heaviest one of whom weighs 330 pounds. The shortest one is pretty nearly as long as a fence rail.

A YOUNG man who is serving out a term in the Michigan State Prison has written a long letter to his friends, dwelling upon the causes which led him into crime, and summing up the conditions of "tip-top life," as understood by rapid young gentlemen. He says:—"You may not comprehend this term, but let me explain. By living a tip-top life is meant first to be idle; second, to drink whiskey or anything else, (and of course get drunk;) third, to frequent all places of coarse fun, such as cock fights, boxing matches, negro shows, &c.; fourth, to keep a concubine or two; fifth, to steal all they can lay their hands upon. This, then, is living a tip-top life. Thus have I fallen, and thus will thousands of young men fall."

ABOLITIONISTS IN THE CHEROKEE NATION.—We clip the following from the Fort Smith Times, Arkansas:—"We learn from the Cherokees that the abolitionists are holding secret meetings, and it is reported that all the newly initiated are compelled to take an oath of secrecy, and are required to furnish a certain amount of powder and lead. We fear this organization among the Cherokees has its origin in another part of the country, and that it is spreading secretly in the Nation are becoming alarmed at the growing strength of the abolitionists in their country."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—The greatest plague of life. Piles and Fistula.—Though thousands are afflicted with these terrible scourges, few if any are acquainted with their cause or nature and resign themselves to the belief that they are incurable—but an explanation of their character will satisfy any man of common sense that they are remediable. Piles and their kindred disease arise from costiveness, overstraining or neglected appeals of nature; by removing these we extinguish the exciting causes. Holloway's Pills renovate the stomach and invigorate the action of the bowels, and a few applications of the ointment to the seat of the disease will eradicate the piles forever—try them and be convinced.

DIED.

Mrs. Caroline, Wife of Dr. George Anderson, died in Bedford Pa., Apr 23d 1860, aged 30 years. Not only the bereaved husband and family friends, but all who knew her well, mourn the early and unlooked for death of Mrs. Anderson. Young and beautiful, educated and intelligent, she was yet meek and humble, kind and gentle to all. She was a consistent and lovely Christian, and in connection with the Methodist Episcopal Church had followed the Saviour unwaveringly from early childhood. She died in peace. S. B.
