

Fan, Fan and John

WHAT is the first thing a young lady looks at in church. The Hims.

A ROSE without a thorn—a woman without nails.

A GENTLEMAN'S comforter—a pretty wife with an amiable disposition.

PHYSICIAN'S prescriptions are now called "death warrants in Latin."

A MAN winds up his clock to make it run, and his business to make it stop.

A MAN down east has invented yellow spectacles, for making lard look like butter.

The reason why the Black Republicans call Lincoln "Honest" Abe, is to distinguish him from the rest of the party.

"I'll give that fellow a piece of my mind," exclaimed a young lady.

"I wouldn't," replied her uncle, "you've none to spare."

The following, which is said to be recorded in an Irish grave-yard, is excellent of its kind: Here lies the body of John Mound, Lost at sea and never found.

It will afford sweeter happiness in the hour of death to have wiped one tear from the eye of sorrow than to have ruled an empire.

PROBABLY the surest way to get mosquitoes out of your room is to smoke them out. Make a big smoke that will drive you out and they'll follow you.

MANY persons have a particular ambition to seem exactly what they are not. We know a rich man who bought a splendid library, and signed the contract with his mark.

Bulwer says that "death often changes aversion into love." Certainly it does. We may have an antipathy to swine, and yet love pork and sausages.

The earth is a tender and kind mother to the husbandman, and yet one season he always harrows her bosom and at another plows her ears.

A young top about starting down to New Orleans, proposed to purchase a life preserver.

"Oh, you'll not want it," suggested the clerk; "bags of wind won't sink."

Oliver Wendell Holmes says: "Our brains are seventy-year clocks. The angel of life winds them up once for all, he closes the doors and gives the key into the hands of the angel of resurrection."

AT AN election, a candidate solicited a vote.

"I would rather vote for the devil than you," was the reply.

"But in case your friend is not a candidate," said the solicitor, "might I then count on your assistance?"

A LADY who had been subpoenaed as a witness on a trial, asked her husband in great trepidation what she should say if the lawyers inquired her age. "Say," he replied; "why tell them you haven't yet reached the years of discretion."

An old bachelor says that women are so fond of appearances, that if you could make them believe there were no looking-glasses in heaven, they would set no more value upon such a place than upon a poor relation.

If there is a heaven on earth, it is on a soft couch by your own fireside, with your wife on one side, and a smiling baby on the other; a clear conscience, a dozen cigars, and knowledge that you are out of debt, and don't fear the tailor, sheriff, or the devil.

"MAY I be married, ma?" said a lovely girl of fifteen, to her mother the other morning.

"Married?" exclaimed the astonished matron, "what put such an idea into your head?"

"Little Emily, here has never seen a wedding, and I'd like to amuse the child," replied the obliging sister, with fascinating simplicity.

SIGNOR BLITZ, the celebrated magician and ventriloquist, selected from his audience a bright little fellow to assist him in his experiments.

"Sir," said Blitz, "do you think I could put the sovereign which the lady holds, in your pocket?"

"No," said the boy confidently.

"Think not?"

"I know you couldn't."

"Why?"

"Cause the pocket's tore out."

"Blancet, bring me the castor oil, the baby is sick."

"It's all gone marm, not a drop left."

"All gone? why we have not opened the bottle."

"Sure you have had it every day, and I've seen you use it myself on your salad."

"Why, you don't say that we have been eating castor oil every day during the salad season?"

"Sure you have."

"But did you not see the bottle was labeled castor oil?"

"Sure and I did, marm; an' didn't I put it into the castor every day?"

"Do you want a raffle?"

asked a pedler who had picked it up at fifty different places.

"What sort of butter is it?" asked the merchant.

"The clear quill—made by my own wife from a dairy of forty ke'ows, only two churning."

"Well, then, what makes it so many colors?"

"I guess," replied the Yankee, who was a near kin to the Slick family, "I guess you would never ax that question, if you had seen my ke'ows—for there a darnd' sight more speckled than my butter."

The merchant declined trading.

Bedford Hotel.

AND GENERAL STAGE OFFICE

The subscriber respectfully begs leave to announce to his old friends and the public generally, that he has leased the Bedford Hotel, a present in the occupancy of Col. Adam Barnhart, and will take possession on the 1st day of April next. It is not his design to make many professions as to what he will do, but he pledges his word that his most energetic efforts will be employed to render comfortable all who give him a call. The House will be handsomely fitted up, and none but careful and attentive servants will be engaged. Persons visiting the Bedford Springs, as well as those attending Court, and the travelling community generally, are respectfully invited to give him a call and judge for themselves.

Boarders taken by the week, month, or year, on favorable terms.

Ample and comfortable stabling is attached to this Hotel, which will always be attended by a careful hostler. Also, a safe and convenient carriage house.

ALL THE STAGES stop at this Hotel.

BEDFORD CLASSICAL INSTITUTE

REV. JOHN LYON, T. LITTLETON LYON, A. M., PRINCIPALS.

THE Summer session of this Institution will open on Friday, the 4th day of May 1860.

It is the design of the Principals, to make this Academy, in all respects, a first class Institution, for the thorough instruction of youth of both sexes, and to prepare them for any profession or position in life.

The high moral and scientific tone of the school is well known to this community, and a strict discipline will be enforced.

A few boys, (the number is limited to ten,) will be received into the family of the Principals, as boarders.

The beauty of the scenery and the salubrity of the climate render Bedford a most desirable location for such a school.

Persons from abroad, visiting at the Springs, can be near their children during the summer.

It is desirable that pupils should enter at the commencement of the session, and no pupil will be received for less than one quarter.

TERMS: $300 per year, including boarding, washing, fuel, light, and Tuition in all the branches.

Terms for day scholars: Per Quarter, $6.—English Branches, $7.50, Classical do &c.
