

faint dissatisfaction, waken our strength or divide our forces. We have a common enemy before us; let us have no treason in our camp, but stand together as one man for the success of our ticket and our party. Above all, let us for a moment encourage those who in any way look to a dissolution of the Union, as a remedy for their fancied ills. Beware lest a secession from the organization of your party, may find you in the ranks of an army, if not routed, at least commanded by officers engaged in constant efforts to accomplish a secession from the Union itself.

FOR THE BEDFORD GAZETTE. Sabbath School Celebration.

Pursuant to previous arrangements, on Wednesday morning, the 4th instant, a large number of teachers and pupils of the Union Sabbath School, convened at school house No. 12, in Napier township; when, after singing a hymn selected for the occasion, and prayer by Rev. Mr. Gates, they were formed in procession, preceded by music, banners and wreaths, and marched to the barn of Mr. Peter Winegardner, (who had that morning fitted up seats and table for the accommodation of the assembly) the inclemency of the weather preventing an assembling in the grove on Mr. R. E. McMillin's farm, where previous arrangements had been made. When the assembly was seated an appropriate hymn was sung by the ladies, the Declaration of Independence read by John W. Brown, an address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Gates. The assembly then partook of a sumptuous repast heartily provided by the good matrons of the neighborhood. We then had a short recess, at which time Rev. Mr. Winegardner, of Schellsburg, arrived, the rain in the morning preventing his earlier attendance, and the weather becoming favorable, we were again formed in procession and marched to the grove, where a juvenile song was sung by several young ladies, and Rev. Mr. Winegardner delivered an address to the scholars. He was followed by James L. Norton, who delivered a very animated address on the liberty and independence now enjoyed by our people.

The procession again formed, and marched to a beautiful grove, near Mr. Winegardner's saw mill, accompanied by the music, where it was marched around and drawn up in a compact body, and three hearty cheers given. The assembly was then dismissed, and all returned to their homes highly gratified with the performances of the day.

Much praise is due to the liberality of the citizens in furnishing provisions so bountifully, likewise to Mr. Winegardner and others, for the preparations of the morning to promote the comfort and happiness of the children of the neighborhood. Upwards of two hundred persons partook of the bounteous repast and there was much left.

Our Sabbath School is indeed a "Union School." Its first meeting was on the first day of April last, and it now numbers 52 male, and 54 female pupils, making a total of 106 pupils. These are divided into 18 classes. The average attendance, each Sabbath, has been 93 pupils. The only disadvantage under which we labor, is the want of room, our school house being too small for the accommodation of the multitude who meet there every Sabbath. There has been contributed up to the present time, by subscription, and collections $21.25 of which sum there has been expended for books, tickets, &c., $20.12, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of 83 cents. May the school go on and prosper.

The Fourth in Cumberland Valley.

The glorious Fourth was celebrated by the soldiers and citizens of Cumberland Valley, at Caledonia in appropriate and enthusiastic style. The meeting was organized by the appointment of H. J. BRUNER, ESQ., as President, John May, Nicholas Wertz, George Sliger, Robert E. H. Cessna and Capt. Jas. Hancy, as Vice Presidents, and D. R. Anderson and John Simons, Secretaries. The Declaration of Independence was read by Dr. H. Hudson, and eloquent and appropriate addresses were delivered by Col. J. W. Tate and Mr. John Palmer. A number of songs were then sung by Maj. A. J. Sanson, and Col. Tate, among which was the soul-stirring "Star Spangled Banner," and a sidesplitting song about the Rail-splitter, knowing how Lincoln maul'd rails and how Douglas will maul Lincoln this fall. The meeting then closed with three cheers for DOUGLAS and JOHNSON, three for HENRY D. FOSTER, and three more for our Democratic Country Ticket.

NON-INTERVENTION.

[That's what we would call a good celebration. Cumberland Valley is always right.—Ed.]

MARRIED.

On the 23rd ult., at the Pastor's residence, in Schellsburg, by the Rev. Joseph Hannaberry, Mr. Michael Miller, of St. Clair tp., to Miss Margaret Winegardner, of Napier tp.

On the 5th inst., by the Rev. Sam'l Winegardner, Mr. William Fickes, to Miss Elizabeth Clark, both of Union tp.

DECEASED.

On the night of the 4th, after a short illness, departed this life, Mrs. Mary Byrne, sister of L. Harman, Sen., one of our much esteemed former citizens, and mother of Mrs. Robert Fyan, of this place. The deceased was born at the Seven Churches, in Wicklow county, Ireland, and came here about the year 1817.

She had passed through the frightful scenes of what is called the "Rebellion of 98," in Ireland, when that down-trodden country struck for freedom, but, alas! fatally and fruitlessly. She saw her brave brothers—Lawrence and John Harman—exiled to America, because they fought and suffered in the cause of Ireland! and she came after them, to this country, to enjoy that liberty which was not to be had in her native land. She felt for Ireland's wrongs and she abhorred Ireland's oppressors and oppression every where. It was a singular coincidence that she should die, on the evening of our glorious 4th of July, when we celebrate our emancipation from British bondage and when Revolutionary heroes died to die.

But though we admire her patriotic heart, and her love for oppressed Ireland, her firm faith and exalted piety are still more to be admired. For more than a quarter of a century, she shone as a light in the House of God. She was invariably pious and charitable. Whenever she was able to do anything for her neighbor, she was particularly prompt to render any friendship. The poor, she reliev-according to her means—the sick-bed she comforted. Whenever there was good doing, in the Church, she was there first and last in accomplishing any and every good work.

She was a regular communicant, at the Catholic Church, every month and on all the solemn Festivals. She was most attentive at Church. No matter how inclement, could keep her from church on Sundays and Festivals. She died on the Divine Worship, on Sabbath, and all other appointed days. She died as she had lived, a true Christian. The very large assemblage of grief-stricken friends and acquaintances, at the funeral, testified how much she was beloved and revered by this community. Her fidelity to her God, and to her church, obtained a blessing for her rarely experienced. She died in peace, and in a good age, almost realizing the scriptural term of man's days—"three score and ten." Being faithful in every duty, civil, moral and religious, she has been removed, as a ripe sheaf for the barn of the Lord, fit to be translated from this earth to heaven, from the wilderness of the world to Paradise, from this valley of tears to her true country. Faithful herself, she has been privileged to merit the promise made to the faithful Abraham, "And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buried in a good old age."—Genesis 15th ch., 15 v.

NATURE is the great physician.—This is now admitted by the medical profession, as a fundamental principle of healing science. It is wisely provided by the human economy, that whenever anything is wrong in the physical system, the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel it. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers of the body. The effect of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys, are prompt and decisive. The patient who is wise enough to quit drugging, and try the Bitters, soon feels as if he had taken a new lease of life, and as he continues the use of the article, he is enabled to find the streams of health coursing through his frame. Let all from whose cheek the bloom has departed, give Dr. J. Hostetter's Celebrated Bitters a trial.

Sold by druggists and Dealers generally, everywhere.
