Republican Arguments.

The Republican leaders of this county, finding that they cannot arouse their forces by appealing to their reason, are endeavoring to excite their prejudices and to inspire them with a hope of success, by embittering the campaign and getting up a mechanical excitement with all sorts of fantastic and foolish contrivances. We had hoped that in a canvass which involves to a great extent the destiny of the Republic, and in which every citizen has, perhaps, his all at stake, the people would be suffered to decide the issues before them with a sober and deliberate judgment, and that no effort would be made to embitter and intensify party feeling. In this we have been disappointed. The Black Republican politicians, hungry for office, are determined to resort to every low device and every principle—what care they for country—so that their greedy maws obtain satisfaction. We appeal to the honest, upright, thinking masses of their party, how can they approve of such drunken revelry, such childish nummery as that witnessed on Tuesday night last? Let the sober sense of the people decide the political issues of the day. Let not the yelling of boys, or the raising of poles, or the masquerading of Black Republican "Beisnickles," frighten or delude the voters whose hands are placed the woe, or the woe of this nation.

Extra Pay.

We understand that the Abolition organ, in this place, intends, in this week's issue, to reiterate the false and stale charge that W. P. Schell voted in favor of increasing the pay of members of the Legislature.

Mr. Schell opposed the increase of pay of members. See Senate Journal, 1858, page 669.

On the 13th April, 1858, Mr. Schell, offered the following resolution, viz: "That the committee of conference, on the part of the Senate on striking out of said bill the clause which authorizes the payment of $200, in addition to the regular pay to the members of the Legislature which was voted down." See page 772.

During the session of 1859, Mr. Schell, also voted to reduce the pay of members of the Legislature. See Senate Journal, 1859, page 745.

We contradicted the charge in 1858 when first made—and we will in our next number give full extracts from the Senate Journal.

HON. JOHN SCOTT.

The nomination of the above named gentleman for the office of State Senator for the district composed of the counties of Bedford, Somerset and Huntingdon, was one eminently fit to be made. Mr. Scott stands at the head of the Huntingdon bar, is a man of excellent moral character, a fine speaker, a true Democrat and a gentleman in every sense of the word. Should he be elected, and it is not at all improbable that he will be, his constituents will find him a true and faithful representative. In Huntingdon county Mr. Scott is very popular and will beat Wharton by a handsome majority. Let the remainder of the District do its duty and John Scott will be our next Senator.

Doesn't Like the Bell Men.

Edward McPherson, the "Republican" candidate for Congress in this district, in his speech at the Lincoln meeting on Tuesday night last, took occasion to refer in slighting terms to the "friends and supporters of Mr. Bell. Perhaps the Bell men may refer to him in slighting terms on the second Tuesday of October.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY!

GREAT OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE!

UNION AND HARMONY THE WATCHWORD!

Delegations, Banners, Flags, Music and intense enthusiasm!

No Rail-splitters! No Union-splitters! No Negro Worshipers!

Monday evening last, was a gala time for the Democracy of Bedford county. The Mass Meeting advertised to be held on that evening, was a splendid demonstration, exceeding in point of numbers as well as in spirit and enthusiasm, anything of the kind ever witnessed in Bedford. The Court room was one living throng of men, and large numbers were compelled to stay outside for want of room. Before the organization of the meeting, large delegations of Democrats from Colerain, West Providence and other townships, came in to town with music and banners, and the "Douglas Club" of Cumberland Valley township, with Douglas flags floating in the breeze and amid the thunder of martial music and the shouts and cheers of the assembled crowd, made a triumphant entry just before eight. Every thing was life, animation, and enthusiasm, reminding one of the glorious campaigns of days gone by. The blood of the Democracy is up. Our ranks are united and firm, ready to receive the shock of battle and to hurl back upon our foes the tide of the contest. All is well in Bedford county. Brave hearts and bold will bear the Democratic flag to victory.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers:

PRESIDENT, HON. JOB MANN. VICE PRESIDENTS: Cornelius Devore, E. Stabler, Col. F. D. Beagle, P. H. Studabaker, Wm. Iams, Col. L. A. May, John H. Barton, John Conrad, David Miller, Dr. C. F. Ollege, John W. Smith, Jos. Beagle, P. F. Lehman, Esq., W. T. Daugherty, Jacob C. Brumbaugh. SECRETARIES: Jesse Conner, Simon Hershman, Jacob B. Anderson, Esq., Wm. P. Morgan, Jas. B. Farquhar, Samuel Burket, Richard Langdon, Wm. Keyser, Geo. W. Horn, Esq., Westley Akers, Henry Fluke.

On motion of G. H. Spang, Esq., Chairman of the Dem. Co. Committee, the following resolutions were then unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That upon the Presidential question we are willing to support any just and fair plan of union which may be adopted whereby the whole conservative vote of Pennsylvania may be cast for a common Electoral Ticket in opposition to the Republican candidates. Resolved, That we cordially endorse the platform of resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Reading on the first day of March last.

Resolved, That we deem it of the utmost importance to secure the election of Henry D. Foster, the regular Democratic nominee for Governor, as his election will indicate, unmistakably, to the country, that Pennsylvania is true to her instincts, and her attachment to the Union and the Constitution.

Resolved, That we will forego, for the time being, any difference of opinion among Democrats, upon national topics, for the sake of the Union, and that we will use our efforts and undivided energies to promote the election of Henry D. Foster, as Governor of our good old Democratic Commonwealth.

Resolved, That for the same great cause, and in order to secure the well-deserved supremacy of the Democratic party in our legislative and local contests, that we will continue to adhere to regular Democratic usage, and will support the nominees of our local conventions, irrespective of their preferences for Presidential candidates.

Resolved, That we recommend to the Democratic Congressional Conference of this District the name of Hon. W. P. Schell, as a suitable candidate for Congress, and pledge to him, if nominated, our hearty and undivided support.

Speeches were then made by Dr. J. E. McGee, B. F. Meyers, O. E. Shannon, Esq., and Hon. JOHN CESSNA, the speakers being frequently interrupted with rounds of applause. After Mr. Cessna had concluded, the meeting adjourned with loud and prolonged cheering for the whole Democratic ticket.

Another Definition for Fr. Jordan.

Good Taste—a quality singularly exhibited by the Honorable Francis Jordan, in a recent speech in Fulton county, in which he traduced and vilified his friend and co-Director of the Bedford Railroad, Hon. W. P. Schell.

A sensible remark.

A Republican friend of ours remarked the other day, when the Lincoln flag was raised up street, that more horses would be frightened by that flag than voters. Said he, "Poles can't vote."

REPUBLICAN POW-WOW.

"A great cry—and" all "wool." "Sound and fury, signifying nothing."

For two weeks previous to our court, the adherents of the Rail and Union-splitter, had been busily engaged in making preparations to have a grand demonstration in this place on Tuesday evening. To hear them talk, the mountains were to sink and the valleys rise, the earth was to quake and the heavens to rock, with the upheaval of the Rail and Union Splitters. Well, the long-looked for day arrived. About noon a couple of scraggy saplings were hauled into town and the colored population was at once excited with a most intense enthusiasm. Directly we noticed a hack driving down town with a venerable old darkey in the boot, and some one in the inside calling out in thick tones, "Ere comes Hold Hable Lincoln!" Then some of the Bedford youngsters went out with a flag and music to help fill up the delegations of boys that were coming in wagons from several townships. Next came the said delegations, entering town amid the cheering of the boys and the colored population, all of them looking very demure and solemn, and a gleeful singing what we took to be Ossawatimie Brown's funeral anthem. Next Black Law and his friends raised the scraggy poles, whereupon four Republicans went off, declaring that such a humbug was too much for them and that they would hereafter support the Democratic ticket. Night came on, and the "Beisnickles" made their appearance. Fiercely glared their lamps—heavy and solemn was their tread—bloody red were their helmets—like thunder was their snort and like distant thunder their mutterings. Their colored friends admired—Billy Cosler proposed three cheers for the friends of the black man—and the "Beisnickles" marched around town. Then came the specifying. Like the time when Wilmot spoke—Wilnot, the great defeated—the trick of pretending that the meeting could not be held in the court room, was again performed. So the speeches were made in the public square. The speakers were Dr. Duffield, of McConnellsburg, Mr. Moore, of Philadelphia, Mr. McPherson and the Rev. Mr. Jordan. Dr. Duffield's was the speech of the evening. As the Dr. dealt in generalities, his speech is not worth criticizing. Moore and McPherson both fizzled completely, the latter taking good care to pitch into the Bell and Everett men as he went along. But the Rev. Mr. Jordan—we give him this title because he affects so much piety in politics—the Rev. Mr. Jordan must not pass unnoticed. For unmitigated, rough-shod, bare-faced, bald-headed lying, Jordan can distance any man in the State. For instance, Mr. Jordan charged the Democrats with being in favor of polygamy. No decent white man would make such a charge as this, when it is a matter of history that Mr. FULLMOR appointed Brigham Young Governor and sent troops to that Territory to put down the Mormon rebellion. Mr. Jordan also asserted that the Democrats squandered the public lands and opposed the Homestead Bill. Every body knows this to be false. John L. Dawson, one of the leading Democrats in this State, is the father and originator of the Homestead Bill. Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, is one of its ablest advocates. No public lands were ever given away to railroad companies, except by the Congress of 1856-7, of which Black Republican N. P. Banks was speaker, and in which the Democrats were in a minority. O. B. MATTHEWSON, of New York, a Black Republican member of that Congress, was expelled for being bribed by Railroad companies to vote public lands to them. That same Congress also established our present low Tariff. But it is useless to follow the vagaries and fables of Jordan, or to speak further of this Black Republican pow-wow. We only hope that such demonstrations may be more frequent, as the one in question has already strengthened, united and aroused the Democracy of the county.

The Bedford "Beisnickles."

A new secret organization has recently sprung up in our midst, calling itself the "Wide Awake Club." Externally it aims at oddity and fantastic display, decking itself out somewhat in the fashion of the boys in a Christmas masquerade. In fact we can compare it to nothing but a troop of "Beisnickles," or a dilapidated fire company. But no matter about externals. It has a secret object, and that is well divided to be "to resist the execution of the Fugitive Slave Law, to run off negro, slaves on the underground railroad, and to assassinate John Browns in their bloody work of making war upon the South. There is no doubt about this matter. The men who organize these clubs are leading Abolitionists, some of them in the pay of the British Anti-Slavery society. The members are not made acquainted with the work they will have to perform. They are simply made to believe that it is all for a little fun and display. The time may come when they will know better. The very blacks themselves know what it is for. At the procession on Tuesday night you could see them raving in large numbers with these "Wide Awakes, huzzing for Lincoln and with grinding ivorys and distended eyes, gazing in black satisfaction upon the scene. To what a pass have not political matters come, when such hideous, monstrous, unreasonable, diabolical purposes enter into the hearts of men! God forbid that the people should be deluded into countenancing such traitorous proceedings.

Franklin county has instructed her Congressional conference for Hon. W. P. Schell, of this place, and passed resolutions endorsing the nomination of Douglas and Johnson.

Messrs. Ferguson and Shafer have dissolved partnership, and their business is continued by the firm of Ferguson and Line. Give them a call.

The Bell and Everett meeting on Wednesday evening last, was quite large and respectable. JOHN MOWER, Esq., of this place presided, assisted by Messrs. W. F. Mann, John W. Beeler, John Lyon and Valentine V. Wertz, as Vice Presidents. Messrs. Wm. Hartley and Ross Anderson were appointed Secretaries, and Wm. Lyon, Esq., Mr. Haney, of Broad Top, and Wm. Showman, of Juniata tp., committee on resolutions. The meeting was addressed by Dr. Compher, Wm. Lyon, Esq., Mr. Haney and Wm. Hartley, Esq. The speech of Dr. Compher was eloquent and logical, striking now at the Democracy and then at Black Republicanism. Mr. Lyon made a long and powerful effort, abounding in capital hits, and using up the Black Republican creed most effectually. Among other things, he said that if the contest were narrowed down as between Lincoln and Douglas, he would not hesitate a moment to go for Douglas. Stephen A. Douglas, said Mr. Lyon, is a National man and in favor of protection to our home industry.—At the conclusion of Mr. Lyon's speech, the junior member of the firm of Jordan & Co., had the temerity to ask him who he was for, for State and District officers. Mr. Lyon promptly answered that he was opposed to Abraham Lincoln, because he was the nominee of a sectional party, and because he was not in favor of a protective tariff. He was opposed to ANDREW G. CURTIN, because Andrew G. Curtin was in favor of Lincoln. He would vote for W. F. SCHELL, because he knew the man. These answers were followed by a perfect storm of applause. Poor DAVY sat down entirely discomfited.—In the earlier part of the evening, a Bell and Everett balloon was sent up, presenting a beautiful appearance. A delegation also came in from the Springs, with bells jingling and banners waving. The Black Republicans have got the blues ever since this meeting and talk seriously of taking down their flag.

Senatorial Conference.

The Democratic Senatorial Conference met at the Hotel of Col. John Hafer, in Bedford, on Monday, 3d Sept., 1860, and organized by electing Hon. W. T. DAUGHERTY, of Bedford, President, and J. O. Kimmel, of Somerset, Secretary.

James Patton, W. T. Daugherty and Wm. M. Pearson, appeared as conferees from Bedford. Col. R. F. Haslett, Wm. Lewis and R. Milton Speer, from Huntingdon.

J. O. Kimmel, S. S. Platt and Josiah H. Zimmerman, from Somerset.

Mr. Patton, of Bedford, nominated William J. Baer, of Somerset, whereupon Mr. Kimmel, of Somerset, read a dispatch from Mr. Baer, declining to be a candidate. Mr. Kimmel then made a motion that John Scott, of Huntingdon, be nominated by acclamation; which motion being seconded by Mr. Pearson, was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Lewis, Resolved, That we are proud of our nominee for Senator; that his integrity and ability command our highest admiration; and that we pledge ourselves to give him a united and energetic support.

On motion, adjourned. J. O. KIMMEL, Secy. W. T. DAUGHERTY, Pres.

Gen. Foster.

Even the more honest portion of the Opposition press, cannot refrain from complimenting our gallant standard bearer. Such sentiment as the opposition are sometimes forced, by sheer candor, to enunciate in regard to Gen. Foster, are worth a dozen campaign documents; and show conclusively that there is nothing in the man, his character, or his record, which they can attack. And the contrast between their own unpopular leader, and the former, is so marked, that they cannot disguise the fact to their own minds that Foster must be the "coming man." Here is what one Republican editor says of him: "He is one of the most amiable, genial, kind-hearted and unpretending of men; and with an honorable gentleman in the noblest sense of the word. Although a fine lawyer, of subtle intellect, and persuasive speech, he is modest and unambitious to a fault. He has not an enemy in the world, and his friends adore him. We know steadfast Republicans who cherish Mr. 'Harry Foster' as a personal friendship as strongly as any of his Democratic adherents."

And here is another of the same sort, and rather "pungent," in its bearings, from the editor of the Centre Democrat, a strong Republican paper: "We are sorry we are placed in a hostile position toward Gen. Foster, for we like him very much, and come what may, no word of abuse shall escape our lips when speaking of him, nor will we stand by and hear him traduced by any one. The man who maligns him in our presence, will be told he is mistaken; if he repeats his abuse, he will be told that he is a liar; and if he reiterates a third time what we know to be false, we will smash his teeth down his throat."

Poles Can't Vote.

The recent manoeuvres of the Black Republicans have fired the blood of the Democrats, and some of our young friends talk about raising a larger pole than the Lincoln-stick up street. We would advise the young Democracy of Bedford and vicinity, to let the Opposition spend their time in raising poles, if they will. Poles can't vote—can't reason—can't convert sensible people.—Let the young Democrats go to work like men and gentlemen and reason with their fellow citizens—appeal to their better nature—their judgment—their love of country—their sense of justice and honor—and they can do more good than they would by raising forty poles.

We lack the space, this week, to publish the article from the Pennsylvaniaian handed us by our friend, Captain Reed. We will endeavor to do so in our next.

Takes down Lincoln and runs up Douglas.

The Chambersburg Times, heretofore a strong Lincoln journal, has taken down the Lincoln flag and runs up that of Douglas. This is a sign of the Times." Messrs. Frey and Foltz retire and are succeeded in the editorship of the paper, by Messrs. Sellers and Kennedy.—The Times is a neat and spirited paper and will do good service in the cause.

Among our visitors during Court, were Wm. Lewis, Esq., editor of the Huntingdon Globe, R. Milton Speer, Esq., editor of the Huntingdon Union, R. Bruce Petriken, Esq., of the Huntingdon Bar, and J. O. Kimmel, Esq., of the Somerset Bar, and Maj. Jacob Crosswell, of Huntingdon co. They are all clever fellows and belong to the great Democratic party of the county.

Among our Republican friends visiting Bedford during Court, were Gen. W. H. Kountz, candidate for Prothonotary of Somerset county, and E. M. Shrock, candidate for the Legislature, from the same county.

We had the pleasure one night last week, of a fine Serenade from Johnson's Band, Prof. J. C. ANDERSON, leader. This band was engaged by the Springs company during the late season, and is well known for the excellence of its performers.

The elections in Vermont and Maine, will come in a few days. Both these States have always been intensely black republican, and no doubt will be so again. The Democracy look elsewhere for their victories.

The Campmeeting for Bedford Circuit, will commence this day, (Friday) 4 miles from Bloody Run. There will be from thirty to forty tents. Rev. Geo. Gayer, P. E., Rev. S. L. M. Conner, of Huntingdon, Rev. E. B. Snider, of Hollidaysburg, Rev. T. Barnhart, of Williamsburg, and five or six other excellent Ministers will be present.

Douglas stock is on the rise every where. In Virginia, Gov. Letcher and Hon. John S. Millson, who was last winter the candidate of the Democrats against Sherman for Speaker of the National House of Representatives, have both come out boldly and unequivocally for the Little Giant.

DOUGLAS COMING!

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, the nominee of the National Democracy for President of the United States, will arrive here on Friday, at noon, and address the people in the evening.

We make the announcement with pleasure. The people of Dauphin and the adjoining counties will now have an opportunity of seeing and hearing the greatest living statesman of the country, the fearless expounder of Democratic principles and defender of popular rights. Let all the Douglas Clubs who can conveniently reach Harrisburg by railroad be on hand, and let the people, without distinction of party, who are interested in the important questions involved in the Presidential contest, flock in and hear the voice and the wisdom of that "Little Giant," who avers the same face North and South, and wars equally against the Abolitionists of the one section and the Disunionists of the other.—State Sentinel.

LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE.

The Conferees representing the Legislative district composed of the counties of Bedford and Somerset, met at Bedford, on Tuesday last and passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the conferees of each county in this Representative District, meet separately and nominate their candidates for members of the House of Representatives, and that we hereby recommend the nominations so to be made to the support of the Democracy of the District.

The Legislative Conferees for Bedford county, will meet at the office of W. P. Schell, Esq., on Monday next, Sept. 10th, for the purpose of naming a candidate for the Legislature.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the DOUGLAS and FOSTER CLUB, was held in the Court House, on Saturday evening last.—Speeches were made by Messrs. Dickerson, Cessna and Meyers. On motion, it was

Resolved, That this Club form itself into a Vigilance Committee for the purpose of carrying on the campaign, and that all Democrats and all other conservative men be invited to participate in our proceedings, and that this Club hereafter meet once every week.

The next meeting of the Club will be held on Saturday evening, Sept. 16th.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

There will be a grand mass meeting of the Democracy of Union township, at the town of Lewisville, on Friday, Sept. 14th. A number of speakers will be present to address the meeting.

The Sentinel talks are already attacking Hon. W. P. Schell, in anticipation of his nomination for Congress by the Democratic Conference of this district. They know McPherson will have a swift nag to run against, and hence the early start they make to jockey him. But the thing that is done. McPherson will be beaten—and Schell is the man who will do it. Mark that.—Gettysburg Compiler.

Persons afflicted with the Fever and Ague should separate either time, trouble or expense, to procure Dr. HARTMAN'S CELEBRATED BITTERS, whose beneficial effects upon the human system has been clearly proved to those who have been stricken down in a short space of time by this dread disease, whose cheeks are wan and meagre, and whose nights are sleepless and restless, and whose eyes are dim and sunken, with death staring them in the face, this compound must prove a blessing; snatching them as it were from the very mouth of the grave.—None can know its true value until they have tested it. When all others have failed, these Bitters have restored the sufferers to pristine health. Their popularity in all the Western and Southern parts should introduce them to all families. Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.—See advertisement in another column.
