May 18,'60.-1 yr. HOSTETTER'S Stomach bitters.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object the true course is mysne is certainly. object, the true course to pursue is certainly object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a matural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters vigorous action, and thus, by the simple pro-
