We have returns from most of the counties in the Upper Peninsula, which held their election for legislative and local officers on Tuesday of last week, and they all concur in the statement that the Democracy have made a clean sweep. Large gains have been made, and a great victory has been accomplished.

Joseph Coulter, Democrat, has been elected Senator, in place of W. E. Dickinson, Black Republican, by a majority of several hundred. C. C. Douglass, Evenezer Warner, and Alexander Toll, all Democrats, have been elected Representatives. George R. Griswould, Denocrat, has been elected District Attorney.

Mackinaw county has elected the entire Democratic ticket. Chippewa county has done likewise. Marquette county has elected every man on the Democratic ticket by majorities ranging from two to fifty-seven. At the last election the Black Republicans carried the county by seven majority. Houghton has elected the whole Democratic ticket, and it is reported the Ontonagan has also.
