BEDFORD GAZETTE

The morning after the election, that pious and patriotic politician, the Ex-Honorable Francis Jordan, wrote to Andrew G. Curtin, Gov. elect of Pennsylvania. The subject of his latter was the result of the election, upon which he unselfishly congratulated Mr. Curtin, and with which he mysteriously connected a few Jordan knocks at the official 'cupboard of Mr. secret watch-word of the blethering bell-wether of Bedford Black Republicanism. Office ! lays him down at night, and the first thought Cameron's devoted head, for the sake of office ! that ever was chosen Governor of Pennsylvania, should appoint this buzzard that feeds and fattens upon politics, his adviser and counselor in the affairs of State. Let him be appcinoffices in the gift of the Governor, so that the one political grave, these desperate and pestiferous demagogues, who for the sake of office and emolument, have corrupted the people, polluted the ballot-box and defrauded the majority of its rights.

A BASE CALUMNIATOR :

On Friday night last, Fr. Jordan made a speech in the Court House, to a promiscuous rabble composed of a few decent white men, a number of brawling boys and half a dozen negroes. This select audience Mr. Jordan entertained with the most venomous abuse of the Democratic party, that ever dropped from the lips of any traitor that ever, for office, or spoils, sold his country to its enemies. This base calumniator of a party whose principles are too pure for him to comprehend or profess, jeeringly declared that the Black Republican party had been successful at the recent election, everywhere except in a few districts where the School Law had been rejected. This pattern of acted as a watcher at one of the precincts, there a Black Republican gentleman has the brazen effrontery to claim for his negro-loving party, all the intelligence and all the patriotism in the country. According to his reckoning, Democrats are ignotamuses, fools and traitors. When Mr. Jordan made the fling about the School Law, tin, by persons shipped over from New York. he could not have named more than one Dem-In Allegheny and Lancaster counties the same cepted the provisions of the School Law, and we are not sure of even that 'one. But even if most of them you can't find within a thousand the people of all the districts in the county that or two as many voters as there are votes polled, give Democratic majorities, chose to educate and this, too, in the face of the fact that a contheir children in private instead of public siderable number of voters never turn out to schools, it would be none of Mr. Jordan's busi-the election. On the 6th of November next, ness, and would have nothing to do with their right to vote according to the dictates of their Jersey and New York, and the fraudulent own consciences. Besides there are Democrats majority of Curtin in Pennsylvania can be rein every township in the county as intelligent duced to nothing if every Democrat rallies to as Mr. Jordan, and what is better, a little less given to the manners of a blackguard, as well as a little more honest in their political actions TY.-We give below the number of inhabitants Jordan.

A FRAUDULENT VICTORY : CURTIN'S MAJORITY IMPORTED !

The most stupencous and audacious frauds were perpetrated by the Black Republican wire-workers at the recent State election .--In almost every election-district fin the State where there was a Republican majority in the Election-board, numbers of fraudulent votes were polled. In some such districts in our own county, the TEN DAY LIST was swelled to the number of fifty and sixty ! In Philadelphia, we are informed by a gentleman who Tuesday last, and that the result was as folresides in that city, and who at the late election lows were at least 10,000 traudulent votes polled for the Republican candidates. This was done by importing votes from New Jersey and New England and having their names put upon the Ten Day List.« In Bradford, Tioga and Erie game was played. The vote of these places

This comprises many of the objections urged by the Douglas men of the State against the most unfortunate, unwarranted, irregular and suicidal conduct of the Welsh Committee at its meeting in Philadelphia on the 2d of July .--Had that Committee done its duty, and nothing but its duty ; recognizing Douglas, Johnson, and Foster as the Democratic nominees, and vigorously organizing for the campaign, who can doubt that Foster would have been triumphantly elected ? Instead of that, by its filling and backing, by its attempt to conduct a campaign upon two sets of principles, and by ignoring the Presidential contest, (which is impos sible,) it has defeated the Democracy. It will be observed that the predictions are now facts . "Under such circumstances, I was exceedingly astonished that the State Committee of Pennsylvania, at its meeting on the 2d of this month, should have failed to endorse the regular nominees and proceed to a vigorous organization for the campaign.
