DIXEY'S LAND.

AN SUNG BY E. T. DIXEY, OF SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.

Away down South in the fields of cotton, Cinnamon seeds and sandy bottom, Look away, look away. Look away, look away, Den 'way down South in de fields of cotton; Vinegar shoes and paper stockings, Look away, look away, Look away, look away. Den 1 wish I was in Dixey's land Ob-ho, oh-ho! In Dixey's land I'll take my stand And live and die in Dixey's land Away, away, away, Away down South in Dixey. Fork and cabbage put in the pot, It goes in cold and comes out hot, Look away, de. Vinegar put right on red beet, It always makes them fit to eat; Look away, &c. Den I wish I was in Dixey's land, &s. Old Massa's mad and I am glad

He's lust the one he thought he had Look away, &c. If he comes back which I think he'll do, Massa'll make him dance till he is blue. Look away, &c. Den I wish 1 was in Dixey's land, &ce.

A nigger up in a great big tree, Lookin' right straight down at me. Look away, &c. up wid a stick an' I hit him is de eye, And 1 make this little monkey cry. Look away, Sc. Den I wish I was in Dixey's land, de.

A nigger in a bushel measure, Was tickled to death by swallowing a feather. Look away, &c. De doctor tried to fotch him to But he soon found out it warn't no go; Look away, &c. Den 1 wish 1 was in Dixey's land, &c.
