AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and omplaining? Are you set of siles with your system do tivity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the biosyant feeding of he aith again. What is true and so apparent it his trivial and common complaint is also from in means.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856. Dz. Ayzz: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of discreme sores inon her hands and fact that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously efflicted with blotches and pingles on her sich and incurable for years. Her mester me outly efficient said and pumples on her skile and pimples on her skile and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tribd your Pills, and they have cured her.

A 2A MORGRIDGE. As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Curtaright, Non Orlana.

Your Pills are the prince of purgos. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathertic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the lowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily teaching of disease. bowels, which makes them invariants to us in the using treatment of disease.

proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emarcation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhaa, Dyscuters, Incipient Consumption, Serofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Cmplaint Chronic Headaches, Rheumatiem, Intermittent Fever Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no d scription nor written attention would render credible. Invalids so, long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protiacted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of leman sufferers) emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of retyrous and despects a present a sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of from must necessarily be salutary, for, un-or inficting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dispense, innumerable as are its causes. In single box of these Charlybeate Fills has often sum-ced for the most habitual cases. In unchecked Diarrhaa, even when advanced to Dystentery, confirmed, emaciating and apparently malignant, the effects have been equall decisive and astonishing.

The attention of females cannot be too confident-ly invited to this re medy and restorative, in the ca-ses peculiarly affecting them. In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory, in the latter, however, more decidedly, it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

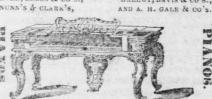

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its pro-gress in the new settlements of the West, will pro-bably be one of high renown and usefulness.

A N APERIENT AND STOMACHIC PREPARA

Ition of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innox ious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complication of pervous and dy-peptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reason amiliar to the physician has no name.

like the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, withoutening exciting and over-beating; and gently regut larly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.
