In one large volume of 550 pages, printed on fine paper and bound in beautiful style containing a full length steel portrait of Webster, believed to be the best ever taken of the great Statesman, as he was in the prime of manhood. Also, a great Statesman, as he was in the prime of mathood. Also, A View of his Birthplace and Home at Mas field. Price, $2.00; gilt, $2.50. The engraving is one of the most beautiful and desirable ever issued. It represents Mr Webster in his dying moments. His relatives and intimate friends, and several distinguished personages are grouped around his couch, ea-gerly listening to the last feeble words of the expiring statesman. They watch with intense interest his every movement. The artist represents the scene as inexpressively imposing and impressive.

Vhe opportunity afforded to obtain this magnificent engraving without charge, will command the attention of every one. Our edition of the life of Webster has been published but a few months; without the aid of the engraving we have disposed of 10,000 "copies, which is proof the work is wanted by the people. This work will be sold only by subscription and will be furnished to subscribers, including the Engraving, bound in handsomely embossed leather at $2.00; same style, gilt edges, $2.50 Sample copies sent by mail, post-paid, on recept of price.
