Pennsylvania Redeemed.

The result of the recent election, in this State, shows conclusively that the Democratic party has recovered its former strength, and that the people are convinced that our country must once more be placed under Democratic rule, to insure the return of our pristine safety and prosperity. The Democracy have carried the State on the popular vote, by a very handsome majority. They have gained largely on their last years strength in the Assembly and may have a majority in the Lower House, if not on joint ballot. The Senate remains Republican, as its members are elected for three years, and the Republicans secured nearly every Senator in the disastrous campaign of 1861. The Democrats, however, have gained several senators in districts lately represented by Republicans. The legislation of the next Legislature, will, of course, still have the impress of Republicanism upon it, but another year will, we doubt not, wipe every trace of that political mildew from the legislative halls at Harrisburg. Another such a triumph for the Democracy, and the Augean stables of our State politics will be cleansed.—The following are a few "comfortable" Democratic majorities: Schuylkill 1500 (gave Lincoln 1500); Lehigh, 1600 (gave Foster about 299); Westmoreland, 1000 (gave Lincoln a majority); Fayette 700 (gave Lincoln a majority); Cumberland, 600 (gave Lincoln a majority); York, 1600; Northampton, 1200; Greene, 1200; Cambria, 1200 (gave Lincoln a majority); Columbia, 700; Berks, 4400 (about 1000 last year); Philadelphia, 1500; Washington, Lancaster, Allegheny, Luzerne, Armstrong, Union, Jefferson, and other Republican counties, have maintained their majorities to almost nothing. Centre county, the home of Curtin, gave a large Democratic majority. Pennsylvania is redeemed. Democrats, another fire into the enemies' ranks, and the country will be restored to peace and unity!

A Different Tune.

The Republican journals, since the election, are loud in their demands for the repeal of the law allowing the soldiers to vote. The reason of this, is, that the soldiers at the Washington camps, notwithstanding the electioneering of Republican officials and the suppression of Democratic tickets, as is charged by the Philadelphia Evening Journal, voted almost two to one for the Democratic candidates. Before the election, the Republicans were very anxious that "our brave soldiers" should be permitted to vote, but, now, their organ-grinders play quite a different tune. Somebody who did not expect such a "dig in the ribs," has had his "ox gored," which makes a vast difference with politicians as well as with "Advocates."

Words of Condolence.

Having been well educated in the knowledge of the sad consequences of divisions and dissensions among political associates, we can appreciate the distress of the Republicans of this judicial district, who by their own foolish differences have been compelled to allow a Democrat to be elected to that office. They have our hearty sympathy, and those of them who supported Mr. Nil, we congratulate upon their conversion to what they used to call "Locofocoism." The signs of the times are propitious.

The Vote for President Judge.

We give below the official vote of the counties composing this Judicial District, for the several candidates for President Judge:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Vote Count. Includes Reilly, D. and Nil, U. D. with counts for Somerset, Bedford, Fulton, and Franklin.

The above is only partial so far as the military returns are concerned. The soldiers' vote may change the result of the election, but we presume that Mr. Nil is successful by a small majority. Mr. Reilly's majority in this county, exclusive of the soldiers' vote, is 610—a flattering endorsement, indeed.

Assembly Vote Official.

Table with 3 columns: Candidate Name, Bedford, Somerset, and Total. Includes John Cessna, David Lavan, E. M. Shook, and G. W. Householder.

Householder over Cessna, 119; over Lavan, 718. Schrock over Cessna, 543; over Lavan, 1142.

Bedford Lyceum.—The members of the Bedford Lyceum, will meet at the Court House, on next Saturday evening, for the purpose of reorganizing, and electing officers. JOHN PALMER, Sec'y.

Local and Miscellaneous.

An oath from a woman's lips is unnatural and incredible. We would as soon expect a bullet from a rose-bud. Lucy Stone says:—"The cradle is a woman's ballot box." Then we've known some unlawful voting, where two ballots were deposited at a time. Some fellow from Chicago boasted to Lincoln that he voted for him and worked to get him elected. "Yes," said the patriarch, "and a devil of a scrape you have got me into."

Capt. H. C. Reamer's Company of Cavalry is fast filling up and will soon be ready to leave for Harrisburg. Persons wishing to join this company, should make early application to Capt. Reamer, at Bedford.

What a glorious world this would be if all its inhabitants could say with Shakespeare's shepherd:—"Sir, I am a true laborer; I earn that I wear; I owe no man hate, envy no man's happiness; glad of other men's good; content with my farm."

We have lately noticed the marriage of a Mr. Mann to a Miss Little. We presume the lady was not tall, thus beautifully verifying the language of the poet, when he says,—"Man wants but Little here below, Nor wants that Little long."

We have been requested by the ladies composing the "Knitting Association" of the Borough of Bedford to state that all stockings completed should be sent to Mrs. Virginia B. Tate, by the 1st of November next, as the Association intend forwarding them at that time, to Harrisburg. We hope contributors in the country and neighboring villages, will send their contributions before that date.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, as Mr. Thomas Knox, of Boydstown, was coming down Dry Ridge, with a wagon load of boards, in attempting to mount the lead horse from the tongue of the wagon, he fell between the horses, and being unable to extricate himself, the wheels of one side of the wagon, passed over his thigh, breaking the bone just above the knee. At last accounts Mr. K. was in a critical condition.

A FLATTERING VOTE.—Mr. Cessna, the Democratic candidate for Assembly, for this county, although defeated by Somerset county, may well be proud of the vote polled for him in this county. The result in the following districts, in one of which (Colerain) Mr. Cessna was born and raised, looks something like a clean sweep: Bedford Borough, Cessna, 193; Householder, 17; Bedford tp., Cessna, 293; Householder, 33; Colerain, Cessna, 178; Householder, 36; Southampton, 171; Householder, 19; aggregate, Cessna 835; Householder 105; majority for Cessna in the four districts, 730!

No war news of importance this week.

Voting in Camps. Now that the election is over, we can urge a matter which we have heretofore retained from urging, lest our motives might be misconstrued: that is, the repeal of the law providing for the holding of elections in the camps of the Pennsylvania volunteers, on the regular election days. As it has been claimed that a majority of our volunteers were Democrats, it might have been pretended that we opposed the law because its operation might favor the Democratic cause.

But no matter who may be in the majority, the effect of the law is bad. Soldiers engaged in the service of the country, with an enemy almost within sight, should not be disturbed by electioneering politicians. It is evident that they think so themselves, for in some regiments where polls were opened, and in those where they were opened, scarcely half the men voted. This proves that when men go to fight, they do not care to vote, and probably not one volunteer in twenty would feel injured by being deprived of the right of suffrage while in the army. The officers of the army, we know, from the commander-in-chief down, condemn the law, and it was contemplated, at one time, to forbid voting in the camps. But it was probably thought well to try a single experiment, the opportunity being thought favorable, as there was no danger of an attack from the enemy. But as it has been proved that the soldiers do not set a very high value on the privilege of voting while in active service, we trust that the law will be repealed at the next session of the Legislature, or else that the opening of the polls and the introduction of politicians into the camps will be forbidden by the General in command. The effect of carrying party politics into the army cannot fail to be most demoralizing.—Phila. Bulletin, Rep.

Democratic Generals. As the abolition sheets are laboring very hard to create the impression that the Democrats are acting in bad faith toward the government, it may not be amiss to give the public a list of the members of the army who are and were general officers of the Democratic party, viz: Major Generals—George B. McClellan, John A. Dix, Benjamin F. Butler, and Robert Patterson.—Brigadier Generals—Wm. J. Rosecrans, Frederick W. Lander, Isaac J. Stephens, Andrew Porter, George Cadwallader, Daniel E. Sickles, Burnside, Heintzelman, Hunter, Franklin, Lyon, McDowell, Blenker, Robert Anderson, Prentiss, Morris, Smith, Sturgis, Sweeny, Wright, and a host of others, whose names we are unable to call to mind. From the above list, it will be seen that fully two thirds of the general officers are members of the Democratic party, while fully three fourths of the rank and file of the army belong to the same party. Many of the above were warm supporters of John C. Breckinridge for the Presidency. Gen. Isaac J. Stephens, reported to be the best military man and the most scientific officer in the army, was chairman of the National Breckinridge Committee. Gen. F. W. Lander, so renowned for his personal bravery, slumped the whole State of California last fall for Breckinridge. And these are the men who are branded as traitors by the advocates of fusion.—Star of the North.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF BEDFORD COUNTY, OCTOBER 8, 1861.

Large table showing official vote for President Judge, Associate Judge, Assembly, Treasurer, Commissioner, Poor Director, and Auditor across various districts.

The military vote returned, gives Reilly 15, Nil 66; Borns 17, Metzgar 72; Cessna 42 maj. over Householder; Sansom 16, Millburn 72; Shoemaker 17, Keeffe, 72; Ake 17, Evans 72; DeBaugh, 17, Overaker 72. The official returns of some of the Companies were not forwarded to the Return Judges, but no matter how those companies may have voted, the result will not be affected by their omission.

Connecticut Town Election.

The following towns elected the Union ticket on Monday:—Essex, Chester, Clinton, Norwich, Colechester, Bristol, Chatham, Bridgeport, Naugatuck, Waterbury, (by 40), Middletown, Putnam, Derby, Glensbury (except town clerk), Middlebury, Watertown, Woodstock, Plainfield, Pomfret, Wellington, Canton, Old Saybrook (by 12), East Windsor, Manchester, Windsor, Portland, Madison, Woodbury, Orange.

The following towns elected the straight Democratic ticket on Monday:—Bloomfield (40 majority) Bolton (30 majority) Branford (150 majority), Bethany (30 majority), Wallingford (60 majority), Cheshire (18 majority), Seymour, Naugatuck, Southbury, (40 majority), Southington (60 majority), Oxford (75 majority), Weston (40 majority), Wolcott (70 majority), Cromwell (40 majority), Tolland (80 majority), Preston.

ROBERT AT WHEATLAND.—On Saturday night or Sunday morning the carriage house of Ex President Buchanan at Wheatland was broken open and a very valuable set of double harness carried off. The thieves effected an entrance by prying open the door and found the harness in a small closet or box kept for that purpose. These harness were purchased at Washington by Mr. Buchanan shortly after his inauguration as President, at a cost of five hundred and thirty dollars. They are heavily mounted with silver, and as the rogues will hardly attempt to dispose of them, through fear of detection, it is likely they will cut off the mountings, melt them down and sell it as old silver. The silver alone in this shape would probably yield them several hundred dollars. After securing the harness the rogues visited the premises.—Lancaster Express.

DEATH OF EX SENATOR MANGUM.—Hon. Willie P. Mangum, of North Carolina, died at his residence in Orange county, in that State, on the 14th ult. For some years he had suffered with paralysis, and it is probable that the recent death of his only son, from a wound received on the field of Manassas, depressed his spirits to a point from which he could not rally. Mr. Mangum was once a judge of the Superior Court of North Carolina, and afterward represented the State both branches of the United States Congress. On the death of President Harrison and the installation of Mr. Tyler as President, Mr. Mangum was chosen President of the senate and for the remainder of the term was virtually the Vice President of the United States. He was a man of brilliant attainments, an eloquent orator, and the possessor of those private virtues which endeared him to his neighbors and friends. The North Carolina Legislature, on receiving intelligence of his death, passed suitable resolutions of respect to his memory.

THE REASON WHY.—The editor of the Alleghenian asks:—"What's the matter with Blair County. While Cambria County has about 1200 of her sons in the field, battling for the Union, Blair County, her equal in population, has only 500?" We can explain it neighbor. Cambria is a Democratic, Blair a Republican County. It is the Democrats who do the volunteering and fighting in the present war. The Republicans remain snugly at home, and denounce their Democratic neighbors as secessionists. Well, we suppose it is all right. It is not now a difficult matter to perceive the difference between a Republican and Democratic county. Do you know the reason why, now neighbor? Of course you do and are grateful to us for the information.—Ebensburg Sentinel.

Pennsylvania Election.

LANCASTER COUNTY. The Union ticket, composed of Union Democrats and Republicans, is probably elected, with the expectation of the candidate for Treasurer, over the regular Republican ticket.—Long, (Union), and the present Judge, has beaten Hood (Straight Republican). Two of the Assemblymen on the Union ticket, Nathan Worley and Abraham Peters, are Democrats and the other two Republicans. The vote between the respective tickets is very close, and the supposed result may be altered by the official count.

LYCOMING COUNTY.

From the information received it seems probable that the Union ticket has been elected with the exception of the President Judge, one Associate Judge who was upon both tickets, and the County Treasurer—the latter still in doubt, with the chances in favor of Strawbridge, (Dem.) This estimate is made without reference to the vote of the volunteers in the army, which possibly may change its complexion. The vote in the county is small.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY

The Democratic majority in Westmoreland county exceeds one thousand. This county in CONJUNCTION WITH ARMSTRONG ELECTS THREE MEMBERS OF ASSEMBLY.

Nothing has been heard from Armstrong, but in all probability the Democratic Assembly ticket is triumphantly elected. The district was represented last winter by Republicans.

YORK COUNTY.

The Democrats have carried their whole ticket in York county by a very large majority. A. Hystrand Glatz is elected to the Senate, and two Democratic Assemblymen. Judge Fisher beats Thomas E. Cochran for President Judge some 1,600 and is unquestionably elected as the majority in Adams County must be small either way.

LEHIGH COUNTY.

The Democratic majority in Lehigh County is about 1,700. Wm. C. Lichtenwallner and Thomas Craig, Democrats, are elected to the Legislature. George W. Stein, Democrat, is elected to the Senate from Lehigh and Northampton.

BLAIR COUNTY.

The whole Republican ticket is elected with the exception of Roller, the candidate for the Legislature, who is defeated by Thaddeus Banks, Dem. by a small majority.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

The Republicans have carried their Assembly ticket in Allegheny county by a reduced majority.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.

Isaac Slenker, Dem, for President Judge, has a majority of 225. Ross, Dem., is probably elected to the Legislature, and the balance of the Democratic ticket.

SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.

The Democratic ticket has swept this county by a large majority. Bernard Reilly (Dem.) is elected to the Senate by 1,500 majority, and three Democratic members of the House.—These are all Democratic gains.

ADAMS COUNTY.

The result in the county is very close.—Myers, the Democratic candidate for Assembly, has a few majority in the county, but the army vote is yet to hear from. Ziegler, Dem., Associate Judge, is reported to be elected.

ERIE SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

Lowry, the radical Republican candidate, has been elected to the State Senate over the Union candidate in the Twenty-seventh Legislative District.

LUZERNE COUNTY.

The contest between the Union ticket and the regular Democratic ticket seems to be close. Ross, Dem., who was on the Union ticket, is elected to the Legislature. Reichart, also on the Union ticket, is elected Associate Judge.

THE MIGHTY HEALER.—Let not disease with its fangs, prey upon you, until the cold hand of death hurls you to an untimely grave. Shake off the feeling of despair and hopelessness, so liable to come upon the invalid. The plant born of the Sun we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific from the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impure blood, and through the different channels of the lungs, the stomach and the vital organs, JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will pass, mingling with the blood, search out and grasp and then expel, all the harmful matter that is in it. Thus cleanse the blood by a few doses of these Pills, and disease, in any form, will dissipate and vanish. As the Sun with his glorious beams first cause the morning dew to rise as mist, then growing stronger, casts his burning rays upon it—and behold 'tis gone—so cleanse the blood, and disease, like morning dew, retreats and vanishes. There is no blood purifier equal to JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS.—Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

A BRIEF MEMORIAL OF MISS SUSAN ELIZABETH SHUCK.

This excellent young lady is no longer in our midst, as a resident of earth, but has left the companionship of this fleeting life, to join another company, and to be a dweller with them of an invisible world. She was born of devout Methodist parentage, in the Town of Bedford Pa., Sept. 4th, 1840, and closed her earthly history, in the morning of her youth, and in the bright hopes of the Christiana faith, on the Holy Sabbath day, October 6th, 1861. When but a child, like one of the scripture characters, she began to seek after the God of her Father. Thus early giving her heart to the Lord, she experienced the converting grace of Christ, united herself with the M. E. Episcopal Church and became an efficient teacher in its flourishing Sabbath School, and continued to adorn her Christian profession by the labors of an active piety, until, about a year since, she became, in the mysterious, yet ever gracious Providence of God, the child of deep affliction; when the genuineness of her religion in its active bearings, was demonstrated in its passive characters to be a "plant of God's own right hand planting." Watered by the dew and protected by the power of Divine grace, this beautiful plant of heavenly origin flourished in her heart and shed its fragrance over her entire character. In affliction, as in health, she maintained the integrity of that inner life which is "hid with Christ in God," and greatly rejoiced in the midst of more than ordinary bodily sufferings, in the possession of that spiritual comfort "wherewith she was comforted of God." It was truly refreshing to witness in her experience, the power of spiritual religion to give aid, and consolation and blessed hope, when all else is as "the shadow of death." This was triumphantly so, on the evening of her departure, when, after telling her dear Mother of her loss of sight and hearing, and after this dearest of earthly friends gathered courage to say, "Susan, my dear, this is death," she calmly looked the monster in the face, and said, "Mother, is this really death?—Then, Mother I am not afraid to die."—Nor will a multitude of her young companions soon forget her parting words and dying admonitions, when, "the chamber where she met her fate, seemed privileged beyond the common walks of virtuous life, quite on the verge of Heaven." May we all then follow her as she followed Christ, and may our "last end" be as peaceful and as glorious, as was that of our youthful friend; for she, "being dead, yet speaketh." S. K.

BENEDICT.—Of Diphtheria, in Bedford, Oct. 6th, Ginnie, only child of Rev. P. and B. Benedict, aged 7 yrs., 2 mos., and 9 days. With the fading leaves of Autumn, she has passed away. Death truly loves a shining mark; he has assailed us in a thousand forms, has filled our hearts with sorrow at every period of our lives, and yet has he not lost his terrors. He has again been in our midst, and removed from among us this lovely child, and we feel the blow as poignantly as tho, we had never felt it before. Possessing a sweet and affectionate disposition, many loved her, and mourn that her pilgrimage upon Earth has been of so short duration—ever childish glee has been hushed, and little companions have wept for Ginnie.

But Home is where her loss will be most deeply felt—by those fond parents whose tenderness pillowed so softly her sinking head; the light, the joy of that little family circle is gone—deep is the anguish of their hearts; friends may console, but cannot console them.—Nature's fountain must overflow. Yet sorrowing parents, deep as is this affliction, there is comfort for you in remembering that it was ordered by a God of Love, who does not willingly afflict any of his creatures. He has transplanted that lovely bud upon which you bestowed so much care and attention, to bloom amongst the roses of Heaven. Had her earthly stay been prolonged, that gentle heart would not long have been a stranger to sorrow—for in this life, "all is vanity and vexation of spirit." May the assurance that Ginnie now dwells with that Saviour who has said, "Suffer your little ones to come to me," fall like oil upon your troubled hearts, and as "Mama! Papa!" were the last words she uttered upon Earth, so may they be the first to greet you in Heaven.
