THE RESULT.

A FAVORABLE VERDICT.

JUNE 9, 1860.-The next of our convalescents is the case of acute rheumatism before you at our clin-ic of May 20th, which I then called a typical case and which is more than the called a typical case.

and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The patient has got along very nicely, and is now able to walk about, as you see. I do not hesitate to say that I have never seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism so soon restore to health as this man has been, and without being pre-pared to decide positively as to the value of the reme-dy we have used, I feel bound to state that in the case: in which we have tried the Chloride of Propylamine, the patients have regained their health much earlier than under the treatment ordinarily pursued. 1 wish, gentlemen, you would yourselves try it, and report the results

For a full report of which the above is a con-densed extract, see the Philadelphia Medical and densed extract, see the rhitadeputa incaccat and Surgical Réporter. It is the report ifter a fair trial by the best medical authority in this country, and makes it unnecessary to give numerous certificates from astonished doctors and rejoicing patients,
