This compound will be found a great promoof the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promo-ter of health, when taken in the spring, to ex-pel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely exput-sion of them many rankling disorders are nip-ped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endu-rance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, thro' which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the hody by an alterruptions, if not assisted to do this through natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitrated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting thro' the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the venns; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where a particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and Eve longer, for cleansing the 3 Joh blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; 4 f. of life is disordered or overthrown. During late years the public have been mis-9 Col led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart 10 of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most 11 of these have been frauds upon the sick, for 12 1 they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, 13. they not only contain fittle, if any, Sarsaparila, 13 J. but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has 15 Sa followed the use of the various extracts of Sar-iself is justly despised, and has become synon-ymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this computed Sarsaparilla, and intend to be a superior of the same and the same and the same and the second seco supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloguy which resis-upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordina ry run of the diseases it is intended to cure. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell,

FORE .- Hon. DAVID FORE, died at his residence in Tod to, Folton co., on the 13th inst., in the 78th year of his age. Mr. Fore was born in Fulton co., (then part of Bedford) on the 26th day of December, 1784. He repre-sented this courty in the State Legislature, which he did honestly and well, to the entire satisfaction of his constituents. He also served one term as Associate Judge of this county. In politics he was a Democrat, honest and fearless in supporting the cause which he espoused, without a vice or approach to vice-a model of truth, probity, and honor-kind and benevolent, yet full of decision and firmnessbenevolent, yet full of decision and firmares-with a clear good judgment, a strong sense of duty, and a laborious and indefatigable spirit in discharging its obligations. A good man and a lathful citizen, he has gone to his rest sincerely, deeply, and universally regretted by all who knew hum. "Peace to his ashes."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT

All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care, that they be am-ply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Solders and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Solder's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

Those feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or aunoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and storrach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healty action in both liver and storrach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

Weakness or Debility Induced by over Fatigue Weakness or Debility Induced by over Faligue. Will soon disappear by the use of these invalua-ble Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire addi-tional strength. Never let the Boweis be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vig-or to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the b. wels so sure as this famous medicine.

Volunteers Attention ! Indiscretions of Youth Volunteers Attention ! Indiscretions of Youth Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are ta-ken night and morning, and the Ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If freat-ed in any other manager they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure. For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet.

Pennsylvania Hospital. (FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.)

(FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.) (FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.) MAY 19, 1860.-Ellea S., ett. CS, single, never was very strong. Two years ago she had an attack of acute rheumatism, from which she was confined to her be4 for two weeks, and subsequently from a relapse for four more. She has been well since then till last Sturday; while engaged in house-cleaning she took cold, had pain in her back, felt cold but had no decided chill. Two days later her ankles began to swell, which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has now doll pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very todet, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is most so. This, then, is a case of acute rheumatism, or, as it is now fashionably call-ed, rheumatic lever. It is a well marked typical case. We will carefully watch the case, and from ing motions which present themselves. My chief but get time call your attention to the various ayn ptoms which present themselves. and if the result be satisfactory, I think, as good jurguen, we shall justly render our verdict in favor if propplanities. He is a seaman, sct. 26, who was admitted a few days ago. Has had occasional rheumstic pains, but not so as to keep his bed, ontil eight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later, the joints of the upper ex-tremities. These joints are all swollen teuse and tender. His tongue is furred; skin, at present, dy, though there has been much sweating. His public is full and strong, and sbout 90. He has now used propslamine for twenty-four hours. This gentleman is what may be called a strictly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was ex-observe to cold and wet, and this exposure is follow-ded y a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning as it usually does, in the lower joints. There is fever and the profuse sweating, so gener-ally attendant on acute rheumatism. I did not bring this patient before you with the intention of giving you a leet re can all the points is to the new remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you his typical case, as I have called it, than which there could not be a taiper opportunity for testing the medicine in question. We are, there-fore, avoiding the use of all other medicines, even anodynes, that there may be no misgivings as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case at a future clinic. case at a inture clinic.
