Mr. Speaker, I have not deemed it proper to discuss the merits of the act upon which this resolution is based. I have chosen to re-serve anything I may have to say on that sub-ject until the bill for the repeal of that act comes up for the action of the House. I shall then hold aveel (nermored to demonstrate, hethen hold myself prepared to demonstrate, be-yond the possibility of cavil that the repeal of the tonnage tax, with kindred measures have been carried through the Legislature, as a sample of the milder effusions of its writers: within the past two or three years, has taken from the people some eighteen or twenty mil-lionsol dollars, and bestowed it upon two cor-

But, as I have before intimated, this quesbut, as I have before infinited, this quest tion does not, in my judgment, arise here.— Let us then, sir, have this committee. It is demanded by every consideration of justice, patriotism and public duty, and I trust that we shall not be driven from our purpose by the fluthering of wounded procons, either in the other end of the Capital or elsewhere.

JOHN S. SCHELL, Chairman Dem. Co. Com.

Cameron's Appointees.

Nearly every one of the fledgling buzzards taken under the sheltering wing of that great Winnebago bird, the late Secretary of War, remains snugly seated upon his official perch, just as though nothing had happened and Simon didn't "point down." Like the leeches found in muddy creeks that stick to the limb as long as there is blood to be drawn, these rapacious vermin ching to to the Treasury, no matter what occurs around them, entirely impervious to honor and shame, and determined only to draw the last dime out of Uncle Sam's pocket. When their friend and benefactor, the Hon. Wiggle Waggle, was deposed by the President, if they had had any esteem for his memory or any respect for themselves, they would at least bave resigned. But the jingle of new dollars and more lately the rustling rattle of treasury notes afforded a charm that wrought upon their moral sensibilities with irresistible effect. Jon-DAN, TAGGART & Co., though very unselfish in their patriotism, especially when making political speeches and 'denouncing what they styled the "corruption of the Buchanan dypasty," could not resign to revenge poor Cameron, whilst such delicious music fell upon their ears. Perhaps, too, they had some doubt as to whether their resignation would be such a loss to Abraham as to constitute the proper degree of vengeance for the slain Winnebago. Or, per contra, their intense love of country, perhaps, would not allow them to inflict so great tant and purchasers should be wary of whom a sacrifice upon the Republic at this criticial they buy. The war for sell the Government ring-bone and spavin by the ton, Wells might "let" and Morgan "operate," but the paymasterships would no longer sion of rebellion and the restoration of peace that Cameron's appointees had better not resign. For the good of the country, they should things about the Federal Capital must not be disturbed. Ye who carp at the doings of contractors, keep off your sacrilegious hands! Ye whose faith in Alex. Cummings and Geo. D. Morgan, would not remove mountains, touch not the holy alliance! Uniformity is unity! Interference with office holders, death!

Abolition Blasphemy.

The Pine and Palm, a leading organ of the mancipationists, edited by JAMES REDPATH of Kansas and John Brown notoriety, contains some of the most infamous and impious blasphemy that ever stained the pages of a licentious press. We cannot pollute our columns with specimene of the more offensive of its artiwhich cles but give the following, without comment,

"Will you, Messrs. Unionists, not leave off your mouthings, your platitudes about the Con-stitution and Union, your squinting towards Emancipation as a pis aller and begin to be in Can you not drive beneath the Conplace the rights of man upon an immovable ba-sis? We tell you, sirs, there is but one issue, that of Slavery or Freedom—do not then en-deavor to conceal it under the euphemisms Re-bellion and Union; IT IS CRIMINAL—there is but one alternative, universal liberty or commatized wrong, by the infliction of that most appalling scourge, civil war. Will you not now release him? He is the bitter ingredient in the cup which even handed justice commends to the lips of a nation recreant to its vows, and faithless to its trust as standard-bearer in the advance of civil and religious freedom. LET IT DRINK! and in the bitter draught realize the enormity of its crime, and the det-estation with which the offended majesty of Heaven regards its improve affence."

Sudden Death.

We are pained to record the death of Ser-geant ALEXANDER CROFT, of Captain Brisbin's company, (now stationed near Cumberland, Md.,) which took place after an illness of 24 hours, at the Bedford Hotel, in this place, on Wednesday evening last. His disease is supposed to have been brain tever. We were well acquainted with the deceased soldier, and in common with a large circle of friends and acquaintance, sincerely regret his untimely loss. He sleeps his last sleep, he has fought his last battle, No sound shall awake him to glory ogain !"

[For the Gazette.] Mr. Future (1997) [For the Gazette.] Mr. Editor:

Our company has been for some time faring sumptuously, as a consequence of a most extraordinary treat from the citizens of Colerain Tp., in the shape of a number of boxes, seemingly about bursting with the luxurious dainties which they contained.

The open boxes, however, made an impos-ing scene that was really inviting; there were the best served turkeys and chickens, sausage truly tempting to the appetite, from 60 to 70 lbs, of fine goiden butter, the most magnificent sweet-cakes, the finest pies and scores of other articles that would have done honor to the table of Dives.

For all this festal enjoyment we are indebt-ed, in great part, to John Shoemaker, who had the exquisite kindness to collect the articles and bring them to camp, and partly, to the good people of Rainsburg and vicinity, who so kind-ly remembered us in their liberal donations. It
