BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 28, 1862.

Select Poeten. THE LADY PRESIDENT'S BALL. BY ELEANOR C. DONNELLY. "The lights in the President's mansion,

The gas-lights cheery and red, I see them glowing and glancing, As I toss on my wearisome bed; I see them flooding the windows, And, star-like, gemming the hall, Where the tide of fashion flows inward To the Lady-President's Ball!

"My temples are throbbing with fever, My limbs are palsied with pain, And the crash of that festal music Burns into my aching brain Till I rave with delirious fancies; And coffin, and bier, and pall, Mix up with the flowers and laces Of my Lady-President's Ball!

"What matter that I, poor private, Lie here on my narrow bed; With the fever griping my vitals, And dozing my hapless head? What matters that nurses are callous, And rations meagre and small, So long as the beau monde revel At the Lady-President's Ball!

"Who pities my poor old mother-Who comforts my sweet young wife-Alone in the distant city, With sorrow sapping their life? I have no money to send them, They cannot come at my call; No money! yet hundreds are wasting At my Lady-President's Ball!

"Hundreds-ah! hundreds of thousands-In satins, jewels, and wine, French dishes for dainty stomachs, (While the black broth sickens mine!) And jellies, and fruits, and cold ices, And fountains that flash as they fall; O God! for a cup of cold water From the Lady-President's Ball !

"Nurse! bring me my uniform ragged-Ha! why did you blow out the light? Help me up-though I'm aching and gildy, I must go to my dear ones to-night! Wife! mother! grown weary with waiting: I'm coming! I'll comfort ye all!" And the private sank dead while they reveled At my Lady-President's Ball!
