BEDFORD GAZETTE. B. F. MEYERS, EDITOR. FRIDAY, : : : : : : MAY 16, 1862

The new church on the land of Jacob Dibert Bedford township, will be dedicated to the ser Bedford township, will be dedicated to the ser-e of the Triune God, on Sabbath, the 25th, inst. e public are respectfully invited to attend.

DELEGATE ELECTIONS. The Democratic voters of the several election districts of Bedford county, and others who intend to act with them in good faith hereafter, are hereby requested to meet on SATURDAY, 21ST OF JUNE, NEXT, at the hour and place to be appointed by their at the holf and place to be appointed by their respective Vigilance Committees (who are here-by requested to give written notice of such time and place of meeting) for the purpose of elect-ing two persons as delegates to the Democratic as may be proper to be transacted for the bene-fit of the party. It is also particularly requestas may be proper to be transacted for the text fit of the party. It is also particularly request-ed that active and earnest Democrats be elected with the committees for the ensuing year and speak against the United States. QUERE. Vigilance Committees for the ensuing year and that their names be carefully reported to the President of the Convention. By order of the Dem. Co. Com.,

JOHN S. SCHELL, Chairman

· Buying Freedom for the Slaves. It is generally admitted by all conservaenterprise of the laboring man. Hence, we dance, and that leads us straight on from are not only buying the freedom of the slaves, Maine to the Gulf, without discovering a si paying for their liberty out of our pockets- gle chasm indicating political separation. but we are also to maintain them at our own expense, when we have thus purchased their diana, Pa., by our particular friend, J. B. SANfreedom. Could Congress and the Presia more degrading insult than this ? To place the success he deserves, and that is not a little. the African slave side by side with the white laborer of the North, compelling the latter to pay for the social elevation of the former and to toil for the sustenance of the pur- the Committee, and was read: chased serf! What a picture! Shame to the fanatics and demagogues whose work is this! Shame, and shame again, to the man whom accident, false pretence and folly elevated to the Presidential office, and whose accidental policy, false pretence and folly are dragging down the American Republic to a level with the Government in a vast number of contract the status of his own statesmanship.

change their mode of fighting, to abandon the idea of building forts, to move away from navigable streams so as to keep aloof from our gun-boats, to draw our armies after them into the hot climate of the Gulf States, and thus to prolong the war, if possible, until, as they say, our Government "shall be bankrupted." Sanguine people, of course, will not credit this theory. It may not be correct, and we hope it is not .-But whatever may be the result of the war, McClellan has done his share to bring it to a successful close, and should it fail to restore the Union, it will not be because the war was not properly conducted on the Federal side, but because it was not the remedy for the disease to which it has been applied.

SHADE Tr., Somerset Co., May 7, '62.

Mr. Editor: I am an ignorant man, living on the Aleghany mountain, and I solicit information from you and your numerous correspondents. I have lately received a copy of our glorious "Consti-tution of the United States." I read the folowing passage in Section III: "Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying war against them," &c., &c Now I am an humble peasant, an unsophis-ticated mountaineer, and I wish to know, how any one can be guilty of treason properly and County Convention which is to assemble at the Court House in Bedford, on TUESDAY, 24th JUNE, NEXT, at 2 o'clock, P. M., to put in nomination a County ticket to be voted for at the ensuing election, appoint conferees to meet conferees from the remaining counties of this Congressional District to nominate a candidate for Congress, and attend to such other matters

REMARKS.

Our correspondent, however "unsophisticated," must know that there is no Constitutional right of secession : that the so-called "Confederate States" which have pretentive men that the abolition of slavery in the ded to secede from the Union, had not the District of Columbia, was not only ill-timed power, under the Constitution, to do so, and and impolitic, but a positive insult to the are no more out of the Union to-day, "Con-Union men of that gallant little State to stitutionally speaking," than they were when which the Federal Government is indebted they denounced the disunion secessionists of for the soil upon which stands the Capital the Hartford Convention 50 years ago. The of the nation. But, strange as it may ap- Union is, theoretically, as perfect and compear, the conservative thinkers of the North, plete at the present moment as it was when have almost entirely failed to take the view of the Constitution was ratified by the States. that question which is pointed out so clearly And it is to the theory of our Government by the well-established maxim, "Charity be- that we must look for the determination and gins at home." They tell us of the outrage punishment of crimes against it. That theupon the sensibilities of the people of the Border States, of the deteriorating influen-in other words, the Constitution. Thereces exerted upon Southern "loyalty," of fore, as that law, that Constitution is still the encouragement given to the rebellion, just as binding upon the people of the Sece- cept the Wire Bridge and the big tree at the by the adoption of this unfortunate measure ded States as it would be, had they never by Congress and the President; but they adopted their ordinances of Secession, and, seem to forget that we of the North are more as that law, that Constitution is the tie that directly and pointedly insulted, and that Northern society is much more dreadfully have still, theoretically, and, therefore, for used for that purpose, and the prisoners acting threatened, by the enactment of that mea- all judicial purposes, Thirty-four United sure, than the people of the Border States, States. Hence the taking up of arms by be seen ever and anon perched upon this lofty or slave-holders anywhere. Why, is not citizens of the would-be independent States pinnacle, making their calculations (doubtless) the Government by the terms of this pre- in their efforts to throw off the authority of upon the lucky stars under whose auspicious cious emancipation law, to pay $300 per the Constitution and the Federal Laws, is influences they will be restored to liberty and head for every negro slave in the District? "levying war against the United States," and where is it to raise the money but from and, therefore, treason. True, if we look the people of the North? And what is to at the present condition of things in our become of the slaves when liberated? Where country, from a practical stand-point, we will they go? The people of Bedford coun- are compelled to admit that we are a dis-unity, can answer that question without any ted people. Whilst, according to the Controuble. They will come North. They stitution, there can be no such thing as a will be cast upon society to mingle with the dissolution of the Union, the people of the whites and to be maintained at their expense. seceded States have practically (at least for Many of them superannuated, others disea- the present) effected such a dissolution. A sed and decrepid, and the remainder accus- temporary separation is acknowledged by the tomed to the control of a master, they will fact that we daily speak of restoring the become a black lazzaroni, living upon the Union. But when this question of Disunion charity, or the taxes, of the white people, comes to be regarded in a legal sense, we and cursing and blighting the industry and can look only to the Constitution for our gui-

HOME NEWS.

RESIGNED .- Lieut. D. W. Mullin has reigned his commission in the army and is about to return to his home in this county. We have not heard what caused his resignation WOUNDED .- Capt. Thomas A. Boyd, formerly District Attorney for this county, was wounded at the battle of Shiloh. His wound, we are glad to hear, is not serious.

MENGEL HOUSE .- This hotel is still conducted by Mr. Isaac Mengel, Jr., and enjoys the reputation of being a very comfortable and well kept house. Isaac is a "host in himself," and accommodates his guests in the best style See card on outside LAND SALES .- John C. Riffle of Juniata tp., offers a very valuable farm and mill property for sale. Rare opportunities will be presented to buyers at this sale .- Jos. Wigfoos, of W. Providence, Daniel Barley, of M. Woodberry, and John L. and David Replogle, of S. Woodberry, offer valuable tracts for sale.

FENCED IN .- The Poor House graveyard has been surrounded with a handsome and substantial fence, which when painted, as it will be in a few weeks, will give a much more respectable appearance to things than we have been accustomed to see in that once neglected neighborhood. The editor of the Indiana Democrat is especially invited to inspect it.

FIRE ON THE MOUNTAIN-Wills' Moun tain, immediately West of this place, was on fire for a few days, this week, rendering the atmosphere sultry and smoky. At night the flickering flames and burning masses presented a most beautiful appearance. The Alleghany was also on fire at several points. Causesomebody wants cheap pasture for his cattle.

FATAL ACCIDENT .- On Saturday last, Mr. John Houck of Cumberland Valley, was engaged in cutting down a tree on his plantation, a limb struck him on the forchead, killing him almost instantly. It is supposed "that Mr. Houck intended to cause the tree to fall in a direction opposite to that in which it fell, and that he was, therefore, unable to get out of its way as it was falling. When found he was some distance away from the tree, in a reclining posture, his one hand clasping his forehead and the other still keeping its hold upon the axe. Mr. Houck was an upright and respectable citizen and leaves a loving wife to mourn his untimely death.

BEDFORD OBSERVATORY-This is an age of improvement, and though some people can't see any "enterprise" in or about Bedford, exend of it, yet we imagine that if such people would know that we have an observatory in our town, they would alter their opinion as to our "go-aheadative" qualities. Such an institution used for that purpose, and the prisoners acting as "star-gazers." These happy philosophers can the world. We propose that those who are not satisfied with the "enterprise" of Bedford, make up a purse wherewith to purchase a telescope for these enterprising gentlemen. Come, now, let us be up with the times, lest we be ridiculed still more by the news-papers. Who is laggard?

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- The following is a list of the causes disposed of during the late session of Court:

COMMONWFALTH CASES.

Commonwealth vs. George Gardill. Indictment for selling spirituous liquors contrary to law. Nolle Prosequi.

Com. vs. H. F. Perrin. For. and Bas: A lias Process awarded.

Geo. Gardill vs. N. Hurly. Appeal. Verdict for plaintiff for $500 58. John Long vs. J. J. Cessna and Sam'l. Brumbaugh. Verdict for defendants. David Heek vs. Peter Freytet. Replevin Verdict for plaintiff. -0-

SUICIDE.-George Kimberlin, formerly of St. Clair tp., this county but recently of Bethel tp., Fulton co., committed suicide, by hanging himself, on Sunday night, 27th ult. Deceased was a quiet honest, hard-working man, and highly respected by his neighbors. It it is supposed that some domestic trouble urged him to the fatal deed. The Fulton Democrat, of the 9th inst., has the following in regard to this melancholy affair:

That the act was deliberate is proven by the fact that he made arrangements in regard to his property. He left the house in the night, and was found in the morning, with a rope his neck attached to the limb of a tree in from of his house, and with his feet resting upon the ground. Had he straightened himself up to his usual hight it would have been impossible for him to have strangled himself, but being for him to have strangical minerit, but being bent upon self destruction he was able to ac-complish his purpose ander unfavorable circum-stances. The deceased was about 45 years of age, and much respected by those who knew

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE,] May 13th, '62. DEAR EDITOR:

I observed, some weeks ago, by little article in your paper, that you desire to have some correspondence from the country, and have ever since been trying to make up my mind to write you a few items for publication I had prepared what I considered quite an e aborate report of the news in this vicinity, in cluding the recent upsetting of a coach on Black Oak Ridge (so graphically and particularly described by your luminously verbose contem-porary) but lo! a correspondent signing himself "Native,"—a good fellow, evidently, though, perhaps, a little touched with vanity on account of his birth-place-turns up and takes the wind out of my literary sails most effectually. His letter exhausted the news of the neighborhood so completely, that instead of placing my re-port in the Post Office, I concluded to commit it to the flames. In order, however, to let you and your readers know that there are oth you and your readers know that there are only er people in St. Clairsville that can write for the newspapers besides "Native',' I now drop you these few lines, hoping that they will not prove altogether unacceptable. Imprimis—I saw this word in the Inquirer ome days ago; (I suppose it is the Portuguee for "cocked and primed")-the war news in this quarter is very favorable. On Monday this memorable occasion, his brilliant uniform, finely caparisoned steed, soldierlike manners and the hearty good nature with which he seemed to attend to the irksome duties of the day, all of this place, who was chosen Captain. He will make an excellent officer.

write me out a toast? Things have got so much mixed about Liberty, Fraternity, Equalplagued if I know what to think or say about them. Hadn't we better drop these old and well-worn themes until after ministration is at an end? But I have digress-

The following letter would have been printed ere this, but our columns have been hitherto crowded with original matter lranded in before we received it. We shall be glad to hear often from our friend.

MONROE TOWNSHIP, April 25th, 'C2. MR. MEYERS:

I write to inform you that Oliver Horton and James O'Neal, Esqr's., have been removed as post master and deputy post mas-to the eye a magnificent sight. The troops lie removed as post master and deputy post master at Clearville. I understand that but one down at night, on old mother e ter at Clearville. but one down at night, on old mother earth, with little Com. vs. L. K. Dichl. Selling liquor with-nt license. Not a true bill. County for costs. Office Department that a change of this sort it for a mattrass and blankets for covering. was necessary, while the majority of the citi- Everything appears quiet these last few days. We have not even the tattoo to alarm us now zens of the township, protest against it. The people have been completely taken by surprise. They are only a few occasional shots from the out posts. We sleep just as sound here within proposed removal of Horton and O'Neal was kept a profound secret until it was accom- a mile of the enemy, as if we were at home, if bished. No petition had been seen, or sent, desiring a change, by the citizens. The peo-ple, in general, have been well satisfied with the conduct and management of the gentlemen we do have to come out some times at the middle of the night when the long roll beats and form a line of battle. We have a very healthy regiment. Every one appears ready and willing to march against their large fortifiwho had control of the office. We have but a weekly mail to this place, and our late post cations and one hundred and twenty-five thousmasters often during the past year went to Bloody Run, in the middle of the week, to get and men, they say they have at Yorktown. There is a report afloat here in camp that the the mail for this place and thus accommodal Merrimae and Monitor were at it on the 2nd of this month. They say the Merrimac e public. There was no cause for the ing to get up the York river. General McClellan is building a large Pyramid out in woods from our camp. He has it up about 90 feet. He is going to put 10 feet more on it. It is to look at Yorktown from it. I dont know Both gentlemen are honest, upright, law-abiding citizens. They were both appointed by the Administration of James Buchanan. Mr O'. whether Prof. Lowe and his balloon business the store, and received the profits accruing from the position. If it be a political change that was desired, they have bitten off their noses to spite their face. Perhaps it was done on ne-count of Mr. Horton and Mr. CON the count of the profits accruing from the position. If it is a month again. It always takes a month after being mustered be-fore we get our nave the profits accruing from the position. If it is a month again. It always takes a month after being mustered bealways takes a money. The pay rolls have to go fore we get our pay. The pay rolls have to go to Washington first to be approved, and returned backers we get our money. But it is hard telcount of Mr. Horton and Mr. O'Neal being strong school men; while the appointee used his influence against the schools and went to the Ing whether we will all be lucky enough to his influence against the schools and went to the treuble of locking the teacher out of a church that had been used for school purposes. (This took place two or three days after the school house was bombarded, when upwards of forty window panes were broken; the sash smashed, and the frent stove plate taken away, the school house being afterwards destroyed by fire.) Now sir, if the one man power is to rule this land of the free and heme of the brave, the sconer we know it the better. If such is to be the case them, farewell to civil and religious liberty. If Robert Harris vs. Thomas Haney. Appeal. Jerdict for plaintiff for $45–47. Joseph Cresswell vs. Henry Fisher and Chris-ena Fisher. Verdict for defendants. Joseph Filler vs. Directors of the Poor. Ju-y find for the defendant. We know if the better. If such is to be the case then. farewell to civil and religious liberty. If men that "choose darkness rather than light," Joseph Filler vs. Directors of the Poor. Ju-y find for the defendant.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

HARPER'S MONTHLY .- Harper for May contains "American Historical Trees," "A Dangerous Journey," "What are the Nerves," "Clotilde and the Contrabands," "Mistress and Maid," (Miss Mulock) "Pinches from a Scotch

Mull," "Orley Farm," (by Trollope) "Valentine Mott," "Early Disumonists," "Order versus Force," "The Boldero Murder," "Adventures of Philip," (by Thackeray) and the usual editorial varieties. The present is an excellent number in every respect. Harper is always good. AMERICAN EXCHANGE AND REVIEW .--We have before us the April number of this publication, and find it a very useful and entertaining book. It is, as its title page expresses it, "an expositor of social and economic science." Its articles on Finance, Insurance and American History, are sound and judicious. It is certainly a work of merit and deserves to be incouraged by the business men of the country. Published by Whiting and Co., Philadelphia. PARSON BROWNLOW'S BOOK .- Geo. W. Childs, a Philadelphia publisher, is about to isue a history of Brownlow's adventures and hardships in Tennessee, during the Rebellion, written out by the redoubtable Parson himself We have no doubt that the book will be an interesting one, and that it will be well gotten up. Mr. J. E. Satterfield, of Water Street, is the agent for the work, for this county, and is now engaged in taking subscriptions for it. Persons desiring to obtain it should apply at once to Mr. Satterfield.

CONTINENTAL .- The May number of the Continental is filled to overflowing with instructive and entertaining reading. Among the best of its articles are "What shall we do with it?" "The Molley O'Molley Papers," "The able Ante-Norse Discoverers of America," and "A Story of Mexican Life." In the next number will be commenced a new novel of American Life, by R. B. Kimball, Esq., Author of "St Leger," "Undercurrents of Wall Street," &c The Continental is rapidly growing in public

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

CAMP WINFIELD SCOTT, 101st P.V Near Yorktown, May 3d, '62. Dear

I sit down to tell you a little about Yorktown, and the doings of the Army in and a-bout it. Yourshould have seen us as the whole Army moved off for this place from our this quarter is very favorable. On Monday last, a fine military company, called the St.-Clairsville Greys, was organized by our gallant and god-looking Brigade Inspector, Maj. San-The Major bore himself splendidly on the major bore dimension of the splendidly on t devour." We are now lying very close to the enemy waiting for the ball to open. Large bodies of the enemy's troops are just by our side. There is a small wood between us and bespeaking for him the unfeigned admiration of the assembled soldiers and citizens. The com pany is to be commanded by Dr. S. G. Statler, open field, within 60 yards of their pickets, and 800 to 1000 of their forts and barracks. Our will make an excellent officer. I understand that we are to have a Fourth of July celebration here on the next anniver-sary of American Independence. Can't you hear is bang! bang! bang! along the picket lines. Our boys don't seem to be at all alarmty, Union, The Constitution, and the other old ed lying so close to the foe. But I suppose the subjects for Fourth of July Toasts, that I am think as I do, that they came here as hawfu ed lying so close to the toe. Dut a suppose with think as I do, that they came here as lawful soldiers, of a glorious Government, and will stand up to the work as long as the Stars and Lincoln's ad- Stripes shall wave. Whenever the long roll is beaten every man is at his post. It don't mat-ter whether it is daylight or the middle of the ed, and my sheet is nearly full. I have noth-ing more to communicate at present, but will write you whenever any thing stirring happens in this neighborhood. For the present I am Yours, MILL DAM. in moonlight, or sunshine, whatever the occa-sion may be. There is skirmishing going on all the time along the picket lines. Or the second of May, there was aman shot on picket. He was a Rebel. He tried to crawl through our lines on his belly. Three of the New York boys pulled on him at one time. They did no know which killed him. A flag of truce came through our lines on the same day. I don't know what it was concerning. One of our officers met them. They would not come up to our lines. It is very pleasant on the Penin

IMPORTANT NEWS.

Capture of Norfolk, Portsmouth and the Navy-Yard.

FEDERAL TROOPS IN FULL POSSES-SIGN.

WASHINGTON, May 11th .- The following offiial dispatch waspeccived at the War Department this morning :

Fortress Monroe, May 10, 12 o'clock at night. } Norfolk is ours. Also Portsmouth and the avy-yard.

General Wool, having completed the landing of his forces at Willoughby Point about 9 o'clock this morning, commenced his march on Norfolk with five thousand men.

Secretary Chase accompanied the general. About five miles from the landing place a rebel battery was found, on the opposite side of the bridge over Tanner's creck, and after a few the bridge over Tanner's creek, and after a few discharges upon two companies of infantry that were in the advance, the rebels burned the bridge. This compelled our forces to march around, five miles further. At five o'clock in the afternoon our forces were within a short distance of Nor-folk, and were met by a delegation of citizens, and the due was formable surgendared.

and the city was formally surrendered. Our troops were then marched in, and now have possession. Gen. Viel in command as mil ary governor.

The city and navy-yard were not burned. The fires which have been seen for some hours proved to be the woods on fire.

Gen. Wool, with secretary Chase, returned about 11 o'clock to-night. - Gen. Hunter withdrew his forces without a battle. Commander Rogers' expedition was heard from this afternoon ascending the James riv-

The reports from Gen. McClellan are favor-

EDWIN M. STANTON. Secretary of War.

Highly Important FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

The Merrimac Blown up by the Rebels!

WASHINGTON, May 11 .- The following highly important announcement has just been re-ceived from Fortress Monroe: Fastress Monroe, May 11, A. M.—Hon. R.

H. Watson, Assistant Secretary of War:-The Merrimac was blown up by the rebels at two inutes before 5 o'clock this morning. She was set fire to about 3 o'clock this morning, and the explosion took place at the time stated. It is said to have been a grand sight by those who saw

The Monitor, Stevens, and the gunboats have gone uptowards Norfolk

Later from Pittsburg Landing.

From Memphis-Destruction of Cotton, Sugar, and Molasses-General Beauregard's Army on Half Rations. CAIRO, May 10th.—The Steamer Roe from Pittsburg Landing yesterday afternoon, has ar-rived and reports that one hundred of our cavalry, while reconnoitering from the left wing on Thursday night, were surprised by a superior force of rebels and were captured.

A refugee from Memphis reports that a large number of troops had arrived at Memphis from Arkansas and Texas, and been immediately sent to Corinth.

The provost marshal at Memphis commenced burning the cotton early last week. Most of the sugar and molasses was thrown in the river. The rebel government had seized a large a-count of property and sent it to Columbus, Miss.,

and promised to pay three months after a treaty of peace with the United States. Jeff Thompson was scouring the country around Memphis with his gang, enforcing the conscription act. Deserters from Beauregard's army ported the troops to be on half rations, and that their provisions could not last forty days.

infantry which have been stationed at Th Fort Wright had been sent to Corinth.

From Gen. McClellan's Army-A Battle at West Point. FORTRESS MONROE, May 8. By steamer from Yorktown I learn that Gen

McClellan had advanced twelve miles beyond Williamsburg, and has had several skirmishes with the enemy, routing them with heavy loss. The embarkation of troops for West Point is progressing with great rapidity. A heavy battle' took place on Wednesday afternoon between the

The Rebellion.

The splendid success of the plans of Gen. McClellan, has put a new phase upon the rebellion, and whilst we cannot yet discern the probable issue of the war, we can dis- against fifty-five. tinetly see that the Secession leaders will ei- lows : ther have to change their programme, or dis--really "to die in the last ditch." We be-the censure of this House. Therefore, that it is their design to The resolution was rejected—yeas 45 nays 72. The defendant.

13"The Indiana Democrat, just started at Insom, Esq., late of the Fulton Democrat, is a dent have offered to the people of the North neat and spicy sheet. We wish "Jeemes" all Cameron in Congess.

WASHINGTON, April 30.-The following res-olution was submitted by Mr. Holman, from

Resolved, That Simon Cameron, late Secre tary of War, by investing Alexander Cummings with the control of large sums of public money and authority to purchase military supplies without restriction, without requiring from him due guarantees for the faithful performance of his duties, when the services of comp public officers were available, and by involving with persons not legitimately engaged in the business pertaining to the subject matter of such contracts, especially in the purchase of arms, for future delivery, has adopted a policy highly injurious to the public service, and deserves the censure of this House.

The resolution was adopted-seventy-five

Mr. Holman's second resolution read as fol

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Navy band their army and succumb to the Federal in the employment of George D. Morgan with power. That they will hardly do the latter, is indicated by the fact that they are daily chase of a large number of vessels for the pub destroying millions of dollars worth of property, blowing up their vessels and even burn-ing some of their towns. This would seem to show that they are desperate and intend cy unauthorised by law, destructive of public out license. Not a true bill. County for costs. Com. vs. A. McGrigor, jr. Assault. Noll. Pros.

Com. vs.Wm. Spidel. Assault. Noll. Pros. Com. vs. J. Baker, Polly Baker, Jane Baker, Frank. Baker and Benedict Baker. Surety of the Peace. The four last named defendants to pay costs of prosecution and to enter bail in the sum of $100 each to keep the peace, &c. Com. vs. Mary Ann Dobson. Larceny. Noll. Pros.

Com. vs. P. M. Nawgel. Larceny. Guilty as to first count of indictment and not guilty as the to second count. Sentenced to pay costs of val, none under the heavens! Oliver Horton prosecution, fine of one cent, and to be impris-oned for five days.

Com. vs. Nathan Lee. Assault and Battery. Not a true bill.

Com. vs. Patrick Burns, John Burns and William Burns. Continued.

Com. vs. John W. Snider and M. Hevner. Disturbing Exhibition. Noll. Pros.

Com. vs. John K. Teeter. Obstructing Pubic Road. Noll. Pros.

Com. vs. Geo. Iiams. Larceny. Noll. Pros Com. vs. John Park. Continued. Com. vs. P. G. Morgart. Violating Liquo Law. Not a true bill and prosecutor to pay costs. Com. vs. Thos. N. Young and Joseph Gates

Not opening public road. Process awarded.

CIVIL LIST.

Robert Harris vs. Thomas Haney. Appeal. Verdict for plaintiff for $45 47.

tena Fisher. Verdict for defendants.

troops of Gen. Franklin and Gen. Sedgwick and the rebels under Gen. Lee, who were en deavoring to make their way to Richmond. is said to have been the severest battle on the Peninsula. The rebels were totally routed and flanked, being driven back toward the forces under Gen. Johnson, on the Chickahominy. The whole number of Federals killed and wounded was 300, the enemy were driven backiby our gun-boats with great slaughter. They had not less than 30,000 men, while our whole force at the time was not over 20,000-only that number having landed. Had it not been for the gunboats our troops would have been defeated

"Good-Bye, John."

John Forney, we mean-the veritable, veraious and immaculate John W-the dignified and august clerk of the Senate-the nominal editor and proprietor of a certain anomalous newspaper called the Press-the pretended friend and advocate of Stephen A. Douglas-the original and ardent supporter of James Bucha an,-for which last may he be forgiven. John W., hail and farewell! You've left us, John, bag and baggage, tooth and toe-nail. It was very eruel, very unkind, but "sich is life." "I wish I was on Federal Hill,

There I'd sit and cry my fill, For Jonny's gone for a Bobolitionist."