BEDFORD GAZETTE B. F. MEYERS, EDITOR.

FRIDAY, JULY 46, 1862.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS. STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL, HON. ISAAO SLENKER, OF UNION COUNTY.

SURVEYOR GENERAL, COL. JAMES P. BARR, ALLEGHANY COUNTY

COUNTY TICKET.

ASSEMBLY, JOHN CESSNA,

COUNTY SURVEYOR, SAMUEL KETTERMAN, DIS. ATTORNEY, JOHN PALMER,

COMMISSIONET

ANDREW CRISMAN, NAPIER TP. POOR DIRECTOR, SOLOMON REIGHARD, NAKE SPRING TP

AUDITOR JOHN H. BARTON, PROVIDENCE TP.

PUBLIC MEETING.

PUBLIC MEETING. A meeting of the citizens of Bedford county will be held in the Court House, in Bedford, on the evening of Saturday, %uly 26th, 1862, for the purpose of adopting measures to aid in ob-taining volunteers for the army of the Union in answer to the late call of the President of the United States. The meeting will commence at 8 o'clock, P. M., and every person who feels in-terested in the cause, is earnestly invited to at-tend. It is desired to have persons present from all parts of the county. MANY CITIZENS.

HON. EDGAR COWAN .- We have heretofore entirely refrained from saying any thing in regard to the course of Senater Cowan. W were always under the impression that he be longed to the radical wing of the "Republican" party, and, therefore, were slow to make up our mind as to his earnestness and sincerity when he began to act with the conservatives. Be-"Republican" friends by descanting upon the changed views and position of Mr. Cowan, knowing well that they would be deeply chagrined at the loss of so able and influential a hampion as Edgar Cowan. But the action of the late "Republican" State Convention has not only convinced us that Mr. Cowan intends to be firm in his conservatism, but it has also given us an excellent reason for speaking in vindication of his official conduct. This immaculate and peculiarly unselfish representation of the logalty of Pennsylvania, read Mr. Cowan out of the "Republican" ranks in the following sinister, but nevertheless effectual manner:

"Resolved, That the course of the Hon. Da-vid Wilmot, in the U. S. Senate, is manly, con-sistent and eminently patriotic, and we hereby endorse him as a true and faithful representative of the loyal people of the State."

Now, when we call to mind the fact that Mr Cowan was elected by the "Republicans," as well as Mr. Wilmot, nay, that he was preferred by them before Mr. Wilmot, and when we remember that Mr. Cowan, at last accounts, still olican" organi zafion, we can apprehend, in all its unmitigated malignity, this covert attack upon the public character and patriotism of our conservativ Senator. The resolution above quoted could not have been worded so as to convey in more forcible terms, the idea that the course of Mr. Cowan is not "manly, consistent and eminently patriotic," and that he (Mr. Cowan) is not " true and faithful representative of the loyal peo-, ple of the State." Against this false and dev. ilish insinuation we feel it our duty to defend Mr. Cowan. We believe him still to be a "Republican," but his being such does not lessen our regard for him so long as he stands by the Constitution and the laws of the land. In these trying times we feel it our obligation to support officials when they do right, to condemn them when they do wrong, no matter to what party they belong. Mr. Cowan has stood up fearless-ly, nobly, for the preservation of the Constitution, and though he has been unable to stem the torrent of fanaticism now sweeping over that rock of our liberties, he stands, unmoved and immov able, upon the foundation-stone of free government, proudly defying every element that would push him from his position. Nor can there be any doubt as to the people coming to Mr. Cowan's rescue. The issue made between him and Mr. Wilmot, by the "Republican" convention. will be fairly and fully tried in the coming campaign and there can be no fear for the result Mr. Wilmot, with his abolition diabolism, will be repudiated; Mr. Cowan and conservative es will be sustained.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION .-This redoubtable body of abolition seces ists assembled at Harrisburg, on Thursday, 17 nst., and after declaring themselves and their party the only loyal people in the State and thus, in effect, telling Jeff. Davis and Co., that the 232,000 Democrats of Pennsylvania are in sympathy with the rebel conspirators, they nominated Thomas E. Cochran (the inevitabl Thomas) of York, for Auditor General, and W. S. Ross. of Luzerne, for Surveyor Gener al. Cochran is a regular leech upon the back of the people. He has been in office and seek ing office ever since we can remember any thing about politics. As for Ross, he is a kind of nerman, hybrid, speckled, quadroon free-soil, octoroon pro-slavery demagogue, who migh-have made a first rate Judas had he lived some thing over 1800 years ago. These gentleme are booked for oblivion, to date from the sec ond Tuesday of October, or we are no prophet. John C. Knox and John W. Forney (par nobile fratrum) were the leading spirits in this "Republican" convention. They have at last been compelled to unmask themselves, and, now that the veil is torn from their faces, the people will no longer be deceived by their infamous shams and fraudulent pretences.

HOME NEWS, ETC.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR .- Hon. Caleb B. Smith, Secretary of the Interior, arrived at Bed ford Springs on Monday night last. The Sec retary is here, we understand, for the purpos of trying the waters of our Springs for the ben efit of his health.

HON. R. C. GRIER.-Judge Grier is a present sojourning at Bedford Springs. The Judge, though quite venerable in appearance looks hale and hearty and seems to be in th enjoyment of excellent health. Long live this distinguished jurist, this true and faithful expounder of the law!

THE GREENSBURG ARGUS .- This ster

ing Democratic journal has donned a new dress and looks as fresh and sparkling as a sunrise in May. We are glad to note this evidence of prosperity on the part of Father Laird, and hope that he will be fully rewarded for the pecuniary outlay incurred in the improvement of his paper.

TRUNKS, &c .- Mr. J. B. Magill has just eccived from the East, a large assortment of trunks, valises, &c., &c., which he will sell at the lowest prices. He has some very fine ladies' dress trunks, which our fair friends are espectfully desired to examine for themselves.

STRANGER IN TOWN .--- We have been gratified by a call from Frederick Ayer Esq., the business an of the firm of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell. A short acquaintance with the gentleman conpounding his medicines is alone concerned in the immense consumption of them have mmense consumption of them; but that i takes business talent of no ordinary measure to pass them around the world. Mr. Ayer, manifestly, has these abilities and the success of his house shows that he uses them. ["Memphis Whig," Tenn.]

CONCERT .--- On Monday and Tuesday venings last, the people of our town were faored with performances in the Court House, by the celebrated vocalists, Hudson Brothers, companied by H. M. Rogers, the well-known and greatly admired balladist. The Hudson Brothers are fine performers ; in fact, we cannot say that we have ever heard them excelled. H. M. Rogers is decidedly the best male soprand nunity, the Union people of the country, as diswe have ever heard. His voice is clear and inguished from others who disagree with your very musical, articulating every note distinctly political views, but who avow themselves as paand melodiously. The performances of this riotic, in every sense of the term, as yourselves. troupe gave great satisfaction to the large audiences which assembled to hear them and we Your claim to this distinction is invalid until you do more for your country than those from can say without hesitation, to the people of othwhom' you desire to be distinguished. Prove er places about to be visited by the Hudsons your superior devotion to the Union, now, or and Rogers, that a rich treat is in store for -0-HISTORY OF THE REBELLION .- We have been shown a specimen copy of a work about to be published, entitled "The History of the Great Rebellion," by Thomas P. Kettell, of New York, late editor of Hunt's Merchants' Magazine. The volume exhibited to us gives a true and npartial account of the rise and progress of the rebellion. We can recommend it to our readers as an honest and straightforward book, "nothing extenuating, nor setting down aught in malice.' The second volume will be issued immediately upon the close of the war, and subscribers to this work will, therefore, receive a complete history of the present national troubles, from beginning to end. George W. Grove, of Pattonsville, is general agent for this and a number of the adjoining counties. He will be assisted in this county by T. H. C. Burch, Levi Daugherty and William A. Grove.

put hors de combat, whilst some of the whites ARMY CORRESPONDENCE. vere also slightly wounded. Knives and "shil-

CAMP CADWALADER, NEAR ALEXANDRIA, Va. Negroes ought to be taught proper behavior and R. EDITOR:

they ought not, and we have no doubt, will not as become of your humble correspondent, and when they conduct themselves as as they should, they ought not, and we have no doubt, will not receive any harsh treatment at the hands of seat myself to inform you and your numerous white people. ---- RECRUITING.— • • • • Thousands are rushing to the standard of the Government and Bedford county doing nothing. Shame! shame! it will be a burning and lasting shame upon us if we do not immediately come to the shame! it willing to raise a Company? Shame! of march for the "Monumental City." The on horse landed us in Baltimore in good time, no horse landed us in Baltimore in good time, no horse landed us in Baltimore in good time, no horse landed us in Baltimore in good time, no horse landed us in Baltimore in good time, no horse landed us in Baltimore, in dwe encamped on the Fair Ground, until the Sth, when we again got aboard the carts and the waning rebellion ? Let the answere be, every able-bodied man. Come, sons of Bedford coun-ty, your brothers in arms require your assist nance. Every one of you who can, come to the rescue.—[Bedford Inquirer.] Some people want to know why the editor of the Lnquiver himself cannot respond to his patri-world. Your correspondent visited the Senate otic call? Why is not Mr. Durborrow "willingchamber and House of Representatives, both Some people want to know why the editor of d, the finest building, perhaps, in the known the Inquirer himself cannot respond to his patri-world. Your correspondent visited the Senate otic call? Why is not Mr. Durborrow "willing building building of Representatives, both to raise a company?" Why is he not "willing building b goes, because, according to ins editorial production. mation of last week, we are an "anti-war man,"^{tion}. Our camp at Washington was in a healthy lelahs" were freely used in the melee. Such affrays as this are a disgrace to the community.

and, as we are bound to believe so veracions a beet as the Inquirer, we, of course, could not the Potomac. The view of the surrounding think of trusting so dangerous a man as ourself country is fine. On all sides can be seen forts, in the ranks of the Union army. We might with their guns bristling in the sunshine, as if in the ranks of the Union army. We might with their guiss of isoning in the satisfies a send runaway slaves back to their masters and threatening death to any one that would dare harm our beloved Capital. do other treasonable acts of a like character. On the 27th of June, we again moved for-No, no, Mr. Durborrow! Since you have given ward, and after passing in review of President us so clear an insight into our own heart, we Lincoln, we turned our horses towards the long can never promise to "go for a soldier," not even bridge and crossed the Potomac and set foot on in the remote contingency of your own enlist-Virginia soil. About 5 o'clock in the evening in the remote contingency of your own enlist. Wight soil. About 5 o'clock in the evening ing. Ask your editorial predecessor. He might miles below Alexandria, in a beautiful and very accompany you. He has nothing else to do healthy place. The country is beautifully di-Besides he isn't an "anti-war man." But the versified with hill and dale. The railroad to Manassas runs close to our camp. This road was built by the United States Government and question is, will you go?

PUBLIC MEETING.—We publish in this issue a call for a meeting to be held at the Court House, on Saturday evening, next, "for the purpose of adopting measures to aid in obtain-ing volunteers for the army of the Union, in purpose of adopting measures to aid in obtain-ing volunteers for the army of the Union, in answer to the late call of the President of the United States." We hope that this meeting will be largely attended and that the "many citizens" who signed this call, collectively, will be present to append their names to the roll of volunteers, mdividually. It is a singular fact that there are always men (able-bodied men) who seem to think that their eloquence ought to induce their fellow citizens to volunteer, whilst at the same time their patriotic rhetoric does not seem to have the least effect upon their own precious selves. In view of this strange phenomenon in the recruiting service, we would were made. If ever they should happen to l brought in contact with the enemy in the branch suggest that people who are thus peculiarly gif-ted be called upon to lead, not march in getting of the service they are drilled in, you will hear of the service they are drilled in, you will hear of the service they are drilled in, you will hear of the service they are drilled in, you will hear of the service they are drilled in, you will hear of the service they are drilled in, you will hear "Go, Boys!" It is time that those who see the duty of others should have some faint glimpse of their own, and say, "Come, Boys!" The President of the United States and the Goverthere halted, to rest. On the 13th of June the army again moved forward and we were recall men are needed. Will the loyal people be back-word in volunteering their services? We mean It is but justice to 1st Lient. W. W. Ander-It is but justice to 1st Lient. W. W. Ander-son, of your own town, to state that he volun-tarily went with us, preferring to go with his boys and sharing their hardships and privations, without any reward except the love of his men, to staying with the regiment where there was har more ease and comfort, thereby endearing himself to the hearts of the men that were with the loyal people par excellence-those who are signated by the late exclusively loval State Convention of the Republican People's party, by whom all opposed to that party are branded isloyal? Come, now, ye viper-tongued slanderers, if you are better patriots than your neighhim. He is beloved by the whole company. The health of the regiment is good. The wea-ther since we came here has been extremely hot ors whom you revile, let us have the proof in your response to your country's call. You set ourselves up as the loyal portion of the comand sultry.

Under the command of Col. R. B. Price, are rapidly improving in the evolutions of the line, and our regiment bids fair soon to take rank among the best.

There are several regiments encamped around here, among the number faotice the 84th P.V. which was so badly cut up at Winchester, las March, where their commander, the gallant Col. Murray fell. They are here to take a little rest, which they stand greatly in need of. The regismal to do their full share of the hardships that a soldier's life si ever beset with, and never to shrinh from any danger that he is subject to. Resolved, That in the loss of such men, it be comes the duty of the survivors to tender their kind offices to the parents and friends of the deceased, as well as offer their condolence, for the loss of them who had endeared themselves

the loss of them who had endeared memserves to their associates, as well as to their friends. Resolved, That any requests the friends of the deceased may make on Company E, with re-gard to the effects of the deceased, or to the fi-nal resting-place of their bodies, or any other matter in relation them, will be cheefully com-sided with plied with.

Resolved, That the preceedings of this meet ing, and a copy of these resolutions, be sent to the parents of each of the deceased. Also, that a copy be sent to each of the Belford coun-ty papers for publication. RICHARD P. PILKINGTON, Pres't.

ALEXANDER LYON, Sec'y James Middleton, Isaiah H. Rawlins, John W. Mittong, - Committee Jonathan Cutler, David S. Elliott,

ARRIVALS AT BEDFORD SPRINGS .- The following is a list of arrivals at Bedford Springs from July 1, till July 23d:

from July 1, till July 23d:
G. E. Leonard, daughter and Miss Slack, Mt.
Savage, Md.; J. P. Roman, Cumberland; Hon.
Jas. Watson, Washington, Pa.; Jas. W. Jones,
Lawrence F. Dickerson, Cumberland, Md.; J.
S. Madara and Lady, Phil'a.; John A. Wright,
Lewistown, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Wedick, Miss
Frost, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mercer and child, 2
Misses Mercer, Miss Roser, W. H. Mercer, Miss
Lewis, G. Henderson, wife and 5 children, Mr.
H. Henderson, child and nurse, Miss A. Henderson, S. F. Bodine and wife, Geo. G. Pilliner, Paul Graff, wife and son, Philadelphia; Mr.
and Mrs. W. Bose, Baltimore; Mrs. Paul, Geo. and Mrs. W. Bose, Baltimore; Mrs. Paul, Geo Brockman, Miss Van Ferson, Cumberland, Md. Brockman, Miss Van Ferson, Cumberland, Md.; D. Vandeveer, Mrs. E. C. Eby and daughter, H. C. Laughlin, Philadelphia; J. R. Williams, Berger Point, N. J.; Horace Williams, Newport, R. I.; Dr. S. Collins, James Gregg, Mrs. Bay-field, Amos Gregg, E. S. Courtney, W. B. Lam-bourn, E. S. Allmidt, Henry C. Jones, W. H. Osbourn, Mrs. Ann E. Wade, Mrs. R. Cohen, Miss Cohen, S. Holmes, Baltimore; A: Christy, St. Louis, Mo; John E. Faunce, J. H. Shoen-berger, Mrs. Shoenberger, Margie Blair, Master St. Louis, Mo; John E. Faunce, J. H. Shoenberger, Mrs. Shoenberger, Maggie Blair, Master Blair and 2 servants, Mrs. Biddle, Miss Biddle, Miss Bichards, Pittsburg; J. J. Cohen, Jr., Dr. Cohen, R. Leslie, N. F. Williams, G. B. Graf, C. A. Schaefer, jr., G. R. Dulaney and wife, Mrs. M. Rogers and daughter, D. M. Willson, Jos. R. Snyder and wife, W. R. Devries, Baltimore; Miss Annie Hamilton, Miss Butler, Judge and Mrs. Irwin, John H. Brown, Miss Hamilton, C E. Swaee, C. W. Rickettson, Mrs. Master, Jaulys and Same C. W. Rickettson, Mrs. Hamilton, C. E. Swope, C. W. Rickettson, Mrs. B. T. Rickettson, S. W. Sample, Tittsburg; Miss Annie Cresswell, Miss Mary Curtin, H. McCormick, Philip Dougherty and wife, Miss Dougherty, Jas. D. Dougherty and wife, Miss Dougherty, Jas. D. Dougherty, F. Seiler, W. E. Dougherty, Theo. Adams, N. J. Jones, Jno. C. Kunkel, Mrs. A. G. Curtin, Harrisburg: Sam-uel Hart, Judge Grier, Miss Grier, Mrs. Smith, M. Den Lie, C. Dirier, T. H. Ben, uel Hart, Judge Grier, Miss Grier, Mrs. Smith, Thos. Woolman, John G. Divine, T. H. Rea-kirt, J. L. Ferimore and lady, Miss Rebecca Fenimore, Miss A. Morehead, W. S. Stewart, S. Robb, J. W. Logan, Mrs. J. Marr, C. M. Donovan, W. G. Moorhead, Miss Dora B. Moor-head, Miss Carrie F. Moorhead, Miss Clara A. Miss Carrie F. Schoenberger, J. W. Riddle, P. H. Brice, Geo. C. Calhoun, C. Hill Brinton, Philadel'a: A. N. Smith, C. B. Smith and wife, Miss Hedrick, G. S. Gideon, wife & daughter, Washington, D. C.; Miss olack, Cum-berland; H. M. North, Columbia, W. P. Wil-son, Ed. Blanchard, Bellefonte; Capt. Powell, U. S. N., T. F. Atherton and wife, Pittston; U. S. N., T. F. Atherton and wife, Pittston; O. S. N., T. F. Anderton and wile, Fitsson; Miss Alice Wilson, Centre co.; T. T. Tunstall, Alabama; J. P. Roman, Md.; L. W. Hall, M. C. Bayley, Blair co.; Mrs. Leonard, C. Slack, Maryland; Mrs. Eckert, Miss Mary Eckert, Miss Eckert, Reading; R. Guild, Missouri; James Condron, Hollidaysburg; Col. O. J. Dickey, H. E. Leman, Lancaster; D. M. Peck, C. A. May er, Lock Haven; Jas. Chiston, West River, Md. Joseph H. Barnard, W. T. Harris, Bellefonte

Henry Moore & lady, Miss Kate Moore, Louisa Moore, Miss M. A. Zane, M. B. Cox and lady, Miss Annie Cox, Miss Ella Cox, Wheeling; L. O. Hudson, R. N. Hudson, H. M. Rogers, G. P. Hudson.

The Republican State Convention. The Republican State Convention which me at Harrisburg, on Thursday, was a singular ad-mixture of office-holders, abolitionists, horsecontractors, political mountebanks, old fogies and patriots-"black spirits and white, blue blue spirits and grey"-the pure Republican and the mixed-the Garrison Abolitionist and the more Courteous Pople's party man-the renegade Democrat and the Know-Nothing—the Tarifite and the Free-trader, all in the most delightful commune with a place at the table for the ab-out (inclused brother). It moded each the sent "colored brother." It needed only th presence of Sambo to make the thing unique, and this defect was supplied as far as could be by the chivalrous and incorruptible Forney, who sought to make himself the more welcome to his new associates, by presenting them an illu minated photograph of the "colored brother" in full regimentals, with Hunter and Fremont as his aids. It was a happy conceit, and put the Convention in an excellent humor, the more so as it was quietly given out that Gen. Sambo was in treaty with his attached friend, the King of Dahomey, for two hundred regiments for the war.

Ex-Governor Seymour, of Connecticut. on the War.

Ex-Governor Seymour, of Connecticut, has written a remarkable letter to the Hartford Times, condemning the use of his name as a Vice-President of the late war meeting in that

Vice-President of the late war meeting in that city. He goes on to say that. "If it is necessary to be more explicit, I begleave to state that knowing what the meeting would be beforehand, I could not have been in-duced to attend it, or take a part in its doings —and that, having glanced at the speeches and the proceedings generally of that meeting, I participation, directly or indirectly, in what took place there. The meeting, if I have not misunderstood its general bearing, is one which ignores neacful remedies of any sort as means ignores peaceful remedies of any sort as means of restoring the Union, and calls loudly for men and means to aid in the subjugation and con-sequent degradation and overthrow of the South. I follow, gentleman, in no such crusade, neither I follow, gentleman, in no such crusade, neither will I contribute, in any way, to the accom-plishment of such bloody purposes. The mon-strons fallacy of the present day, that the Union can be reestablished by destroying any part of the South, is one which will burst with the shells that are thrown into its defenceless cities, and leave the condition of this country, after its treasures are exhausted, and its brave men on both sides are consigned to the grave, to the commiseration of the civilized world.

"Respectfully yours, THOS. H. SEYMOUR."

THE WAR IN KENTUCKY.

Reported Capture of Cynthiana-Great Excite-ment at Newport and Covington.

CINCINNATI, July 18.-A man came into Boyd's, on the Kentucky Central railroad, this morning, and reports that the town of Cynthi-ana, 65 miles from here, surrendered at 5 o'clock yesterday to the rebels, after a half hour's fight. He says he saw Morgan and shook hands with Morgan's force numbers about 2,500. him.

A soldier who also came into Boyd's says that Morgan's men fired two rounds after the surrender of the town, and that Cantain Anthony's company, from Newport, are all killed or made prisoners. The excitement at Newport, and Covington is very high and increasing. The citizens are organizing rapidly for the defense of Newport, and the provost marshal arrests all sympathizers to-day.

DARING EXPLOIT OF A REBEL RAM I The Ram Arkansas Escapes from the Yazoo

River to Vicksburg.

REPORTED SINKING OF THREE OF THE UNION FLEET.

New York, July 20.—A special despatch to the New York Tribune, dated Memphis, the 17th

The Grenada Appeal has Vicksburg despatch-es of the 15th, announcing that the Robel gun-boat Arkansas, Capt. J. N. BROWS, came down boats, and these of any gunboats, the Yazoo river, sunk three of our gunboats, and arrived safe under the Vicksburg batteries. The Rebel loss was 10 killed and 13 wounded The Arkansas is a very formidable boat. That she has come out is probably true. The rest is Important from Warrenton, Va.

Federal Cavalry Pass Through White Sulphur

Springs without Opposition. WARRENTON, Va., July 18.—Our troops are in good spirits, in prospect of active operations. The White Sulphur Springs have been visited almost daily, until our arrival, by the enemy's cavalry scouts; but recently a detachment of our cavalry passed there, toward Culpeper, without opposition. The townspeople of Warrenton are courte-ous toward us. The ladies, rank secessionists as they are, treat us with dignified politeness, and at these with marked streation areding as they are, treat us with aggineed poncess, and at times with marked attention, evading any discussion of the affairs of the country. As in every town we have entered, black is the predominating color worn by the females. It is stated this town and vicinity turned out in the relative requiring 200 theorem.

the rebel volunteer service 700 troops. The command of General Hatch is reported to have penetrated as far as Rapidan Station, on the Virginia Central railroad. The following appointments have been made in General Banks' corps d'armee—Brigadier in General Banks' corps d'armee-Brigadier General Auger to the 1st division ; Brigadier General Prince to the 1st division; Infanta dier General George S. Greene to the 2d brigade of the same division. All are well versed July, 14, 1862.

Gov. Curtin has issued a proclamation pecifying the number of companies to be raised each county under the late call for troops. Bedrd county is called upon to furnish 2 companies.

RIOT .--- On Saturday night last a rather erious affair took place on the road between our borough and the Springs. A party of young men from town had gone out to the Springs, and while there, one of their number was insultingly addressed by a colored boy, also from town, whereupon some violence ensued between the parties, another colored "gem'an" participating in the squabble. As the party was returning to town, the carriage in which they were riding, was attacked by a squad of twelve or fifteen colored men, standing by the read-side, who hurled stones and other missiles at the vehicle as it passed them. Exasperated by this demonstration on the part of the blacks, the white boys sallied forth from their carriage and a "regular pitched battle" ensued. The result was that some half-a-dozen darkies were phia Inquirer.

forever after hold your peace! Meanwhile we do not wish our friends who disagree in politics with the class of patriots to whom we have just paid our respects, to imagine that they owe no duty to their country. Let us act scientiously, honestly, manfully, with the spirit of American citizens, and let every one be prompted in his conduct by that true love of country, desire for the welfare of the people, whence emanate no false impulses, no sordid aspirations, no selfish intrigues, no hopes nor expectations save for the weal of this once happy, but now distressed and distracted nation.

that there are always men (able-bodied men)

ggest that people who are thus peculiarly gif-

President of the United States and the Governor of Pennsylvania tell us that 300,000 more

LARGE SNAKE .- Mr. Warner Horkens, of Colerain township, killed a black snake, a few days ago, on the mountain immediately east of the Springs, which (the snake, not the mountain) measured nine feet in length when des natched by said Hoerkens. Prompted by a curiosity to see so large a serpent, we, in company with some friends, ascended the mountain and found his snakeship perfectly defunct, and considerably shrunken, owing, doubtless, to the peculiar influences of the atmosphere in that elevated region.

> LET THE LEGISLATURE BE CALLED TOGETH ER.—While other States are preparing to offer additional inducements for enlistment, Pennsyl-vania appears to be taking no step which can lead to the same beneficial result. Governor Curtin, who must have returned from his recent visit to Washington well advised as to what was expected of the Commonwealth of which he is the Chief Executive should, ere this, which he is the Chief Excentive should, ere this, have issued a call for a special session of the Legislature. A handsome bounty offered by that body would tend greatly to stimulate enlistments, and as every day is important in the present condition of our army, it is to be hoped that he will no longer delay.—Philadel-phic femicer.

four hundred men, all told.

If any more of the young men of your con ty want to enlist, there is a good chance here and great inducements in the late act of Con gress, for enlistment, as they will receive one month's pay and $25 of their bounty money in gress advance, immediately upon their bounty money in advance, immediately upon their being mustered into the regiment. For the present I will close. More hereafter, if this suits. Yours truly, BLOODY RUN.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting held July 4th, 1862, at the quarters of Company "E," Power's Zonaves (76th Reg P. V.) Capt. Henry L. Ryce, Hilton Head, S. C., the following preamble and reso-lutions, were drafted and passed expressive of he following the company of the death of any the feelings of the company, on the death of our late brothers in arms, Watson W. King, flenry C. Pennell, Joseph T. Fetter and Jacob Huff-

Whereas, The life of the soldier is more van ied and he is called upon to witness more sad scenes than any other class of people. Death in every variety of form, becomes familiar to him, he sees his brother soldier pine and fade a familiar to way in sickly climates, at other times burning fevers consume his comrade with an unbounded levers consume nis comrade with an uncounded and uncontrolling rage, almost like fire. Then, added to these, the deaths by violence during battle, we must conclude that death stares the soldier in the face in more ways, and in more abhorrent phases than falls to the lot of Still the soldier has sympaany other people. thies as strong, and feelings as tender as others. We have been led to these reflections by the recent visitation of Providence, that has deprived us of four of our comrades. We mourn the loss, we grieve at the dispensation, we have condo lence for their friends, and in order to show our kind feelings, and heartfelt sympathies be it Resolved, That in the deaths of WAISON W. KING, JOSEPH J. FEITER, HENRY C. PENNELL

AINS, JOSEPH J. PETER, HENRY C. PENNELL and JACOB HUFFMAN, we feel that our ranks, have been thinned of them that it was our de-light to hail as brothers; engaged in the same good work as ourselves, they were ever ready

The men in Convention, however, of the stamp of Forney were few—about half a doz-en. A. K. McClure, Charles Gilpin and Mor-ton McMichael were the chief fuglemen. John promise nothing. They, however, recognize the Republican party as the "people of the Lord," and David Wilmot as their great high priest, while they very considerately avoided the mention of the name of the intrepid Cowan. Thomas E. Coch-ran was nominated for re-election as Auditor General, and Wm. S. Ross, of Luzerne, for Surveyor General. Mr. Tochran has always been an ultra Republican, Mr. Ross has belong-el to server l parties and is always "fin" for the ed to several parties, and is always "in" for the main chance. The nominations, altogether, are as good as could be expected, and excellently reflect the character of the Convention.—Concharacter of the Convention.-Co titutional Union.

C. Knox presided, and made a strirring address laudat y of Secretary Stanton. Morton Mc-Michael introduced the resolutions.—They are "fair in temper, but not half so warlike as the occasion demands. They suggest nothing and promise nothing. promise nothing.

We will publish a synopsis of the Tax

Rill as soon as possible; also the President's appeal to the Border State Congressmen and their reply.

Important from Corinth.

Withdrawal of General Halleck from the Command of the Son of the Southwest. COMNTH, July 16.—Gen. Halleck has just is-sued a special field order, saying that in giving up the immediate command of the troops con-stituting the army of the Southwest, he desires to express his high appreciation of the endu-rance, behaviour and soldierly conduct which they exhibited on all occasions, and to express to the commanders of the army corps and their subordinates the warmest thanks for their cor-dial co-operation. He says the soldiers who dial co-operation. He says the soldiers who so nobly did their duty, have accomplished much towards crushing this wicked rebellion, and if they continue to exhibit the same vigilance, courage and perseverance, will, it is lieved, soon bring the war to a close.

The War in the Indian Nation.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 17.-The correspon-ence of the Leavenworth Conservative says :-A recent battle in the Indian Nation between detachments of the Kansas regiments under Col. WEER and a force of Rebels, resulted in the WEER and a force of Kebels, resulted in the capture of 120 prisoners, a large number of horses and ponies, about 1500 head of cattle, 56 loaded mule teams, a large quantity of camp and garrison equipage and 50 stand of arms. Col. RITCHIE, who is in command of a regi-ment of loyal Indians, has reliable information that Chief Loux Bocs was shown to join the orthat Chief John Ross was about to join the ex-pedition with some 1500 warriors. Colonel SOLOMON, of the 10th Wisconsin, had also captured 40 prisoners, and 400 mounted Cherokee and Osage Indians had come into our camp with white flags and carrying their guns with their muzzles pointing downwards. About 250 nemuzzles pointing downwards. About 250 ne-groes belonging to Rebel half-breeds are now en route for Fort Scott.

The account of the rebel ram Arkansas. running down and scattering our gun-boate, at . Vicksburg, is confirmed.