PROSPECTUS OF "THE AGE," A National Democratic Newspaper. To be published Daily and Weekly in the City of Philadelphia, BY A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & CO. A. J. GLOSSBRENNER, F. J. GRUND, W. H. WELSH, Editors. 1863.

"The Age" will advocate the principles and policy of the Democratic party, and will, therefore, necessarily favor the restoration of the Union as it was, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and that of this Commonwealth. It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, including, of course, and pre-eminently at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country. It will fearlessly criticize the public acts of public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and of sovereign states against assaults from any quarter. It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sense of the actual condition of the Republic—to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magnitude of the task that is before them, if they would check our downward progress—and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply the remedy for our national ills. In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that party—the party of the Constitution and the Union—is power, in the legislative and executive governmental branches of the States and of the Union, we believe to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restoration will be our highest aim. The News, Literary, Commercial, and other departments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "The Age" worthy of the support of the general reader. The many difficulties now surrounding an enterprise of the magnitude of that in which the undersigned are engaged, require them to appeal to the public for a generous support, and to ask for "The Age" a liberal patronage and extended circulation. The present state of the preparatory arrangements warrants the expectation, that the first number of the Daily will appear before the close of the present month, (February, 1863.) The Weekly will be issued soon thereafter.

TERMS: WEEKLY: $2.00 Per annum, $6.00 Six months, 3.00 Three months, 1.50 Copies delivered at 10 copies 1 address 17.50 the counter, and to 25 cts 20 " " 32.00 Agents & Carriers, $5.00 Payment required invariably in advance. Address, A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & CO., 430 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. February 6, 1863—2 mo.
