

THE CRY OF "STOP THIEF."-The Abolition zed "Republicans" know that they deceived the people, when at the commencement of the war, they assured them that armies were not being raised for the abolishment of slavery, and that the war was to be waged only for the restoration of the Union. Hence, when the poor, lication. weary, diseased and worn out soldier deserts in order to visit his starving wife and children, these miserable political hucksters, (feeling that on them rests the blame for the discontent which caused him to leave the army) in order to screen their own guilt from public observation, raise the cry that the "Copperheads" and those whom they term "Secession Sympathizers," are the cause of desertion. But the people know that the Abolitionists alone are in the fault. They got men to enlist by telling them that they were not to fight to free the negro, but only for the Union. They have broken their word with those men and are now trying to compel them to fight for the freedom of the negro. That is the reason why there is so much desertion .-The cry of "stop thief!" will not do in this DOWNRIGHT FAISIFICATION,-The Abolition rgan around the corner tells a deliberate falsohood when it says that its party friends carried their whole ticket in East Providence tp., at the late Spring Elections, (with the exception of two Inspectors) "by a hundred and ten or twenty majority." The Abolition majority in that tp. has been cut down to 50 and 60 for the different township officers, whilst their inspectors have each, only five or six majority over the Democratic candidate. The highest Abolition vote Manu. polled was only 110, whilst the Democratic vote was 45, as large as is generally polled at State elections. The Organ also claims "loyal gains" in West Providence, Middle and South Woodbury and Union! It must mean Democratic gains, for in all of those townships the Democrats have done better than they have for years. Try another "load of poles," Wheelbarrow! This one is rather loose!

The House of Representatives at Harrisburg has passed a bill to prevent the immigration of negroes into this state. The same body has also passed resolutions protesting against the tyrannical and unconstitutional acts of the President of the United States. Of course neither of these movements will go through the Abolitionized Senate. The people of Pennsylvania will regenerate that branch of the legislature at the next election.

Our old friend E. M. Fisher, familiarly known as "Cheap John," is about to establish a general variety and shoe store, in the room recently occupied by J. B. > Letter from Little Berks. Cumberland Valley, March 30th, 1863.

I happened, by accident, one day last week, to obtain a copy of that precious illuminator of the "political horizon." yelept the Bedford Instance. ator of the "political horizon," yelept the Bedford Inquirer. After perusing a letter contained in said paper, purporting to have been writ-ten at "Camp Humphreys, near Falmouth, Va.," and filled with two columns of stuff and venom, I came to the conclusion that "John Smith" although known all over the universe—was no longer the great man of the great Smith family; for the name of the writer of that letter is Albert Smith, and he, surely, must be the great man of all the Smiths. Why, doesn't he look down with lofty disdain on Geo. B. McClellan and call him "Chuffy Mac?" And doesn't he call Democrats "Copperheads," and glorify the nigger and besmear Abe Lincoln with praise? And isn't that enough to make a great man of any body? But we here in the valley know Albert Smith to be a great man. He always was a great liar, a great slanderer, a great reporter of untruths for the Bedford Inquirer, a great know nothing, a great nigger-lover, a great "blowhorn" generally, and now, I doubt not, he is : great soldier, though some of his enemies do say that he "skulked" on a certain occasion when it was more for his bodily comfort to do so than to do what be ought to have done. Of course to do what he ought to have done. Of course, Albert doesn't get any pay for his fighting. Great men fight only for glory and for their equals—the niggers. As Albert is a great man, of course he considers you, Mr. Editor, only "a thing." I quote from his letter:

"Citizens of Bedford county, be careful how.

you handle 'that thing' in the 'Tory office,' which is a legislator inembryo. It will ruin your all such characters out of our legislative councils. Surely the boasted Democracy of Bedford county has not become so degenerate as to de-grade themselves and the party they represent by taking such men as their standard bearers-men who are dripping with rotten stench of treason—men whose every act has be port of treason at home and abroad. se every act has been in sup-

There you have it, Mr. Editor! Gen. Mc-Clellan is "Chuffy Mac," you are "a thing" and Albert Smith is a great man! I do hope, Mr. Editor, that you will not decline being a cancidate, merely to alleviate Albert's anxiety for the "boasted Democracy." True, he has al-ways been very anxious about the fate of that the "boasted Democracy." True, he has always been very anxious about the fate of that party, being one of the corporal's guard in this township, who have prayed for years to see its end, but still my dear sir, we can't always do every thing to please our friends. So you just stay on the track, let hypocrites howl on, and keep an eye single to Democracy and we'll show Albert Smith when the time comes, how much we'll take his advice or that of any other hare-brained Abolitionist.

Yours, EYE-OPENER.

The deceased was a native of Dublin, Ireland and was the eldest of the Fyan Family. In the year 1828, she came to this country, chiefly to console and alleviate in his exile, her venerable father, who was one of the first to inscribe his name on the roll of those noble patriots who joined their fortunes to the illustrious O'Connell, in the beginning of his career. The deceased lady was distinguished for piety, charity and for all the virtues which mark the course of the truly righteous in the church of God. She was extremely generous and liberal to the poor. She exhibited the greatest zeal in adorning the House of God. She was a true mem-ber of the Roman Catholic Church, received in her illness all its rites and consolations and fully corresponded to all the hopes of her noble race. Her remains according to her request, were brought down from Harman's Bottom, and consigned to their long home in the Cath-olic Cemetery of Bedford by her sorrowing brothers Robert and Lewis Fyan accompanied by a vast multitude of sympathizing relations, friends and well wishers.
