

Rhode Island Election.

The Abolitionists have carried the little State of Rhode Island by a largely decreased majority. In 1860 the majority for Lincoln was nearly 5000; now, the Democratic candidate for Gov. is beaten about 3000. This is a gratifying gain, but the Democratic increase is not sufficient to justify us in hoping that this little patch on the seat of Uncle Sam's breeches, will ever assume any other political hue than the jet black which it has sported ever since the time of the Dorr rebellion.

Abolition Electioneering.

If Abraham Lincoln and his minions were half as active and energetic in prosecuting the war against the rebellion as they are in carrying on political campaigns, they would long ere this have broken that of eternal, the "backbone of Secession." But they are mild and tender in their dealings with rebels in arms, compared with their warfare upon the Constitution-loving and secession-and-abolition-hating "Copperheads." In their estimation it is much more important to defeat the Democrats at the polls than the traitors on the field of battle.

Dear Sirs.

I have come in possession of facts this morning, which are enough to make the heart of every patriot burst with indignation, and honest men to bow their heads in humiliation, to know that fellow men will stoop to deeds so low.

Dr. Storrs, of this hospital, has been busy for a few days past, in ascertaining who of the soldiers in this hospital could be bought to go home and vote against Gov. Seymour. Their souls were found (I speak it to their shame), Others I am happy to say, could not be bought even with the tempting offer of a twenty day furlough and their expenses paid.

Many good and faithful soldiers, who have served our Government honestly from the commencement of this rebellion, are refused when a father, mother, wife, brother or sister lies upon a death-bed. To what a depth of infamy will not the tricksters of a death-struggling party go.

There is a devil of a time here. Furloughs are granted to those that vote for Beckinghaus, but not one for Seymour! Ten are allowed to go from each company. Look out for those who have no right to vote.—Cor. Hartford Times.

FIVE-TWENTY U. S. LOAN.—We insert an advertisement in our paper of to-day, by Reed and Schell, of this place, as subscription Agents of this loan, which will afford farmers and others a good opportunity to make safe and profitable investments.

Bedford Democratic Club.

The Bedford Democratic Club met in the Court House on Saturday evening, April 4th, 1863. The President called the House to order. The minutes of the former meeting were read and approved. On motion the Constitution was read, and thirty-seven voters came forward and signed it.

The meeting was then addressed by Col. J. W. Tate, Dr. John Compher, and Wm. Lyon, Esq. A committee consisting of Dr. J. Compher, John Palmer and B. F. Meyers, Esqs, was appointed by the President, for the purpose of procuring speakers to address the Club.

On motion the Club adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, the 24th of May, 1863. ISAAC MENGEL, President. E. P. GERRY, Secretary.

An Infamous Order.

Whilst the Abolitionists are using every effort to corrupt the political sentiments of the soldiers, bringing them to turn against the Democrats by promises of promotion and by granting them voting furloughs, it seems that no Democratic officer is to be permitted even to furnish his men with tickets. The Army is a field of operations which Abolition politicians mean to cultivate exclusively, and no Democrat is to be allowed to "put his nose in there." We are for equal rights in the Army, as well as everywhere else, and our Democratic soldiers must and shall have the right to vote their sentiments. The following order should meet the condemnation of every American citizen who has any respect for his birth-right and should consign to lasting infamy the men who dared to make it.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, Mar. 13, 1863. SPECIAL ORDERS No. 19.

34. By direction of the President, the following named officer is hereby dismissed from the service of the United States: Lieutenant A. J. Edgerly, 4th New Hampshire Volunteers, for circulating "Copperhead Tickets," and doing all in his power to promote the success of the rebel cause in his state.

By order of the Secretary of War, J. THOMAS, Adj. General.

Gov. Tod, of Ohio, has been arrested for kidnapping Dr. Olds, of that State. The Grand Jury of Fairfield county, found a true bill against the Governor, and he was required to give bail for his appearance at the next term of Court. Thank God! the spirit of freemen has yet a dwelling place in one county of the terror-ridden North.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—Rev. B. H. Hunt will deliver a lecture before the Teachers' Institute on Friday evening, 10th inst. The public are invited to attend.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The Senate of the United States, devoutly recognized the Supreme Authority and just Government of Almighty God, in all the affairs of men and nations, has by a resolution, requested the President to designate and set apart a day of National prayer and humiliation.

And whereas, It is the duty of nations as well as of men, to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord.

And, inasmuch as we know that, by His divine law, nations, like individuals, are subject to punishments and chastisements in this world, may not justly be supposed to be exempt from the penalties of civil war, which now desolates the land, may be a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole people!

We have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom or virtue of our own.

Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us!

It behooves us, then, to humble ourselves before the offended power, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness.

Now, therefore, in compliance with the request and fully concurring in the views of the Senate, I do, by this my proclamation, designate and set apart Thursday, the 30th day of April, 1863, as a day of national humiliation, fasting and prayer. And I do hereby request all the people to abstain on that day from their ordinary secular pursuits, and to unite at their several places of public worship and their respective homes, in keeping the day holy to the Lord, and devoted to the humble discharge of the religious duties proper to that solemn occasion.

All this being done, in sincerity and truth, let us then rest humbly in the hope, authorized by the Divine teachings, that the united cry of the nation will be heard on high, and answered with blessings, no less than the pardon of our national sins, and restoration of our now divided and suffering country to its former happy condition of unity and peace.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this thirtieth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN. By the President: WILLIAM K. SHAWARD, Secretary of State.

A Great Statesman Speaking to the People—Alexander Hamilton on Coercion and Civil War.

The following is an extract from a speech delivered in 1783 of that great statesman and true patriot, Alexander Hamilton, in the Convention that was held in the State of New York, for the ratification of the Constitution of the United States. It will be remembered that Hamilton was also a member of the Convention which framed the Constitution.

"The States can never lose their powers till the whole people of America are robbed of their liberties. These must go together. They must support each other or most a common fate. I wish the committee to remember that the Constitution under examination is framed upon truly Republican principles, and that, as it is expressly designed for a common protection and the general welfare of the United States, it must be utterly repugnant to this Constitution to subvert the State Governments or oppress the people. The coercion of States is one of the maddest projects that was ever devised. A failure of compliance will never be confined to a single State. This being the case, can we suppose it wise to hazard a civil war? It would be a nation at war with itself. Can any reasonable man be well disposed towards a Government that makes war and carries the only means of supporting itself—a Government that can exist only by the sword? Every such war must involve the innocent with the guilty. This single consideration should not be inefficient to dispose every peaceable citizen against such Government.

Important From South Carolina.

The Attack on Charleston—Our Troop Landed on John's Island—Skirmishing Commenced—Rebel Pickets Driven In. FORTRESS MONROE, April 5.—Yesterday's Richmond Dispatch says that Pensacola was fired by the Union soldiers about the 23d ult. and most of the town destroyed. The soldiers are going to reinforce Gen. Banks.

STIRRING NEWS FROM SOUTH CAROLINA. The enemy have landed in force on Seabrook or John's Island. Five gunboats and several transports are lying off the island. Skirmishing has already taken place between ours and the enemies' pickets. Our pickets are driven in, and the Federals are advancing.

General Hagood has ordered all the women and children and non-combatants removed from Adams Run, which is twenty miles from Seabrook Island.

CINCINNATI, April 4.—Passengers who arrived at Cairo yesterday, state that the late movement on Haines' bluff was a failure. The fleet and transports had returned to Young's Point. Gen. Grant succeeded in placing a battery of 84-pounder Parrotts beyond the levee in a position to easily reach Vicksburg, and was about to open the bombardment.

A PEACE PARTY IN THE SOUTH. Among the Southern items of news received, is one reporting the formation of a peace party, headed by Henry S. Foote, Alexander Massey, editor of the Richmond Whig, and others. Resolutions on the subject will probably pass the lower House of Congress before the adjournment. It is said that the course of the Richmond Enquirer is disapproved of by many of the leading men of Congress.

The Chestnutnut Rebel says a blow will be struck before June, which will unfetter the long manacled State of Kentucky.

Reports from Columbus say that a force of 700 rebels was discovered yesterday, marching towards Hickman, with the intention of taking that place. Gen. Asboth started down this morning with 600 men, and a large force is ready to leave at a moment's notice.

SHANNON.—In Bedford, on the 2d inst., Binnie Benedict, second daughter of Oliver and Ginne Shannon, aged about 5 years.

In the death of this interesting child, we have another evidence of the uncertainty of life, a few short days changed her from the brightness and bloom of health, to a lifeless and inanimate corpse. The lovely bud has been transplanted from Earth to bloom amongst the roses of Heaven; but those endearing little epithets with which she was wont to address those she loved, are engraven upon the hearts of many, who will hold her in sweet remembrance. That youthful mind had already, by parental love, been impressed with the truths of our holy religion—and that infant voice, taught to sing the praises of her Saviour. Amidst all her sufferings she sweetly sang "I want to be an angel," and exclaimed: "Mamma, dear, I am going to God." Deeply do those fond stricken parents feel this to be a harsh word, when affection knows no place to treasure up its loved one's but the cold grave—they have the condolence of many kind friends, but their sorrow is too deep for any but God to lift. He has seen fit in His inscrutable Providence to send the affliction, and will also pour the oil of consolation into their troubled hearts. Little Binnie is now being taught in the school of Heaven, with little companions who had gone before, to sing in sweeter, louder strains, the love of that Saviour who took little children in His arms and blessed them.

"She cannot come unto you, but ye can go unto her." SUE.
