Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoefland's German Bitters, (purely vegatable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrappides adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachies and Bitters.

Bewere of the immerable array of Alcobolic preparations in plethorth bottless and big bellied keep under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing, only againstife disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for transpy years, under the impression that they were cheied, an alcoholic mixture. I am included to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from rows and ong continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of this prejudical to a degree of bodily and mental algor which I had not felt for aix months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore them God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

Dr. Jacosch.—Bran Sin test dares been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as ent of my appropriate sphere; I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for sealers depicted to the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and variously I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully.

Germantown, June 1, 1861.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Sig:—It gave me pleasure two years ago, to give you a certificate, featfying what the German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly cured of all those diseases your medicine professes to cure, viz:—Dyspepsis, Chronic and Nervous debility, diseases of the Kidneys, &c. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently, in reference to your litters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above companiate, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great rejudation in Germantown and is now sold in every Drug store, and in most of the Grocery stores have. If any one should question what I say, let them come id Germantown, and a will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity and e than twenty cases of the above disease. Respectfully,

Main st., above Rittehhouse, Germantown, I.
