Abolition Meeting.

The Abolition gathering on Tuesday night as compared with the Democratic Mass Convention on Monday evening, was small in numbers and spiritless in feeling. About one half of the meeting was composed of Democrats who were curious to know what the speakers could have to say in defense of the misrule, iniquity and crime of which every body knows the Abolition leaders to be guilty. The remainder was composed of Abolitionized Republicans, with African descent," the aroma of whose presence sweetest of smells and produced that soothing effect upon the nerves of the adherents of Abraham, which nothing but the close propinquity of the negro can have upon the delicate sensibilities of a modern "Republican." This latter portion of the audience had been gathered together by the profuse circulation of lying hand-tails, in which it was announced that Governor Curtin and John Scott, of Huntingdon, would be present at and address the meeting. Neither the Governor nor the immaculate John made their appearance, and the crowd was compelled to be bored by a spread eagle speech from P. C. Shannon, of Pittsburg, and a rehash of the stale lies concerning Ex-President Buchanan, about "six miles long," by Mr. John G. Miles, from Huntingdon. A man by the name of Wilkeson, of Woodberry, also attempted to speak, but broke down after uttering the blasphemous comparison of the power of Abe Lincoln in "resurrecting the country" to that of the Saviour in raising Lazarus.

P. C. Shannon, the first speaker, is an apos his principles for the prospect of political preferment. He was elected, last year, to the Legislature, by the Abolitionists of Allegheny county, but this year failed to obtain a re-nomd also missed his mark in his effort to secure the Abolition nomination for Supreme Judge. And, now, he is reduced so low, politifor Abolitionism. This same Mr. Shannon deelared in the Democratic State Convention of February 22d, 1861, that "much must the Republican party answer for before the Court of Heaven and at the bar of the civilized world, for its birth found us in peace and fraternity, whilst the few years of its existence. have brought us to the verge of destruction, to the edge of the yawning abyss which swallows hope, concord, peace and Union:" and also, in the same speech, that "internal force is not suited to the genius of our people, nor is it an element of our organization." A pretty fellow, truly, to bring before the people of Bedford county to defend "Republicanism" and preach coercion or "internal force !" The meeting wound up by the Berlin Demoeratic Band, accompanied by a large crowd, serenading Messrs. Meyers, Hartley, Schell, Shannon, Davis, Farquhar, and other Demo erats, a fit finale to this grand Abolition fizzle.

DEMOCRACY! 3,000 PEOPLE IN COUNCIL! Abclitionism Thunder-stricken!

GRAND MASS CONVENTION

OF THE

Flags, Music, Speeches, Bonfires and Intense Enthusiasm!

The Union and the Constitution! Woodward, Lowrie, and Liberty ! !

The largest meeting of the people held in Bedord since 1844, was held by the Democracy in the public square on Monday evening last. The vast concourse began to gather into the town early in the forenoon and continued increasing till evening, when a large delegation from the Western end of the county, with flags flying, headed by the Berlin Brass Band, filed in, and afterwards another delegation from the Eastern part of the county, swelled the multitude to still greater numbers. The whole town was literally alive with people. The square in front and on both sides of the stand was jammed, and Juliana street, as far North as the Mengel House, was blocked up so as to be almost impassable. The stand was beautifully decorated with wreaths of evergreens and festooned with the national flag. In front, in large letters, were the mottoes, "The Union and the Constitution," and "Woodward, Lowrie and Liberty," while in the centre hung the portrait of the father of his country, George Washington. The scene around was lit up by bonfires and blazing pine knots, presenting a most magnificent spectacle. The presence of the ladies, with flags and badges, enlivened and beautified the scene and every thing "went merry as a marriage bell." The meeting was called to order by John P. Reed, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic County Committee

On motion, WM. KEYSER, Esq., of Juniata township, was called to the chair, and the following named gentlemen were elected vice presidents:

Michael Wertz, Samuel W. Miller, Benjamin Henderson, Samuel Reighard, John Sill, Geo. Mardorf, Philip J. Shoemaker, Adam Zembow-er, Amos Collins, Baltzer Fletcher, Peter Koons, George Smouse, Dr. F. C. Doyle, Wm. Mellon, Thomas W. Horton, John Fulton, Wm. Gorsuch, Wm. Pearson. Aaron Reed, Emanue Statler, Geo. W. Horn, Danl J. Miller.

The following were appointed secretaries: Jacob Semler, Jeremiah E. Black, Wm. Gillespie, Dr. S. G. Statler, Philip G. Morgart, J. L. Barton, M. A. Points.

Hon. CHARLES W. CARRIGAN, of Philadelphia, was then introduced to the meeting, and addressed the vast assemblage in a speech the exception of about fifty "free Americans of of great eloquence and power, dissecting and exposing the administration of Mr. Lincoln and regaled the nostrils of the negro-lovers with the holding up to the scorn and contempt of the people, the miserable shifts and frauds and tricks of the leaders of the party who counsel and sustain Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Carrigan was listened to with the most profound attention and was interrupted with frequent outbursts of the most Col. J. ROSS SNOWDEN, formerly the able and popular Director of the Mint at Philadelphia, was the next speaker. He delivered a logical, argumentative and most impressive speech. He declared it his belief that the only hope of the country was in the Democratic party, and that the Abolitionists, who are now trying to elevate the negro to social and political equality with the white man, if permitted to acceed in their fanatical projects, would bring ruin and desolation upon our country.

JOHN P. O'NEILL, Esq., of the Philadelphia Bar, was then introduced to the meeting. The speech of Mr. O'Neill abounded in passages of great eloquence and beauty and held his audience rapt and spell-bound to the end.

It was truly a splendid effort and will long be tate from the Democratic faith, having bartered remembered and admired by those who had the good fortune to hear it. Mr. O'Neill retired amid loud and prolonged cheering.

W. J. BAER, Esq., the Democratic nominee for Senator, was then called out and delivered one of the clearest and most argumentative ad- Jas. Wigle, Moses McIlwaine, S. Defibaugh, dresses to which we have ever listened. The Democracy, as they listened to Mr. Baer, had Vice Presidents, and H. C. Reamer, Isnac D. eally, that he goes about doing the dirty work great reason to feel proud of their nominee and they fully evinced that they did so by their loud and repeated shouts of applause. Mr. Baer also spoke in German, in which he acquitted himself equally well.

first departure from Democratic principles and policy, has involved us in a dreadful civil war, policy, policy, has involved us in a dreadful even war, plunged our once happy country into desolation and heaped debt and taxation upon the people, we appeal to every reasonable and unprejudiced man to unite himself to that party, that thro' its restoration to power, what remains of our beloved land may be saved. And we hold the Demographic take and the save in faithful to be save Democrat who now proves unfaithful to his sa-cred trust, who, in the face of the iniquity and have wrought, apostatizes from his political faith, as a traitor to be shunned and despised as ano-ther Arnold, willing to sell his country and his.

liberty for office or for gain. 5. That whereas it is rumored that the free dom of the ballot-box is to be interfered with at the coming election, by the presence of armed men, we now declare that inasmuch as such interference would be in direct violation of the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of our own State, we are determined, at all hazards, to preserve inviolate the elective franchise, "peacefully if we can, forcibly if we must."

That we will sustain the Government of the United States in its legitimate authority and that we will approve the administration of the Executive Branch of that Government by Mr. Lincoln, when he is right, and condemn it when it is wrong. 7. That we reiterate our condemnation of the Emancipation proclamation, the Confisca-tion Act, and the remaining radical measures of the present Administration, regarding them as insuperable obstacles in the way of a successful termination of the war and the restoration of the Union. 8. That we condemn and denounce the co duct of Gov. Curtin, and his officials in their well known frauds upon the soldiers in foisting upon them rotten clothing, and we regard the electioneering of the Governor on the ground that he is the special friend of the soldiers, as

"adding insult to injury." 9. That we sympathize with the gallant sol-diers of our army in their sufferings and priva-tions undergone in the camp, the field and the hospital, that we repel with indignation and scorn the imputation upon the Democracy that they are not the friends of the soldiers, repre-sented as they are in the army by more than half its numbers; and that within their appropriate sphere, as set forth by George Washing-ton, the sphere of "agents of the civil power," we are their true, hearty, and unwavering frienda

10. That we endorse most heartily and emphatically the nominations of Hon. George W. Woodward, for Governor, and Hon. Walter H. Lowrie, for Supreme Judge, and that we will use every honorable effort to secure their trium-phant election. John Palmer, Esq., offered the following res olutions, which were also unanimously adopted : Resolved, That we cordially and enthuliastically ratify and support the Democratic District and County nonhations, from Sentor to Au-ditor, and hereby call upon every man calling himself a Democrat, to hay aside all personal prejudices and every side issue and go to work with a will for the success of the ticket.

Resolved, That we endorse and rejoice at the hold and independent course of the organ of the Democratic party, of this county, the "Bedford Democratic party, of this county, the Gazette," and call upon every true Democrat to rally around its editor in the fierce conflict now being waged against him by the enemies of the party and of the country.

During the speech of Mr. Carrigan, Abolition blackguard for the want of any st-ter reply to the home thrusts of the speaker, threw an egg upon the Stage. A dash wa made by a portion of the meeting upon the quarter whence the offensive object was thrown, and a general Abolition stampede was the result. No more eggs were thrown after that .--Just before the reading of the resolutions, a number of impetuous Democrats rushed upon the stand, causing the flooring to give way. No one, however, was hurt and the proceedings were interrupted for but a moment. After resolutions of thanks to the speakers and the Band, the meeting adjourned with loud and prolonged cheering for the Union and the Constitution Woodward and Lowrie and the whole Democratic Ticket.

The Democracy may truly be proud of him. Mr. B. was on a visit to this county on Monday last, but was called home by the death of a relative. He will, however, visit us again.

The Abolition leaders blowed lustily a few days prior to their meeting, about a large delegation they expected from Cumberland Valley Well, Tuesday evening came and with it the delegation, composed of the Abolition Post Master who pulled down the stars and stripes in his office, when he heard the rebels were noming. together with two other men, and one dog .--"Uncle Jake" had better try it again.

Remember

That the Bedford Inquirer, the organ of the Abolitionists in this county, recently declared that "of course" it is "opposed to the old Union." This is the doctrine of the Abolitionists every where. They don't want the Union restored. Reason-the negroes, in that case, would not be placed on an equality with white men. What do sincere advocates of the "war for the Union," think of this? Can they support such a party ?

TIVE MEN FOR BUSINESS-Owing to the change caused by the war, there exists throughout the country a most wonderful demand for competent and skillful Book-keepers, Clerks, &c. So great is this demand that notwithstanding the number of Students at the Iron City College, during the past year, it has not bee supply the calls made upon it for Book-keepers and clerks. Young men contemplating a prepattion for business, which this year promises to be more active than usual, shoud avail themselves at once of the advantages afforded by his popular institution, and prepare themselves for fall and winter business.

I think not. But let us see what is the creed Deniel Ecans John F Snider Stephen Snider Geo W Miller Jacob Karns John Adams Amos Furney Hiram Roberson Phylus J Shaw Jacob of Democrats. ## Berlin Brass Band.

This excellent and accomplished band of musicians, was in attendance at the Democratic Mass Convention in this place, on Monday evening last, and remained in our midst until Thursday morning. The citizens of Bedford will long remember with pleasure, the visit of these gal-lant "Frosty Sons of Thunder." We have heard many bands in the castern cities, whose playing was inferior to that of our Berlin friends and we can assure them that their performances niversally praised and appreciated. Long may they wave

In the intervals between the speeches, the Berlin Brass Band discoursed most excellent music. This band-is entirely Democratic, not a single Abolitionist belonging to it.

B. F. Meyers then read the following resolu ions which were unanimously adopted:

2. That we reiterate our oft repeated pledges to support the Constitution of the United States, to uphold and defend it against any enemy, whether Secessionist or Abolitionist, whether sworn official or private citizen, esteeming it the only bond of that Union which was established h Washington and his illustrious compeers and to restore which to its original status, we solemnly declare our willingness to make every sacrifice that can be required at the hands of patriots. 3. That we deem it our sacred duty to oppose and expose the chicanery and fraud upon the Union sentiment of the country, about being perpetrated by those miserable political misreants who are attempting in the name of the conducted the country affety through every trial, from the administration of Thomas Jefferson to that of James Buchandu, and innsmuch as the

The meeting was ably and eloquently address od by Hon, A. H. Coffroth and Col. J. D. Roddy, of Somerset, and E. W. Miller, Esq., of Ohio. Short speeches were also made by Messrs.

Meyers, Shannon and Palmer. A large number of ladies graced the occasion with their presence and the Berlin Band discoursed most charming music. The meeting adjourned with cheers for the Union, the Constitution, Woodward, Lowrie, and the whole Democratic Ticket.
