Soldiers,

Read the decision of Judge Woodward, on the first page of this paper, exempting your property from execution while serving in the army of the United States. Does this not show more real friendship for you than all the speeches and puffing of Shoddy Curtin?

The Huntingdon Globe revives the speech attributed to Judge Woodward when a member of the Constitutional Convention. on the subject of preventing foreigners from acquiring the right of suffrage. The editor of the Globe knows that Judge Woodward has declared, time and again, that he never made any such speech, that it does not appear on the journals of the Convention, and that it was manufactured by a partizan reporter who inserted it in his report of the debates in that Convention, without Judge Woodward's knowledge or consent. The Globe will have enough to do to clear up Curtin's record in regard to the naturaliza tion of foreigners. to some quiriest in

Political Jonahs

Democracy means the government of the people. It is the antithesis of autocracy. It is the will of the many as opposed to the dictation of one man. Democracy is the natural freedom of man restrained by such laws as a majority of the people by themselves or their agents have adopted. Democracy is pure, because it is the out-gushing of the popular heart. Democracy is just, because it is the bulwark of law. De mocracy is humane, because it is the sentimer of the people out-breathed for the happiness and welfare of the majority. Therefore, when a man is found who claims to be a Democrat and yet is in favor of arbitrary arrests (the dictation of one man as against the laws of the country, which are the enacted will of the people) who prefers the autocracy of a so-styled President that tramples Constitutions and laws under his feet, who approves of the inhumanity and barbarism suggested and tacitly endorsed by Abraham Lincoln, that man is no Democrat, but would be a Jacobin were he not a monarchist. Such a man has forfeited every claim he ever had to be styled a Democrat. Well may he smile at all the crimes and abominations of those whom once he counted political enemies. Well may he clap his hands and rejoice when he hears of American citizens exiled for opinion's sake, of white men lashed senseless at the whippingpost, of true and patriotic men languishing in the foul air of Bastile dungeons. Well may he look forward with fiendish hope to a Southern San Domingo, and well may he approve and apologize for all the monstrosities of the present Administration. He has forsaken his ancient faith. He has abandoned his former principles. He is a Jonah in the ship and must be cast out. Overboard with him! A little splash and he will disappear forever, whilst the grand old barque Democracy will glide on over the spot at which he sunk, with sails full set for the haven of success, caring not if the Abolition whale swallows him and spews him out on the rocks of the Dry

Democrats, to Work!

It is now but little more than four weeks till election-day. The time is close at hand when the people of this State must decide for weal or woe, not only their own political and civic interests, but the destiny of the nation itself. The stake is one of fearful magnitude. It is nothing less than Constitutional Liberty—the great immunity for which the Revolution was fought and which has made America the land of greatness and glory. Oh! who would not strive to maintain this sacred legacy bequeathed to us by posterity! Democrats, it is your duty to preserve intact this Magna Charta of American citizenship. By all that you hold dear, we adjure you to discharge that duty. The eyes of the civilized world are upon you and the Sclavonic nations of Europe hold their breath and tremble as they think that the political issue in Ameri-HAMILTON STATION, Hopewell tp., Friday, ca is now between a despotism like that which bent 2 co. binds them in chains, and the people of the North, who, like they, are struggling to regain their freedom. Oh! men of Pennsylvania! now is the day and now is the hour to strike home for liberty. Dally a little longer and your hands will be tied behind your backs. Slumber a few days more and your only weapon, the ballot, will be wrested from you forever. Why, then, your apathy? Up, NOW, and at them! Organize, NOW! Lose not a moment! Wait not for the morrow-treacherous to-morrow TO-DAY is the accepted time. Arouse, therefore, and begin the work. Form clubs and associations, circulate documents, reason with your neighbors, and leave nothing undone that ought to be done to insure the success of our cause.

That the Bedford Inquirer, the organ of the Abolitionists in this county, recently declared that "of course" it is "opposed to the old Union." This is the doctrine of the Abolitionists every where. They don't want the Union restored. do sincere advocates of the "war for the Union," think of this? Can they support such a party?

NCRMAL SCHOOL .- About seventy-five teachrs are now in attendance at the Normal School LIAR. in this place. This is doing well, but there are at least fifty more who could and should be here. J. P. Wickersham, Principal of the Millersville Normal School, and Edward Brooks, Professor of Mathematics in the same institution, are to deliver courses of lectures to the school. Here is a rare chance for our teachers to profit by the instruction of the ablest educators in the State.

At least one hundred should be here during the remaining six weeks of the session.

Base Trickery.
There are some things about the manage nent of the Conscription in this State that look to us like the basest kind of political trickery. For instance, the drafted men of Somerset county are not required to report till after the election, while those of our own county are notified to appear at Chambersburg before the election. In Lancaster county the Board of Enrollment grant certificates of exemption for 3 years to those paying $300, whilst the Abolitionists here are trying to make people believe that the payment of the $300 will exempt for but the present draft. No draft has yet been made at all in Bradford and Tioga counties, which are strongly Abolition. Will the people endorse this villany by voting the Administration ticket? Will honest "Republicans" consent that their neighbors shall thus be tricked out of their rights? We shall see.

Late Elections. Vermont, which the Democracy have never carried, gives a Democratic gain over last year's vote of about 3,000. The Demo crats also gain 2 Senators and about a doz en representatives. California, which last year gave 30,000 against us, is reported at 15,000 for the Abolition candidate for Governor, but there has been an ominous silence on the part of the telegraph since the day after the election, which indicates the success of the Democracy. Wilmington, (Del.,) gives us a gain of about 400 over by about 650. Cairo, (Ill.,) has gone Democratic. Maine will vote in a few days, but the Democracy have nothing to expect from that Abolition stronghold.

Will They Go?

A number of the bawling negro-worshippers in this place have received invitations from their Magnus Apollo, Abraham Lincoln, to attend his balls on the Rappahannock and at Charleston. They will certainly not it be at the bidding of Abraham Lincoln? be so "disloyal" as to refuse to go. They surely won't "commute," or stand back on ecount of a little rheumatism. "Copperheads" might do that, for nothing else can be expected of them, but "loyal men," the V. V's. of Bedford, the "galliant Valiantines," can never be guilty of such baseness and treason as to decline Abraham's ticket.

A Solid Shot This Time.

olitionists are now busy begging Democratic votes for their candidates. a Democrat in the county who has not been stigmatized as a "Secessionist" or a "Copperhead" or a "Tory," and the Abolitionists will find out on the second Tuesday of October that this fact will be remembered .-Democrats can't "split" nor "scratch" this time, to accommodate men who want them hanged. Every Democrat in Bedford county will fire a SOLID SHOT-a whole, pure, unadulterated, unscratched ticket—at his Abolition foe, at the next election. Mark that!

Be Democrats, be assessed. Go to the Assessor for your district at once and have your name entered on the list of voters.—Remember, you must be assessed ten days prior to the election, unless you have paid a State or County tax within two years, for which you have a receipt or to which you are a willing to be qualified. The following which we copy from the Journ al of Commerce of July 1861, will serve to show who is the author of the present war policy of the Administration: The people of the Union are now asked to endorse the mad scheme of Gerrit Smith, who became a lunatic when his connection with the John Brown conspiracy came to light. How can any Democrat, nay how can any sensible white man be willing to adopt the doctrine of Gerrit Smith, even though

GERRIT SMITH'S PLAN FOR TERMINATING THE WAR.—In a letter to Hon. Owen Lovejoy, member of Congress from Illinois, dated 13th inst., Gerrit Smith proposes the following plan of operations for the further prosecution of the of operations for the further prosecution of the war against the South:—

The liberation of the slaves has obviously become one of the necessities and therefore one of the rights of the country. Let the President. in his capacity of Commander of the Army, proclaim such liberation, and the war would end in thirty days. The South, beside that she would, when her millions of chattels are transagainst, would, when her millions of chattels are transagainst, would, when her control $8. Reht have nothing left to fight for. Our Army, in the event of the President's Proclamation, would be already large enough. There would then be no squeamishness about letting ten or fifteen hack regiments were Southwestern for the state of the be no squeamishness about letting ten or fifteen black regiments move Southward from Canada and the Northern States: and with that most attractive and efficient help many of our white regiments might be left "stand still and see the salvation of the Lord."

That the President is authorized to liberate the slaves, is as clear as that he may, when judging there is military necessity for it, order the destruction of all the rail roads in the Slave States. But it will be said that, on the return of Peace, the Government would provide payment for the rail roads. So could it for the naturalized citizen, have your papers ready dle with nothing at this Session beyond the war question. But utterly absurd is the infer ence of many that it must not therefore meddle with the slave question. The slave question is the war question. The war began in Slavery, and it will end but with slavery.

Unceasing, both penwise, and lipwise I am asked what the Abolitionists should do. I answer that the one present work of both Abolitionists and Anti-Abolitionists is to put down the Re bellion: and that, as the most reasonable, hope ful and demanded means to this end, both Abolitionists and Anti-Abolitionists should peti-tion the President to proclaim the liberty of the slaves. Your friend, GERRIT SMITH.

Geo. W. Householder, of this township, is a candidate for the honorable and responsible position of State Senator. We, who know him timately, are well aware how unfit he is for the place. But it is unnecessary for me to speak concerning his unfitness, as he will de-monstrate that sufficiently when he attempts to monstrate that sufficiently when he attempts to canvass by public speeches, as I presume he will. I will at present only refer to a little incident in the legislative history of George when a member of the House of Representatives. It will be remembered that George was returned to the House as elected in 1861, and that ed to the House as elected in 1861, and that he took a seat in that body, but was ousted by Hon. John Cessna who contested his seat. The House composed of a majority of "Republicans," decided that George was not entitled to the seat he occupied and that he held it wrongfully. But in order to heal the bruises of "poor Yor-But in order to heat the bruises of "poor for ick" recieved in the hard fall which they had just given him these "Republican" friends of economy, passed a resolution authorizing the State Treasurer to pay George W. [See Pamphlet Laws of 1862. page 544] George had served just 10 days and for this 10 days' service, he took out of the State Treasury, or rather out of the people's pockets just TWO HUNDRED AND SIXTY DOLLARS! and this for occupying a seat his own political friends decided did not belong to him. How can any honest voter cast his ballot for a man who will thus reach his arm into the public coffers up to the very elbows? Twenty one dollars a day! while ther members—the real bona fide members—recieved but seven! Does Mr. Householder intend to carry out this principle of tripling his lawful salary, should he get into the Senate? He may promise and pledge economy, but so he did when he was a candidate for the Legislature. We intend voting for W. J. Baer, against whose political and personal honesty, no the person seeking to be exempt and of two respectable men, theads of families residing in the district, that the man in question is "the only son lable to military duty of a vidou of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent on his tabor for support," "the only son table to military duty of a vidou of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent on his tabor for support, on the person seeking to be exempt carried and of two respectable men, theads of families residing in the district, that the man in question is "the only son lable to military duty of a vidou of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent on his tabor for support," or the only son table to military duty of a vidou of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent on his tabor for support, or other wise, according to the person seeking to the action of the person seeking to the action of two respectable men, theads of families residue in the district, that the man in question is "the only son lable to military duty of a vidou." CUMBERLAND VALLEY, Sept. 8th.

MR. EDITOR:

I crave your indulgence for the insertion of these few lines. The Abolitionists of this place, have been checked in their boasting about their growing strength, since their grand failure in getting up that "great delegation," which they had promised Wheelbarrow, would be sent from here to the Abolition meeting at Bedford. That delegation was to be composed of Democrats whom they claimed to have converted to the worship of their ebony idol. A host of fleddling Abolitionists was expected to verted to the worship of their ebony idol. A host of fledgling Abolitionists was expected to swarm at the clucking of the old hen that by some means has got to scratching for the offal of office in the Abolition muckheap. But lo! the delegation was composed of poor old Dog Tray and his three faithful followers.—

And, now fellow Democrats of Cumberland Valley, a few words with you in all truth and coherence. Our Government is based upon the soberness. Our Government is based upon the cardinal idea of Democratic freedom. It was administered by the great Washington in accordance with Democratic principles. But when the people placed the baton of office in the hands of John Adams, the Federalist, who behands of John Adams, the receraist, who be-lieved in a centralized government and the fal-lacy that "the king can do no wrong," the rights and liberties of the people were trampled under foot. Under Adams' Administration. a pliant Congress carried out the Executives' schemes, passed the Alien and Sedition laws under which nen were seized and cast into prison, without judge or jury and there kept confined, for no other reason than that they chose to condemn the tyrannous acts of Adams' self-established despotism. Then it was that the Democrats, under the lead of Thomas Jefferson formed themselves into a great party and at the end of John Adams' four years hurled him from the throne which his imagination had erected. From that time until 1824, the reins of government were held by democrats. With jealous care they guarded the citadel of American liberty and suffered not one jot or tittle of the Constitution—that sacred inst rument—to be sacrififted to any law of necessity. But again the federal monarchists succeeded to power in the election of John Q. Adams, and petitions for the dissolution of the Union as well as schemes for the centralization of power in the Execu-tive, were the order of the day. Once more the Democracy, with Jackson for their leader, rallied to the rescue of the Constitution, and saved it from the grasp of its enemies. saved triving the grass of its temple of liberty great revenuesain be imperiled. But loft to rocking the foundations of our Union and deluging the land with blood, was given to the country by the announcement that "this Union cannot continue to exist half free and half slave!" This announcement was made by Abraham Lincoln now President who is now not only Lincoln now President who is now not only imprisoning people of the "loyal states," without judge or jury as John Adams did, but is dictating to the States that they must change their Constitutions so as to exclude negro slavetheir Constitutions so as to exclude negro slave-ry before they can be re-admitted into the U-nion. Our rights and privileges are assailed, the sovereignty of the States destroyed, the tri-al by jury, the hierty of the press, freedom of speech, all our immunities and franchises placed in jeopardy. Then all ye that love freedom ral-ly now as did the followers of Jefferson and Juckson of old around the Document. Jackson of old, around the Democratic banner. You cannot be blind to the plottings of the fac-tion which has usurped your liberties, nor deaf to the groans of those who are writhing in the agonies of the death with which this horrible war is blighting youth and blasting manhood. The wife who mourns her husband slain, chil-dren left fatherless and penniless, these cry come to the rescue. A suffering nation calls you to the ballot box, that by your suffrage in October you may hurl from power the demons who have taken liberty by the throat to strangle her ere the out-cry of her worshippers can drive them from her sacked and plundered temple. Up, Democrats of Cumberland Valley, and let us pronounce our condemnation on those traitors o civil freedom, restore the Democratic party power and save the country from impending Yours Respectfully.
