NEW SERIES.

Select Poetry.

From the Philadelphia Sunday Mercury. LYRICS FOR THE TIMES.

BY PETER PEPPERCORN.

The Democratic Creed. Regardless of the hireling's cry

Of Copperhead and all that, We still despotic power defy, And dare to speak for all that, For all that, and all that.

The traitor brand and all that, We still believe the south bas rights As well as North, for all that.

And love the Constitution, too, We never will deny that ;

Although the Abolition crew Would willingly destroy that. For all that, and all that. In spite of threals, and all that,

The Constitution as it was Shall still be ours for all that.

State rights we ever will unhold Free speech, free press, and all that ; Hard cash of copper, silver, gold, With no discount on all that. Yes, all that, and all that, . We still adhere to all that, No military necessity Shall rob us yet of all that.

The freedom of the ballat-boa From bayonet, ogth, and all that. With no tyrannic power that mocks At justice, peace, and all that.

Yes, all that, and all that, We claim and will have all that : White men, no matter rich or poor, Have still the right to all that.

Let cowards wear the gilded chain,

- Amalgamate, and all that; The Democrat its links disdain, Lovas freedom more than all that. Yes, all that, and all that;
- Peace, justice, truth, and all that, Our glorious Union as it was,
- We love it still, for all that.
