PAYMENT REQUIRED INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly will be sent gratis to any address, on application. The Publishers of the Age could easily fill their columns with the unsought and most liberal commendations of the press throughout the country, but they prefer that it should stand altogether upon claims to public confidence, well known and established. They believe it has acquired this reputation by the candor, fearlessness and independence with which it has been conducted, through times of extraordinary confusion of ideas on public subjects, and latterly of almost unexampled public trial. It is now, and will be, as heretofore, the supporter of truly national principles, opposed alike to radicalism and fanaticism in every form, and devoted to the main tenance of good government, law and order.
The Publishers of the Age conceive that it thus renders peculiar services and has peculiar claims upon all men by whom their principles are valued, and who, by the proper means, look to promote and secure the Constitutional restoration of the Union. These can best show their sense of the untiring efforts of the publisher, in behalf of this great and unparalleled cause, by earnestly sustaining this paper in all its business relations,
