A Rampant Triumvirate.

The leading abolition journals of the State, are wonderfully exorcised concerning an edito rial which appeared in our paper of May 20, on the subject of the Federal losses in the present campaign against Richmond. The Pittsburg Gazette, the Harrisburg Telegraph and the Franklin Repository, yelp in chorus at the statement of truth made in that article. Their editors feel most keenly their disgrace in being unmasked at their game of practising upon the credulity of the people. It was their darling, cherished purpose to deceive the public as to the management and progress of the war, and they lan was two years ago. fondly hoped that their oracular outgivings in regard to all matters connected with the army, would be gulped down by every body, without even an effort in the deglutition. But our article exposed their trick and hence the pithous as of the sneaking pack, the "Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart" of Pennsylvania Abolition journalism. We can afford, however, to let them bark and snarl, for we need only to refer the public to the telegrams published in garA vigorous effort is now being made by the columns of these very papers for verification the abolitionists to circulate their papers in this of the statements made in our article. But they know that they are doing wrong, nay, that they are guilty of a monstrous crime, in trying to hide from the people the real extent of the carnage, horror and misery attendant upon the recent battles. Their object is to keep the blood of the North at fever heat, so that they may still further deplete the veins and pockets of that tortured embodiment of the Government. Sangrado-like, they act upon the theory that the whole secret of medical science, consists in depletion, and, hence, when any thing is made public which seems to militate against their system Philip Smith, Jasper Smith, Jesse Smith, Jas. of phlebotomy, (and, per consequence, against White, David Waters. the indefinite continuance of the fees which they make by their use of the Government lancet), they yell and howl with very fear lest they be detected in their schemes of wickedness and infamy. They know, too, that they utter a deliberate and malicious falsehood, when they say that we are engaged "in bolstering up the cause of murderous traitors." The Hessian hireling who is the nominal editor of the Harrisburg thun, Henry Squint. Telegraph, is forced to endorse our course in the Legislature and confesses that as a member of that body, we were decided and outspoken in our devotion to the Union. The valiant editor of the Repository, who ran away at the first sound of the rebel bugles in the suburbs of Chambersburg, speaks of "professions of fideli- that State. #### The Cleveland Nomination.

The "wing" of the "Republican" party which held its national convention at Cleveland, on the 31st ult., have put their nominees in the field in the person of GEN. JOHN C. FREMONT, for President and that of GEN. JOHN COCHRANE, for Vice President. The convention was largely attended, about 350 delegates and a very large crowd of spectators being present. Fremont and Cochrane have accepted the nominations, and the former, in his letter of acceptance, announces that he has resigned his commission Fetter, John Baker. in the army and that if Lincoln is renominated Court House in Bedford, on TUESDAY, 21st by the "shoddy wing" of the party, he must be JUNE, instant, at 2 o'clock, P. In looking over the last issue of the 'Franklin Repository," I find you have been called to account for coming as near the truth as possible, in regard to our losses in Grant's first advance on Richmond. the City, and inquired what hotel it was; he was informed it was the Hotel de Joe Hall. He entered, remarking that the fare was so poor at Willard's that he was always hungry-he would go in and partake. He was admitted by a friend of his-an "American citizen of African descent"-who very politely ushered him up to the supper room; but, as fate would have it, the table had been cleared, and the guests had retired to an adjoining room, and were there picking bones. He looked at the operation for some time (being very hungry) and anxious to expend some of his ill-gotten gains. Finally, he concluded to buy some bones ; he looked at the piles of wory for some time, and finding the red to be the higher priced-the white being very cheap-he chose the former. He bought a pile, amounting to $250.00; he commenced fingering them, then tried to bite them, but his teeth not being very good, he concluded he would not risk swallowing them, but would feed them to a pet tiger Mr. Hall kept for the amusement of his guests. The tiger gulped them in without any fears of his digestive apparatus. He pick-

At the same time, we further hold, that it is the plain scriptural duty of all christian people, in all their relations to civil government, to render obedience "to the supreme authority of the country" where they may reside and to use all laudable means to promote such obedience on the part of others. And so we teach and exhort. 10 The present writing respecting the subects it embraces, refers not, as we have alreadsaid, to any permanent, but only to a temporary organization, which shall be subject to the 28 days. further developments of that gracious Providence which has thus far marked our progress with tokens of Divine favor, and upon which we may safely rely for our future guidance.
