A Change.

There are some good-natured individuals, doctrines of the abolitionists, have, through tingly fallen in with the infernal crusade against the Constitution and the liberties of the people, inaugurated and at present waged by those miserable political miscreants. They felt that it was their duty to sustain the administration in carrying on the war and to that duty they finally sacrificed even their cherished political principles. They have certainly done their part by Mr. Lincoln and no one can charge It is the question of a change of administration. and it is to be hoped that these, our consciennecessity of giving their influence and their votes in favor of a chance.

AN IMPORTANT CHANGE. - Hon. H. Winter Davis, member of Congress, from the city of Baltimore, made a speech a few days ago, denouncing the present administration, declaring that it had so conducted the war that it has became impossible to subdue the South and taking ground in favor of peace. Mr. Davis' name was at the mast-head of the abolition organ of this county, a short time ago, as its choice for Vice President. This is an import-

There has been a Federal Victory in the Shenandoah Valley. Staunton is a town in the valley forty miles west of Orange Court house, and twenty-five west-normwest or chariottesville. Twelve miles north of Staunton, is Mount Crawford. General Hunter met the Confeder ate forces at Mount Crawford, and killed their commander, General W. E. Jones. They then retreated through Staunton, followed by the Federal troops. Hunter occupied the town, and the Confederates encamped between Staunton and Charlottesville. This victory, beyond the new ground occupied, does not effect the aspect of affairs in Virginia.
