The Democratic Meeting.

The meeting on Monday evening was one of the grandest out-pourings of the good old Democracy of Bedford County that we have ever witnessed. No effort had been made to give a demonstration, nothing but the usual call of the Chairman of the County Committee, and yet the people flocked here in numbers that struck terror into the hearts of the enemies of the Constitution and the Old Union.

The speeches of the evening rose far above the usual banalities of political gatherings. They were the broad, logical and Constitutional arguments of Statesmen, whose love of country is not limited by "ifs" and "ands" nor circumscribed by geographical distinctions. They were full of appeals to the good sense of the people whose capability for self-government is never lost sight of by the Democratic party, though denied by its opponents.

This meeting, which has set the ball of the great Presidential contest in motion, augurs well. Every where the people are alive to the great struggle that is before them: and ere the Ides of November they will have fully determined to rout, with a Waterloo defeat, the fanaticism that now rules, and place in its stead the conservative and conciliatory principles of Democracy.

Hon. A. H. CORNELL.—Our popular Representative of this Congressional District was in town this week, and addressed the Democracy on Monday evening. The majority of the delegates of the counties composing this District are already instructed for Mr. Cornell, and his nomination will no doubt be unanimous, and his reelection equally sure.

Grand Democratic Mass Meeting.

Great Outpouring of the People!

1,000 FREEMEN IN COUNCIL!

The Union and the Constitution!

McClellan Triumphant!

Monday evening last was a grand success for the Democracy. It was peculiarly fitting that on the day appointed for the assembling of the National Democratic Convention at Chicago, that the Democracy of Bedford County, as if in concert with their brethren who had gone up from all parts of our common country, should flock from our own familiar hills and valleys to deliberate upon the solemn and momentous issues now engaging the minds of the American people.

On motion, that tried veteran and true Democrat, HON. JOS. B. NOBLE, was called to the chair. He was assisted by the following Vice Presidents: Jacob Eicher, J. Conrad, Jas. Devere, John Smith Esq., Gilbert C. Rice, John W. Boeler, Abraham Koons, Jas. C. Brumbaugh, Hugh Wilson, Jesse Dicken, Dan. Barley, John C. Fizard, Jesse Conner, Wilson, L. Weeks, John S. Ritchey, D. A. T. Black, W. Gillespie, F. D. Beagle, John B. Fluke, Sol. Reighard, Joseph W. Sleek, Michael Naugle, Michael S. Ritchey, Wm. Foster, Jas. Mattingly, J. C. Everhart.

Secretary—W. Findlay Mann, Jas. Still, W. C. Snively, Dr. F. C. Doyle, J. T. Gephart. The meeting was then addressed by the Hon. R. L. JOHNSON, who in a speech of an hour's length described with inimitable felicity the failures and tergiversations of the ruling party of this country.

Resolved, That we re-affirm the resolutions of the County convention passed 23d June last. Resolved, That it is the duty of all leaders of every party, and of all people to carry out that which is in the hearts of the people; and in obedience to this universal rule, we unhesitatingly declare it to be the duty of those in authority, or those who may soon be in authority in view of our national troubles, to propose, an armistice between the Northern and Southern armies and to call for a national convention to settle our difficulties, stop the unnecessary effusion of blood and restore the Union by treaty.

The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for the nominee of the Chicago Convention.

INVASION.—Our quiet Borough was invaded this week, not by the Reds, but by a congenial good-looking set of office holders and office seekers from Somerset County, who came down upon us like a "horde" from "their homes in the mountains."

ABOLITION MEETING.—The ladies at the abolition meeting! What a good idea, to fill up the Court House. Yet the crinolines, the boys, the Democrats, the Somerset brass band and the big bass drum couldn't make a crowd, nor didn't make as much fuss as Col. Jordan's wonderful "expose" of—himself! Koons's nomination must have confounded him, for he was confoundedly unhappy in his style and manner.

BACKING DOWN.

It is well known how completely Mr. Lincoln was governed in his war measures by the ultra Abolitionists up till a very short while ago. The cause of the final interruption was this: As the radical drivers became more furious the nearer they saw coming about a realization of their schemes for the destruction of slavery, the Republican party leaders found it necessary—if they expected to retain any power at all—to put the brakes down hard upon the presidential machine.

THE TRUTH. The N. Y. World comments upon the recent peace negotiations in Canada, as follows: "The essential fact which looms up above the mirage of this fiasco is, that the President of the United States has defined his position on the most vital question of the time. He has declared, in the face of the world, 'to whom it may concern,' that he will listen to no proposition for the return of the Southern States to their allegiance which does not include the complete abandonment of slavery."

EASY AGAIN.

"Thank God, I am easy again," said Mr. Freely, who had suffered for nine months with Rheumatism. The first application of Radway's Ready Relief relieved him from pain, the following day he was able to walk, in a week's time he resumed his business as engineer. Radway's Ready Relief will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Head, Strains, Sprains, Burns, Scalds, Sore Throat, Head-ache, and all other pains. Relief is afforded in a few minutes.

TWO good carpenters, by the subscriber, to put up a frame house in Saxton. Lumber, windows and doors are ready worked. JAMES L. PRINCE. Saxton, July 23, 1864.

STOLEN.—Not long since during the late confederate raid into this State—the citizens in some parts of Fulton County, and especially in McConnell's Cove, became very much excited, and thought it the best policy to remove their goods and clothing further from the border and 'out of reach of the invaders. One man thinking more of his bed clothing than any thing else, removed them into Brush Creek Township, to his father's domicile for their safety.

FROM THE 55TH.—Through the politeness of a friend we have been handed the following letter for publication. From it the reader will observe that the principles of the Democratic party still live in the Army of the Potomac, and we feel confident that the nominee at Chicago will not be forgotten by the gallant soldiers of our army. Camp 55th Regt. P. V., Near Petersburg, Va., Aug. 3, '64.

Terrible State of Affairs. The terrible outrages, corruption and mismanagement of the Lincoln Administration, have become so apparent that there is wide spread alarm throughout the land in regard to the fate of our country, which was so prosperous and happy when they assumed the management of our affairs.

ORGANIZE. There never was, and never could be a time of greater necessity for immediate organization, and for earnest and united effort. There is much to encourage the Democracy and inspire them to action.—The very bitterness of the opposition, the abuse of their authority, their violation of the Constitution, their usurpations, their quarrel and divisions, all co-operate to warn men of their inability and corruption and of their danger, or of the certainty of untold ruin should Lincoln be re-elected.

THE MONEY GOES.—There are now in Washington and suburbs about 20,000 negro women and children. They live in huts built by Government, at an expense of some thousands of dollars. These poor creatures subsist upon Government Bounty, and prostitution! and this in Washington, the once proud capital of American freemen!

your fellow citizens in an attempt to place an administration in power on a basis broad as the patriotism of the country and its needs. General Fremont, under date of Nahant, Aug. 25, replies at considerable length. He does not feel at liberty to withdraw his name without first consulting the patriotic party who nominated him, but suggests that a direct effort be made to obtain an immediate understanding between the supporters of the Baltimore and Cleveland nominations, in order that the friend of both may coalesce and unite upon an early day for holding such a convention.

Poor Richard's Reasons for buying United States Securities.

The other day we heard a rich neighbor say he had rather have railroad stocks than the U. S. stocks, for they paid higher interest. Just then Poor Richard came up, and said that he just bought some of Uncle Sam's three years notes, paying seven and three-tenths per cent. interest. My rich friend exclaimed, You! I thought you had no money to buy with. "Yes," said Richard, "I had a little laid up, for you know it is well to have something laid up against a wet day, and I have kept a little of my earnings by me." Now Poor Richard is known to all the country round to be a very prudent and industrious, and withal, wise man; for Richard never learned anything he didn't know how to make use of, and his wisdom and prudence had become a proverb.

THE MEMORIES OF THEM. Messrs. Ayer & Co. have received from Alexandria a cargo of rags to pay for their medicines, which are largely sold in Egypt. They are evidently gathered from all classes and quarters of the Paclia's dominions—the east-off garments of Hadjis and Howadis—white linen turbans, loose breeches and flowing robes. Not the least part of their bulk is cloth in which bodies were embalmed wound for preservation three thousand years ago. They are now to be made into paper for Ayer's Almanacs, and thus, after having wrapped the dead for thirty centuries, are used to wrap the living from the narrow house which they have so long inhabited, and to which, in spite of all our guards, and cautions, we must so surely go.—Daily Evening Journal.

MARRIED.

CARSON—EVERSOLE.—On the 15th inst., by Jacob Walter, Esq., Mr. Daniel Carson to Miss Nancy J. Eversole, all of South Woodbury, Bedford county.

ALDSTADT—ANDERS.—On Tuesday, August 30, at the Bedford Hotel, by H. Nicodemus, Esq., Mr. Jacob Aldstadt and Miss Sarah Ellen Anders, both of St. Clair township.

MOWRY.—In Waterstreet, South Woodberry township, on the 20th inst., Mrs. Ann Catharine Mowry, aged 57 years.

REED.—On the 25th of Aug. Bertha, infant daughter of Jacob and Mary Reed, aged 1 year, 6 months and 12 days. She was a dear child, a little flower too tender to bloom long in the unequal climate of this world. The Lord had need of her and took her up to Heaven.

From adverse blasts, and low'ring storms, Her favored soul be bore; And with your bright angelic forms, She lives to die no more.

MITCHEY.—On the 24th Aug., Thomas Grant, infant son of Josiah and Emily Jane Mitchey of Bedford township, aged 9 months and 1 day. He was a fine child and apparently of a vigorous constitution; but he was suddenly stricken down by that great destroyer, Croup. The Lord had need of him and took him. "For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

THORP.—In Summit House Hospital, Philadelphia, August 2, 1864, of consumption, John W. Thorp, a resident of Bedford county. Two years ago he enlisted under Capt. Stucky, as musician of Co. D, 138th Regt. P. V., he leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss. Three days previous to his death he was told his end was not far distant, yet his confidence was stayed on God. He was a member of the Methodist E. Church, and for 3 months previous to his death, was engaged in prayer to his God, and gave evidence of his having a home in Heaven.

Oh, John! Stay in thy home; thy glorious home. Resplendent with the beams of light That shine from the Eternal throne. Arrayed in splendor pure and white. Stay till the friends whom thou hast left; Shall leave this vale of tears and rise With spirits pure on angel wings, To dwell with thee beyond the skies.
