The rebels under Gen. Hood, have evacuated Atlanta. Before leaving they destroyed such stores and munitions as they could not carry with them.

It is the game of the Abolitionists to circulate all kinds of falsehoods concerning military operations, in order to humbug the people.

In 1860 we were told to vote for Lincoln and a change. Cotton was then ten cents a pound. The people voted for Lincoln and the "change." Cotton was $1.44 a pound.

The rebel Gen. A. P. Hill reports the capture from Gen. Grant, on the 26th of Aug., at Rapid's station, of 2,000 prisoners, 9 guns, 12 stands of colors, 3,100 stand of small arms and 54 horses.

Soldier's Letter.

Dear Friend: It has been some time since I have written to you, and so I have a little time this evening, I thought I would answer your kind letter which I have just received.

You wanted to know how the soldiers would vote this fall. Well, I will tell you there is a great change in the army.

The following named persons were appointed by the last County Executive, a committee to devise means of securing uniformity of text books throughout the county.

A Card.

Inasmuch as there is a report in circulation in some parts of the county that the Commissioners had taken the arms from a Company...

It is the game of the Abolitionists to circulate all kinds of falsehoods concerning military operations, in order to humbug the people.

Slavery buys negroes in Africa to put to useful employment in the South. Lincoln's agents steal negroes in the South to slaughter in a war upon freedom.

Mr. Pendleton and The Tribune.

The Tribune professes to believe that the World will only speak the truth in a certain given emergency. We are sorry to see that the Tribune gives no signs of a disposition to speak the truth in any emergency.

A declaration made by Mr. Pendleton in Congress, March 12, 1862, goes as the means of estimating what the Tribune considers to be nearly a rebel.

The Tribune naturally results from the unconditional Unionism of the Chicago nominee.

The Chicago Convention—Letter from Ex-President Pierce.

The following is the letter from ex-President Pierce, brought to the notice of the convention yesterday, as expressive of the wishes of that distinguished gentleman, by E. E. Spofford, a delegate from Massachusetts:

Whoever may be nominated will, I have no doubt, in obedience to what will be the voice of the Convention declare in the name of the Democracy of the United States, that the approaching election, shall be a free election, in election conducted in obedience to the laws of the land...

But if your Convention will act cordially and in harmony, there need be no apprehension that beyonds will attempt to control the judgment of the voters.

No infidelity in defiance of the Constitution will then be combined with the united Democracy of the Southwestern, Middle, Northwestern, and Eastern States.
