

What They Promised.

THE FRIENDS OF GOV. CURTIN PROMISED THE PEOPLE THAT IF THEY WOULD RE-ELECT HIM, THE WAR WOULD END IN 30 DAYS AND THERE WOULD BE NO MORE DRAFTING. HOLD THEM TO THEIR PROMISES.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, OF NEW JERSEY. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEORGE H. PENDLETON, OF OHIO.

A Glorious Triumph!

Bedford county gives 677 majority for the Democratic ticket! And this, notwithstanding the basest treachery on the part of men who owe all they have and all they are to the Democratic organization and notwithstanding the fact that every poll at which the Democrats were expected to have a majority, was watched by a squad of soldiers. Had there been a free election, and had not the draft been so managed as to run at least 250 Democrats away from their homes, the majority would have been upwards of 1,000. But under the circumstances, the triumph is all the more glorious. We cannot at present particularize as to the relative gains of the different districts. All did so well that we can scarcely discriminate in favor of any. But we must not forget that many honest and independent republicans came up to our help. We frankly acknowledge their services. We owe these noble men our everlasting gratitude.

The State.

There are great Democratic gains all over the state, averaging about 400 to each county, which would make the aggregate gain over last year, 26,000! This will give us the state, on the home vote, by 11,000. What the army vote will do, we cannot tell; but one thing is certain, that the prestige gained by the Democracy in carrying the state on the home vote by so decided a majority, will go far towards revolutionizing the other states in favor of McClellan. As to the number of Congressmen we have secured, it is impossible to tell. The army vote will have to decide in a number of districts. We think that we have carried at least twelve of the twenty four districts, on the home vote. The Legislature is also in doubt. In the Blair and Huntington Senatorial districts it is reported that we have elected two Senators, also one in the Snyder district—all three gains.—In Westernland we gain about 600, the majority being 1,700. In Allegheny we gain 2,000 in Lancaster 2,000. Berks gives 7,000 majority. In Somerset we gain about 600, in Blair 500, in Huntington 500, and so on throughout the state. On the popular vote, the state is certainly Democratic. Glory enough for one day.

Telegraphic Lines.

The abolition papers have dispatches from Indiana and Ohio, claiming both states by immense majorities. These dispatches were sent on the night of the election, and cannot be based on any reliable count. As for Ohio, the Democrats did not expect to carry that state and do not need it to elect McClellan. Indiana, however, we did hope to carry and unless great frauds have been committed there, we have carried it. The World claims it as having gone Democratic. But, no matter how Indiana voted at the late election, she will certainly give her voice in favor of Little Mac at the next election. There are thousands of men in every state who would not vote the Democratic state and local tickets, who are determined to vote for McClellan in November. We caution our readers to beware of sensational dispatches.

Majorities.

Bedford Borough, 86 dem. Bedford twp., 113 dem. Colerain, 88 dem. C. Valley, 130 dem. Harrison, 36 dem. Juniata, 142 dem. Liberty, 37 dem. Londonderry, 28 dem. Napier, 35 dem. Snakespring, 53 dem. Schellsburg, 24 dem. St. Clair, 86 dem. Southampton, 146 dem. Union, 84 dem. S. Woodbury, 10 dem.—Bloody Run, 82 ab. Broad Top, 38 ab. Hopewell, 30 ab. Monroe, 8 ab. E. Providence, 60 ab. W. Providence, 40 ab. M. Woodbury, 33 ab. These majorities are considered reliable.

Bedford Borough.

The Democratic majority in Bedford Borough is 28—a gain of 29 over last year, Curtin having had 1 majority. This is truly well done. The majority of the editor of this paper for Assembly, is 36, a gain of 37 over his last year—a fitting rebuke to the blackguard rascals who have exhausted their villainage in his vilification. The people of the borough who have thus handsomely vindicated and sustained him, have his sincere and heartfelt thanks, and whether elected, or defeated, he shall always hold them in grateful remembrance.

More of Lincoln's Policy.

Sheridan reports that he has burned, in the Shenandoah Valley, 2000 barns, 70 mills, and 500 dwellings. Just as sure as Lincoln is re-elected the border counties of Pennsylvania will have to suffer in return for this barbarous work. Now, mark the prediction.

Murder in St. Clair.

On Tuesday evening last, a young man named Trout, of St. Clair township, accompanied by three armed soldiers, followed Mr. Frederick Mock, of that township, when on his way home from the election, and overtaking him, seized him and marched him several miles, when Mr. Mock endeavored to make his escape. The soldiers immediately fired upon him and killed him. Mr. Mock was not a conscript, had not resisted the draft in any form, but was a peaceable and useful citizen. He was deliberately murdered, in cold blood, merely because he was an active Democrat.—We denounce this foul and bloody deed, as an outrage not to be tolerated by any people.—We call upon the military, as well as the civil authorities, to have the perpetrators of this cowardly murder brought speedily to justice, and we warn them that if they fail to do it, there is a sleeping lion that will be roused from his lair, before whose roar the very earth shall tremble. The blood of Frederick Mock cries from the ground for vengeance against the men at whose instigation soldiers were placed at the polls on Tuesday last. Let them beware!

Congress, Judge and Legislature.

The majority of Gen. Coffroth, on the home vote, in the district, is about 725. Kimmell, for Judge, has a majority of about 200 on the home vote. Meyers has a majority, on the home vote, of about 225. Somerset county, according to a late dispatch, does not give over 700 abolition majority. Fulton gives about 250 dem.

Attend to the Assessments.

Ascertain at once whether there are any persons in your district that should be assessed, and, if so, have it attended to. Let every Democrat exert himself. We have carried Pennsylvania. Let us increase our majority to 50,000 in November. Work, work, work!

Colerain.

The meeting at Rainsburg on last Monday evening was one of the largest ever held in this township. At an early hour the meeting convened at the Seminary building which was soon filled with the staunch Democracy of Colerain and the adjoining townships. At least four or five hundred persons were in attendance. The meeting was organized by electing the following officers: President, Wm. Kessler, Sr., Vice Presidents, Abm. McClellan, Jeremiah Gordon, Geo. Deihl, W. P. Morgan, Jos. Cossna, J. G. Hughes, Elias Gump, Wm. Cossna, S. H. Feather, Godfrey Yeager. Secretaries, P. M. McClellan, Geo. W. Cossna and Prof. J. W. Hughes. G. H. Spang then addressed the meeting, and for two hours he discussed, in most eloquent terms, the great issues of the day. He was followed by H. W. Fisher, who in a speech of an hour, showed the responsible duty of all men who still hold the interest of their country at heart. The ladies presented the speakers with a number of fine bouquets; and at the close of the last speech they enlivened the meeting with that good old song, "McClellan forever &c."

Democratic Meeting at Woodberry.

The meeting on last Wednesday at Woodberry, was a grand success all through. In numbers it surpassed every one. The old war-horse of the Cove, John Bowman, was called to the chair with a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The meeting was addressed by R. L. Johnston, Esq., candidate for Congress in the adjoining district; and also by Wm. Hardesty and O. E. Shannon. The proceedings were well conducted by the Newry Brass Band and Lew. Oellig's songs. The whole affair was well gotten up and speaks well for the state of feeling in Morrison's Cove, particularly as contrasted with grand Republican meetings held there two days before, with about thirty in attendance.

Send Tickets to the Army.

We enclose in this issue a number of McClellan electoral tickets. Send them to the army at once. Soldiers in hospitals and on detached service should have proxies sent them. Mr. Shannon, chairman of Democratic Co. Committee will furnish blanks to all who may desire them.

The Rev. Samuel Kepner, by Divine permission, will preach before the Christian Association of Bedford, next Sabbath morning, at the usual hour, from Proverbs, 24th chapter and 50 to 34th verses.
