McClure vs. McClure. In the last Franklin Repository, Mr. A. K. McClure makes the following statement: 'Mr. Meyers, thinking that some things might be done as well as others, procured a confessedly false return.'

Let it be White-Washed!

The abolition editors of this Representative district, are at heart so much ashamed of the trickery by which the people of the district have been defrauded out of their legally returned representatives...

Settled for life—Gen. Hooker. He says he will stay in District until greenbacks are worth as much as gold.

The Collector's Organ on the Rampage.

Some illiterate dunderpate who does up the slang for the organ of the District Collector, (the Somerset Herald) has been striving, for a month past, to attract our attention in his direction...

Like the ostrich, which, hiding its head in the sand, imagines that its whole body is obscured from view, this scribbling simpleton thinks that by charging 'fraud' upon Democrats...

It is your party, Mr. Abolition Ostrich, that is guilty of fraud. You know that there were hundreds of illegal votes cast by your partisans in the army...

Fraud! You talk about fraud! You, whose garments reek with the stench of conspiracy; whose palms drip with the foulness of fraud...

McClure vs. McClure. In the last Franklin Repository, Mr. A. K. McClure makes the following statement: 'Mr. Meyers, thinking that some things might be done as well as others, procured a confessedly false return.'

Cool.—The Franklin Repository affects to think that Messrs. Meyers and Findlay were fearful that if they contested the seats of Messrs. Ross and Armstrong...

A great lot of copper has been stolen from the Philadelphia Navy Yard, by Abolition officials about the place. The Age says that some disloyal fellow thinks he would rather belong to the Copperheads than to the Copper-thieves.

What is the difference between political items in this column and a fight on election day?

The jury failed to agree in the Oplyke-Weed land case. They are both shoddyites and the jury, doubtless, thought neither of them had character enough to entitle either of them to a verdict.

Gen. McClellan received one million, eight hundred and thirty thousand one hundred and eleven votes for President.

The Philadelphia Custom House has been robbed of $30,000 in currency and gold. The robbery is charged upon a 'loyal man,' the cashier of the Custom House and brother-in-law to the collector.

The duty on whiskey is now two dollars per-gallon. It will soon become the duty of tipplers to quit drinking.

Col. W. W. H. Davis has resumed the editorship of the Doylestown Democrat. Col. Davis served with great gallantry, upwards of three years, in the army.

The Overland Mail Route to the Pacific, has been discontinued, for the present, owing to the Indian troubles.

After a while some oliginous Tennyson will sing: 'How can their glory fade? How will their stocks be paid? All the world wondered.'

Look here, Shoddy! Why don't you praise Butler? Why don't you refer to him as a model 'War Democrat,' the greatest general of the war, the 'Boonerges, son of thunder,' whose very fiat could shake the Southern Confederacy to its centre? Humph!

Must feel good—that return judge from Somerset county, whose 'fixed up' papers were thrown aside by Attorney General Meredith as fraudulent.

Gen. Sherman has 50,000 men in South Carolina. Gen. Foster is co-operating with him. It is supposed that Sherman is moving upon Charleston.

The Richmond Enquirer has an article which proposes, in effect, to unite with the Federal Government, in a general war with England, France and Spain, for the purpose of enforcing the Monroe doctrine in regard to Canada, Mexico and Cuba.

The Broad Top Semi-Bituminous Coal Region. The Broad Top Semi-Bituminous coal region, notwithstanding the hindrances consequent from the inability of the Pennsylvania Railroad to furnish power, in time and measure equal to the wants of the Broad Top Trade—the trunk road being wholly inadequate to the movement of the traffic offered at its many sources of business supply.

At the very time that Gen. Butler was before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, at Washington, testifying that Fort Fisher could not be taken. Gen. Terry's heroes were placing the Stars and Stripes about that stronghold. Thus was the wind taken out of our inflated humbug.

W. H. Keable, Esq., of Philadelphia, has been elected State Treasurer. W. V. McGrath was voted for by the Democrats.

New Jersey is the only Democratic state in the North and is the only one that is out of debt and has a cash balance in the Treasury. Glorious little Jersey!

The quota, under the present call, for this Borough, is said to be from 10 to 15. We presume the 'loyal' men will not permit the borough to be disgraced by a draft.

The Hopewell Oil Company's stock is selling rapidly. About 16,000 shares have already been sold. The sinking of wells upon the company's property will soon be commenced.

Our Book Table.

AMERICAN MONTHLY.—This is one of the few magazines that is not filled with false doctrine on the subject of civil government. It takes the Democratic view of our national troubles...

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The present number is a fine one. Young in years, this periodical has already won great popularity among the ladies...

GAZLAY'S PACIFIC MONTHLY.—We have received the first number of this new candidate for public favor. To persons desiring information in regard to the Pacific states and territories, this work will prove very valuable.

GOODY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The February number of Goody is on our table. Always fresh and sprightly this oldest of ladies' magazines, seems to derive renewed vigor from increasing age.

THE WAR.

The report of the fall of Fort Fisher, is confirmed. All the cannon in the fort, and the garrison, consisting of about 899 men, were captured. The federal loss was about 4000, killed and wounded.

The Southern papers say that Hood's losses in his campaign against Nashville, do not exceed 8,000 men; that he obtained many recruits and that he has plenty of cannon.

Gen. Sherman has 50,000 men in South Carolina. Gen. Foster is co-operating with him. It is supposed that Sherman is moving upon Charleston.

Tribute of Respect. At a meeting of Cove Lodge, No. 938, I. O. O. F. held in Woodberry, on Saturday, Dec. 24, 1864, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the sad fate of our deceased Brother, who had to endure so many hardships during his captivity.

Resolved, That though our deceased Brother suffered much in life, yet we learn, he bore all affliction and persecution with resignation and fortitude, and we do now, as heretofore, esteem his conduct as becoming a good citizen and true soldier.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this Lodge be published in the Bedford Gazette and Bedford Inquirer. By order of the Lodge, JOHN I. NOBLE, GEO. R. HOLMES, THOMAS WATSON, Com.

In Memory of Our Brother. Farewell, brother Isaac! We will see him no more.

Bright angels from glory, have taken him home. And left us on earth for awhile yet to roam. Oh, when will we meet him and like him be blest.

Forever in mansions of glory to rest. And why should we mourn or grieve ourselves sore? His spirit now rests on a happier shore.

With brothers and sisters his soul is at rest, We hope soon to meet him and like him be blest.

In mourning we brothers and sisters are clad, The hearts of our parents and friends are now sad, Old Father, kind Father, beware of us no more, Three brothers and two sisters have gone before.
