

Democratic County Convention. The Democrats of Bedford county are here-by requested to meet in their respective election districts, on SATURDAY, the 17th DAY OF JUNE, NEXT, for the purpose of electing del- Abolition organs, let us hear your opinion of a lot of fee-bills for Justices and Constables, doubtless true that the Secretary of the Treasegates to the Democratic County Convention, Edward Bates' letter! And whilst your band is giving both the old and new rates. Price fifty learnest interest instead of 7.30 to be held in Bedford, on Monday, the 19th day of June, next, at 2 o'clock, P. M., which body will place in nomination a County Ticket to be supported by the party at the ensuing general election .--Under the rules, each district is entitled to two at Washington! On which side are you, on that forces in Washington, he will be sent there to the debts incident to the war, would have been delegates. The Democrats of the several diss are also particularly requested to choose Vigilance Committees for the coming year and to return their names to the Chairman of the rate, please tell us whether you consider Bates, County Committee.

O. E. SHANNON,

· Ch'n. Dem. Co. Committee. The Cause of the War. Some of the Jacobin journals, with whose editors it is a kind of second nature to saddle upon the shoulders of their political opponents, every thing that goes wrong in governmental affairs, are now trying to make it appear that ic party immeasurably guilty, as respects the The word "White" to be stricken out of state of things which produced the Southern rebellion. They know that, the war being over, passion and resentment will subside and reason and reflection rule the public mind, in their stead. They know that when popular interest is no Citizens of Bedford County, Read than three and a half millions a day. longer centred upon raids and battles and sieges, and anxiety concerning present perils no more obscures recollection of past difficulties, the caustall, if possible, the judgment which they fear read it. will be rendered against them by the people .-But in this attempt they must fail. The truth of history is against them, and all their special no means confined to the slaveholding Statesof history is against them, and all their special no means commed to the stavenoring states—

June we cannot predict, but parties who wish pleading, and all their appeals to the prejudice wrote the word "white" in the constitution of fluid is unabated. We hear of "Strikes" every to make sure of a portion would do well to be of the time, will not avail them. It is a part of their record that they threw the first stone. were natives of the country, and a large pro-They first set the laws of the Union at defiance. portion of them worthy, intelligent, honest men They first resisted and murdered U. S. officers in discharge of official duty. They first levied war and debased, utter strangers to the genius and 60 to 80 barrels. In view of this, the stockagainst the Federal Government. Are we asked when or how they were guilty of these things?
We point to the history of that Boston riot, in which a U. S. officer was slain by them, when life, whilst endeavoring to reclaim a fugitive ization. of arms, and which Gen. Sumner, with U. S. | selves to be loyal, patric But these were only the out-croppings of the hatred which this party bore the people and inthat did not either feel resentful toward the party about to take the reins of government, or original Secessionists to gain the confidence of indispensible. ter such assurances from the leading spirits of secession would be regarded as treason. Hence, the conclusion must inevitably be reached, that the Abelitionists are responsible, in the premises, for the horrible war which has deluged our ers blameless. They had no right to secede.

They acted rashly and criminally in firing upon

Sumter. They did a grievous wrong not only precipitating the commencement of hostilities;

and grievously have they answered it. The Secession leaders are about to be tried and punished. Will it be asking too much of the people, that the Abolition demagogues, by way of retribution, be also "hung up to dry," not physically, but politically?

Letter of Hon. Edward Bates. We publish on our first page, a very able letter recently written by Hop. EDWARD BATES, of Missouri, late Mr. Lincoln's Attorney General. The subject of the letter is Martial Law. Mr. Bates takes the true ground in regard to graced and outraged the peaceful communities desired. of the loyal States. What will the miserable lick-spittles that denounced the Democrats so Mill, near Schellsburg, has been changed from McCulloch deserves great credit for the ability bitterly for their opposition to martial law, say Saturday June 3 to Friday June 2nd. now that statesmen and jurists like Mr. Bates, ustain the Democracy? They can't answer them, by crying out out "Copperhead! Copper- Wednesday. head!" Come, now, oh, ye scribblers for the in, tell us, also, what you think of the denun- cents. ciations of Mr. Stanton by Horace Greely, as well as those articles of the N. Y. Post and N. of the Constitution and the Laws, or on that of the starchamber erected in their stead? At any Greely, Raymond and Bryant "Copperheads," for saying harsher things against the War Department than those for the saying of which you called us by that delectable nick-name? And, by the way, couldn't you publish some of Greely's articles on Stanton, or Bates' letter, just to et your readers know that there once was a document called The Constitution?

Equalization of the Races! our Constitution!

The Republican Party to be placed upon the Negro Suffrage Platform!

and Ponder!

The article copied below, we take from the ses of our national troubles will be fully can- Bedford Inquirer, of last week, in which it was vassed and clearly discerned by an intelligent printed as an editorial, though credited to the and impartial public. Therefore, they think it Pittsburg Gazette. Comment upon it, is unprudent to "take time by the forclock," and fore- necessary. We only ask men of all parties to

The Right of Suffrage.

The spirit of slavery-for that spirit was by Pennsylvania, excluding an entire class of her few days, and the consequence is, some one has in time. citizens from the ballot box-a class, all of whom -while foreigners, however ignorant, vicious spirit of our institutions, and incapable of un- holders of the Stump Islands Oil Co., whose

Many good citizens have come in from service; to the rebellion in Kansas, which through that door, and we do not wish to see set up a government in opposition to that of the it shut; but we desire to unbar another door United States, striving to maintain it by force of arms, and which Gen Support with IL c. who, although not white, have proved themtroops, was sent to suppress; and, lastly, to the ges which they once enjoyed, but of which they invasion of Virginia, and the seizure of the U. were unjustly deprived by the Conventional Abolition party, and even the destructive besom time it was agreed by the common consent of civil war, cannot sweep them away. There all these classes, representatives of the pulpit, secreted it." of civil war, cannot sweep them away. There all these classes, representatives of the pulpit, they are and there they will remain in history. the forum, the tap-room and the brothel, that abolitionists should not talk, and that pegrees

But now, since abolitionists have regained stitutions of the South. Their antipathy to the right to talk as much as they please and The thief, fearful of detection, placed it there terday. slavery and slaveholders, was preached from where they please; since William Lloyd Garri- but a short time ago, as the seitee under which gainst Mr. Buchanan, with which Abolition will enable him to reduce the army to the old every pulpit they controled, tinctured every po- son has walked the streets of Charleston, and it was discovered, had recently been moved and newspapers have delighted to fill their columns, litical speech their orators delivered, pervaded to fill their columns, and no flag was to be found which cannot be as fully and completely refuthe livery of the nation, and battle valiantly in at that time. When it was first discovered that ted as the above baseless charge. every public law their legislators enacted, and its defence, we say that in all fairness we must the flag was taken, my house was searched by let them vote. When the right was taken a myself and others, from one end to the other, let them vote. In all fairness we must the flag was taken, my house was searched by let them vote. When the right was taken a myself and others, from one end to the other, and crystalized itself in a sectional organization, way from them in Pennsylvania, the advocates under the settee in the parlor and every where dicate his fame, and set his public career in such troops with whom they can bave no sympathy. which, from its avowed hostility to Southern institutions, could not gain a foot-hold in a sininstitutions, could not gain a foot-hold in a sininstitutions, could not gain a foot-hold in a sininstitutions.

Way from them in Pennsylvania, the secretical time partor and every where of the measure contended that it was expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. Let the word "white," therefore, be expedient; but even this miserable plea cannot be urged now. gle slave-holding state. In this manner many punged from our State Constitution, and let it since it was cut down, I pronounce false and ri-Southerners were embittered against the people drift down among the cast-off barbarisms and diculous. I never blamed, nor did I ever hear of the North, and when Mr. Lincoln was elect- follies of a by-gone era, along with that infa- any other person accuse, any Union man with ed in 1860, there were but few of the former mous judicial dictum, that a colored man 'has stealing the flag. I was always, and I believe no rights which a white man is bound to re- the public are, now, under the impression that that were not filled with doubt and alarm as to to be inserted in its stead in Pennsylvania; but of the Inquirer, for informing me what is a the security of their civil rights. Thus, the there are plenty of States, in the constitutions revolutionary Abolition party produced a state of which it ought to be inserted; it would be of mind in the South, which enabled the few those which composed the late confederacy it is This, of course, would admit the masses and to persuade them to join them all the colored men to the ballot-box, but it in their scheme of Southern independence. Be- would exclude many white. This, it seems to Stephens, C. C. Clay, Col. Reagan, Gen. Wheesides, such men as Greely and Banks and their us, is the dictate of reason, prudence and com- ler, and sixteen others, arrived on Friday at andes, such men as Greely and Banks and their mon sense; while to exclude an entire class, confreres, had publicly declared, that if the merely because they have not as white skins as Hilton Head on the steamer William H. Clyde, Southern States seceded from the Union, they the rest of us, can be referred to nothing but convoyed by a federal gunboat. They will be would be willing to let them "slide." This mis- to a blind and slavish prejudice. Let us imag- | confined in the casemates of the fort, which have led the Southern people into the belief that they ine that two men are before us-one has fought been fitted up as cells to receive them. Every could go out of the Union with impunity. Af- and bled in the service of his country, but his means has been taken to prevent the possibility skin is black; the other's soul is black with of their escape. When Davis was captured, it treason, and hands red with the blood of his is reported he distributed the specie in his posthe dominant party, they never dreamed that murdered countrymen; but his skin is white session among the members of his escort. -which shall vote ?-Pittsburg Gazette.

ment of the "Indiana Democrat" for sale on North Carolina to consult with the President reasonable terms. It will be sold for less than have arrived in Washington. On Saturday, country in fraternal blood. But we do not the cost of the material in the office. The pa- Generals Grant and Sherman visited President wish to be understood as holding the Southern- per enjoys a handsome patronage; being the Johnson. Gen. Grant has issued an order in only Democratic paper in the county. The sub- relation to the grand review on Tuesday and scription list, after being cut down this spring, Wednesday next. The Army of the Potomac is about 850-most of these good, advance pay- will be reviewed on Tuesday, and Gen. Shering subscribers. The advertssing patronage is man's army on Wednesday. to the government, but to their own people, by large, as will be seen by an examination of the South has been awfully punished for Secession. For we will guarantee the profits of one year to diction of the Court. The North, too, has been terribly visited on acpay for the entire establishment. Address, pay for the entire establishment. Address, Jas. B. Sansom, Indiana, Pa.

EDITORIAL MELANGE.

Getting plenty-candidates.

Still up-all kinds of marketing. Come down-a great deal of rain during the past week. Gone to the frosty hills of Somerset-the vest this summer.

The County Commissioners meet on Monthose infamous tribunals which have so long dis- day, May 29th. A full meeting of the Board is obligations that have been incurred during the

Robert Swan, who had returned to Cumberland, Md., from the South, was arrested on to the command of all the forces west of the the great object of the Government, viz: an im-Y. Times, inveighing against the Military Court Mississippi, and soon after the review of our mediate supply of money sufficient to pay all wipe out Kirby Smith. levees and covers an immense area, being in wise," but the best financial authorities, as well some places from thirty to fifty miles in width.

As it is—and will be, no soldier will go home The destruction of property is immense and is without his greenbacks, and the floating debt in erJ. B. Farquhar, Esq., President of the Bedford Mutal Oil Co., has just returned from Cherry Run, where the property of the company hausted on Saturday, May 13. On Monday, the is situated. Boring will be commenced in a Scretary of the Treasury authorized JAY COOKE, few days. Mr. F. says there is great activity the general Subscription Agent for U. S. Secuin the oil region and a good many "strikes" are say that we were spending three millions a day. fered by the Government. Nevertheless, as in duty bound, we said it, for it was true. Now the Tribune admits that even of this Third Series, except that the Governit was true. Now the Tribune admits that even nent reserves the right of paying interest at six in the fiscal year ending last June we spent more per cent. in gold instead of seven and three-the letter of Ex-President Buchanan, found in rate in currency—a consummation most devoutanother column. He administers a scathing ly to be wished. rebuke to the slanderers who have seen fit to endeavor to defame him, even since the illus- six per cent. gold bonds at the end of three trious old man retired from office. We imagine they should have sense enough, by this time tolder's option, is retained. they should have sense enough, by this time, to hold their vile tongues.

keeps up, and the search for the oleaginous made a fortune. A number of wells have Full particulars may be found in our adverstruck oil on Clarion River, and according to tising columns. the Clarion Democrat, one of them flows from derstanding them even if they had tried, were, lands are situated at the mouth of said stream, have determined to retain all shares unsold as soon as oil is struck in the well, which is now offered for sale. There is still an opportunity for all desiring to invest.

> For the Gazette. A CARD.

Bedford Inquirer:

the thief is a greater traitor than Jeff. Davis. We do not say that the word LOYAL ought I am under obligations, however, to the editors "Copperhead flag." It seems that it is the "Stars and Stripes." Yours, &c., J. J. SHOEMAKER. Bedford, May 22, 1865.

Jefferson Davis and family, Alexander H. Fortress Monroe. They were brought up from Governor Vance, of North Carolina, reached Washington on Saturday, and was placed in FOR SALE.—We offer the Printing establish- the Old Capitol prison. The delegation from

The testimony for the prosecution in the conpaper, and the jobbing respectable. To an in- spiracy trial, which is going on at Washington, dustrious and enterprising practical printer, is nearly all in. It is stated that Reverdy Johnwith a small family, this is a rare opportunity, son is preparing an argument against the juris-Two hundred witnesses, it is said, will be produced for the defence .-

The Third Series of Seven-Thirties. The great success of the 7.30 Loan must always be looked upon as one of the most powerful evidences of the strength of the U. States Government, and of its strong hold upon the confidence and affections of the people. On Saturday, May 13, the subscriptions were over thirty million dollars, and for the week ending on that day, over ninety-eight million dollars, and in the three months that the Loan has been in Bright-the prospects of a plentiful har- charge of Mr. JAY COOKE, over five hundred million dollars. These large receipts will enable the Treasury to pay off our armies as they are disbanded, and to rapidly discharge the various war. History will show that a great war-debt The time for the bridge letting at Statler's to individuals has never before been so promptly he has manifested, not only in securing the means, but for the financial skill he has displayed in so directing these vast receipts and disbursements as not for a moment to disturb the equilibrium of commerce, embarrass individuals, SFFeebills .- We have printed and for sale, or in any way tighten the money market. It is loans at six per cent, interest instead of 7.30, but so much valuable time would necessarily 63-Major Gen. Sheridan has been assigned have been lost in popularizing a new loan that defeated; and besides, the difference of interest would not have been equal to three days' ex-ex-The Mississippi River has overflowed the penses. The policy may have looked "pennythe shape of youchers, requisitions, &c., will be wiped out as rapidly as the proper officers can aidit and adjust the account

The Second Series of the 7.30 Loan was exriies, to receive subscriptions for $230,000,000 of a Third Series, which is all that is authorizec by Congress, and is without doubt the last Some months ago it was "copperhead" to lan at this high rate of interest that will be of-tenths in currency-a right which would pre-** We direct the attention of our readers to spepose a return to specie payments, and make six per cent. in gold oven better than the higher

The privilege of converting the notes into 5.20

The first day of the Third Series opened with a subscription within a fraction of five millions, Notwithstanding the decline in gold, oil and the month of June will certainly see the hst of the 7.30s out of market. How early in June we cannot predict, but parties who wish

A Letter from Ex-President Buchanan.

Since this war begun, no man in the whole he party while the excitement attendant upon sixty million dollars in gold. was raging. The administration press stelen from in front of my hotel, on the night ic newspapers, but revived again only a few tee in my parlor, on Thursday morning last. first appeared in the New York Tribune of yes-

SIR: In the New York Tribune of vesterday I read, with no little surprise, an extract from the Evening Post, (which I do not see) stating in substance that the Cincinnati Democratic Convention of June; 1856, (not "May,) had come to a "dead lock," on the evening before Mr. Buchanan's nomination, and had adjourned least a hundred years in the enjoyment of conuntil the next morning, "with a fair prospect t would meet only to adjourn sine die;" that in the meantime arrangements were made to secure his nomination as soon as the Convention should reassemble, in consequence of pledges given by his friends. The nature of these pledges, according to the article in The Post, was openly avowed by Judge Black on the floor of the Convention, immediately after the nomination. According to it: "A silence ensued for a few moments, as if the Convention was anticipating something prepared, when Judge Black, of Pennsylvania (afterward Attorney General under Buchanan,) rose in his place and made a set speech, in which he proceeded to denounce Abolitonism and Black Republicanism very freely, and to argue that the States possed, under the Constitution, the right of secession. He went further, and told the Con- He was kind, courteous, frank and honorable vention that if the nominee was elected, and a He was prepossessing in his appearance, and the Black Republican should be elected as his successor, he (Mr. Buchanan) would do nothing to | was sure to be sustained by subsequent acquaininterfere with the exercise of it. This pledge was ample, and was accepted by the Southern

Court of Pennsylvania. It may be added that from the date of General Jackson's message of January, 1833, against South Carolina nullification and secession, until that of his own message of December, 1860, and indeed ever since, no public man has Drake, Esq., was called to the chair, and Mr. more steadfastly and uniformly opposed these J. H. Barker was appointed Secretary. dangerous and suicidal heresies than Mr. Buchanan. Had any person, in or out of the Conon this or any other subject, such an act would the terms of his letter accepting the nomination. | adopted: In this, after expressing his thanks, for the honor conferred, he says that, "Deeply sensible of the Universe to remove from our midst our the vast and varied responsibility attached to much esteemed brother operator, John C. Bowles. the station, especially at the present crisis in our affairs, I have carefully refrained from with the prespect of a long and useful life before seeking the nomination either by word or deed; and this statement is emphatically true.

A few words in regard to the alleged lock" in the Cincinnati Convention at the time one whom we have all so well known and high of its adjournment, on the evening of the 5th ly respected.-Therefore. June, after fourteen ballots had been taken for a candidate. It appears from its proceedngs, as officially published, that on each of these ballotings, Mr. Buchanan received a pluralty, and on the sixth attained a majority of all the vote of the Convention, but not the required are at rest," and that they may have faith to two-thirds. On the fourteenth and last ballot look up to our Heavenly Father and say "The of that evening, the vote stood 152½ for Bu-Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; changa: 75 for Piecce; 63 for Douglas, and Blessed be his Holy name. I for Cass. This being the state of the case. when the Convention assembled the next morn- engrossed, signed by the employees in this office the name of General Pierce and the Jilinois del-gation withdrew that of Judge Douglas, in o-the Bedford papers for publication. bedience to instructions from home by telegraph on the day before the ballotings had commenced. body. After this the nomination of Mr. Buchanan seemed to be a matter of course. He had never heard of a "dead lock" in the Convention or anything like it, until he read the article in The

W. Black of Pittsburg was a delegate to the the beloved and respected head of this organiza-Cincinnati Convention from Pennsylvania, and tion; therefore, be it being well known as a ready and eloquent speak- Resolved, That as a company, we sorely feel er, "shouts were raised" for a speech from him, the loss of one who has proved himself a gennmediately after the nomination was annount theman and a soldier-who has always been aced. To these he briefly responded in an able live to the best interest of the Company, preferand enthusiastic manner. From the identity ring its success and advancement in the object of their surnames, had this response, reported of his organization to personal convenience and with the proceedings, contained the infamous premotion-who estimates its honor and repuledge attributed to Judge Black, or anything tation above all to be kept sacred in all our pur like it, we might in charity have inferred that poses. the author of the article had merely mistaken Resolved, As individual members we shall the one name for the other. But there is noth- miss his cheerful countenance-his hearty good east color for any such mistake.

the war, he fell mortally wounded on the field ous friend and a confiding officer. of battle while gallantly leading on his regiment against the rebels.

I doubt not you will cheerfully do me justice ou for a cepy of the paper containing it .-JAS. BUCHANAN.

An Army of 160,000 Men to be Maintained.

my is only to be reduced to four corps of 40,000 little of the sympathy we would offer them men each, and that two of the corps are to be in their affliction. By our loss we measure country has been so much vilified, lied upon, negroes. That would leave the country bur- theirs, and can only point them to the true and abused as ex-President James Buchanan.

The most baseless charges have been constantly made against him, and the most unlikely untable that every soldier costs the Government $1,000 tened with a standing army of 80,000 white source of consolation in the presence of him who has said "those whom he loveth he chastened that every soldier costs the Government $1,000 tened." truths reported, until no doubt some honest by the Christiana riots, in this state, in which a citizen of Maryland lost his refused, in very many instances, to do the com- expected to continue to bear such an enormous the daily papers of this city, also to the Bedford mon justice of correcting any wrong statement burthen? We do not believe there is need of one papers for publication. ty was proven. We hope the time is speedily ciliatory policy would bring every Southern oming, when the most mendacious members of State into the Union within less than three the Abolition press may be shamed into at least months, and so firmly establish all relations beinvasion of Virginia, and the seizure of the U.

The question was not like que

S. arsenal at Harper's Ferry, by John Brown.

All these things lie at the door of the Jacobin

All these things lie at the door of the Jacobin and brutal mobs to sustain slavery, and at that him more than a year ago, and refuted at the are raving about extended punishment and The National flag which was cut down and time by the Pittsburg Post and other democrat- sweeping confiscation, would necessitate the employment of large and expensive armies: but of the October election, was found under a set- days since by the New York Post. The letter the government cannot possibly derive anything but detriment from such a course. We hope There is not one of the calumnies a- President Johnson will adopt such a policy as peace standard before fall. He can do so if he will. Whether this is done or not, we hope no This will portion of the permanent standing army of the country may ever be negroes. The people will not care to have to sustain an army of negro -Lancaster Intelligencer.

-MARRIED-

HAY-WEIMER .- At Akron, Ohio, on the 11th inst., by Rev. J. J. Excell, Valentine Hay, Esq., editor of the Somerset Democrat, to Mis. Libbie A. Weimer, of the former place.

We wish our friend Hay and his bride much happiness and hope that they may live at

-BIED-

STATLER .- At his residence in the vicinity of Schellsburg, on the 14th inst., Mr. Franklin B. Statler, in the 33d year of his age.

SHOOK .- On the 17th inst., at his residence near Bedford, Mr. John Shook, aged 34 years, 4 months and 16 days.

BOWLES .- In Buffalo, N. Y., on the 15th nst., Capt. J. Bowles, formerly of this place,- in the 34th year of bis age. The accompanying resolutions are so full that it seems unnecessary to preface them with an extended notice of the deceased. Mr. Bowles. was a young man of great natural loveliness.

pleasant impression he made upon a stranger tance. He attached many to him, and his death is deeply felt by his immediate ascociates as well You will doubtless be astonished to learn that ed to the writer, "He was one of the most plied by all Hair Dressers. Judge Black, afterward Mr. Buchanan's At- honorable young men I ever knew. I have torney General, by whom this pledge is alleged been intimately acquainted with him for about to have been made, and through whom the ev- ten years. I never heard him utter an unpleasident purpose now is to fasten it upon Mr. Ba- ant word. I loved him as a brother and will chanan, was not a delegate to the Cincinnati miss him, it may be, even more than his par-Convention, nor was he within 500 miles of ents." It is sad to see one so worthy and be-Cincinnate, during its session. Instead of loved, die so soon. But God appointed the time Corn, per bushel, this, he was at the very time performing his of his death, and christian submission bows high official duties as a Judge of the Supreme to the stroke, saying. "His the Lord, let Him do what seemeth Him good."

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 15, 1865. At a meeting of the associates in business, of the late Capt. John C. Bowles, at the Western Union Telegraph Office, in this city, J. R.

After a few appropriate remarks by Mr. Drake, a committee of three was appointed to vention, dared to make a pledge in his behalf, draft resolutions expressive of the feeling of the meeting, who on deliberation reported the have been condemned a few days thereafter by following resolutions which were unanimously

> Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty Ruler Lim, thus giving us another warning of the uncertainty of human life and expectations; and as we wish to testify our respect and esteem for

> Rssolved, That we sincerely condole with the bereaved parents of our departed friend, and while we sympathize with their loss, we trust that he has gone to that better world "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be g the New Hampshire delegation withdrew and tendered to his afflicted parents; also that

Resolved. That we attend the funeral in a

Headquarters, "D" Co., 74th Reg't. N. G. S. N. Y.

WHEREAS, It has pleased an All Wise Prov-Post.

It may be proper to state that Col. Samuel but painful illness, Captain John C. Bowles, ng in what Col. Black said which affords the will for the success of all our undertakings, and the generous impulses of his nature which at-Col. Black afterward sealed his hostility to tracted all of his command towards him as a ecession with his blood. At an early stage of man and a brother in whom we found a gener-

Resolved, That the intercourse of the several years with which Capt. Bowles has been identified with this company has endeared him to us y publishing this letter; and I would thank by many recollections. Now he is called to swell the ranks of his noble comrades for which he has mourned with us, we drop the silent tear to his memory, and submit to the ruling of Wheatland, near Lancaster, May 11, 1865. that kind Providence who affects but for our

Resolved, To the friends who are called to mourn the loss of an only son, we feel how in-It is said in Washington circles, that the ar-adequate are the use of words to express a copy of these resolutions be furnished by the Is there any reason why the people should be Secretary to the parents of Captain Bowles, to

A. B. TANNER, President

Announcements.

[Rates for announcing candidates : District Attoiney, $3.00; Treasurer, $3.00; Associate Judge, $2.00; Commissioner, $2.00; Poor Director, $1.00; Auditor, $1.00; cash, in advance.] DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce John Palmer, Esq., as a candidate for District Attorney, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention. We are authorized to announce E. F. Kerr, Esq., as a candidate for District Attorney, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

TREASURER.

MR. Editor: Please announce George Mandorff, of Bedford borough, as a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Democratic coun-

MR. MEYERS: Please announce William Bowles, of Bedford borough, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE. We are authorized to announce Isaac Kensinger, Esq., of Liberty township, as a candidate for Associate Judge, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention. MR. MEYERS: You will please announce ROBERT

STECRMAN, of Bloody Run, as a candidate for the office of Associate Judge, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention. MR. Editor :- Please announce John A. Moway, of Bedford borough, as a candidate for Associate Judge, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention. MR. MEYERS :- Please announce George Smouse, Jr., of Snake Spring township, as a candidate for the office of Associate Judge, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

COMMISSIONER. We are requested to announce MICHAEL S. RITCHEY, Esq., of Sneke Spring township, as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

To Die in a Bad Cause as those who fall in the rebel ranks undoubtedly do, is foolish. But on the other hand

Dyeing for a Good Cause as those who are wise and prudent enough to remedy the defects of nature with CRISTADORO'S HAIR DVE, are doing every day, in every City of the Union, ia eminently praiseworthy. This peaceful revolution is going on throughout the whole land, and thus beauty and harmony supplant homeliness and incongraity. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 as by his family friends. A gentleman remark- Astor House, New York. Sold by Druggists. Ap-

> Bedford Markets. [Corrected weekly by J. B. Farquhar.]

Flour, per barrel, $10 00 Potatoes, per bus. 50.
Wheat, per bush. 2 00 Eggs, per dozen, .15.
Rye, per bushel. 1 50 Butter, per lb. .20.
Corn, per bushel, 2 25 Lard, per lb. .20.
Oats, per bushel, 73 Bacon, per lb. .33