THE HEATED TERM.—The weather has been by J. H Wright, E.q., Mr. Ellas Snowberger to Miss Margaret Smith, daughter of Jesse K. Smith, most intensely hot for some time past. By way of variety, however, we have an occasional rain-storm, but only to be succeeded by a fiercer pouring down of the rays of old Sol.

Sir, I have fought for my country (and I do not boast of this) and the war being over, I want to see peace perfectly restored, the Union permanently re-established, on the white basis, chosen by the statesmen and patriets who founded the Republic. I find that there are men here at home, who never smelt powder, who bought themselves out of the draft, who are now endeavoring to prevent the return of the people of the South to the Union, by trying to force negro rule upon them. This is nothing more, nor less, than an effort to render useless all the blood that was shed and all the privations that were endured by Union soldiers, in putting down the rebellion. If the people of the South, after being whipped into sub are not to be allowed to come into the Union, except on condition that they be governed by negro votes, then the war was fought in vain-We soldiers think that when the last rebel army surrendered, the Union was restored. We do not think that it is necessary to keep the Southern States outside the Union, five, ten, or twenty years, because they will not be ruled by negroes. I also hear men called "Copper- orat- finish. beads," because they will not submit to the deg-Scientiously, as those men do who are in favor | small, but warranted to KEEP TIME. of pegro suffrage, and the other radical measwho refuses to celebrate the Fourth of July mand.
