THE ALARM IN CANADA.

Fears Of an Attack on Toronto NEW YORK, Nov. 16.-A special dispatch to the Herald, dated at Toronto, C. W., to-day, has the following:

"Intense excitement prevails here. Yesterday the Government placed troops at the disposal of the Mayor, and informed him that it was probable an early attack would be made on the city, with instructions to take as many prisoners as possible.

"On Tuesday night Col. Lowry's house was pelted with brickbats."
