genius has got off the following parody: See the kine so sleek and hairy,
Calmly chewing at their cud;
Pasture green around them growing,
And gad flies buzzing in the wood;
Tell them that you'd know their answer,
As you question every cow—
"Muley, tell me, tell me truly,
Who will pay for butter now?"

Chorus—Around the markets I am marching,
Asking who will tell me how,
In the name of all that's fearful,
We can pay for butter now? The farmers tell us. to our sorrow, The farmers tell us to our sorrow,
That cows are very dry this yea
But who can comfort from this bor
While butter's so extremely dea
Should you offer them but thirty,
They'd kick up a precious row,
So I insist on loudly bawling—
Who can pay for butter now!

Chorus—Around the markets I am marching,
Asking who will tell me how,
In the name of all that's dreadful
We can pay for butter now?

In the first number of the coming volume will be commenced an entire New Series of articles, entitled MATRIMONIAL INFELICITIES, by the well-known and popular humorous writer, Barry Gray, author of "Married Life," etc., etc. As a part of our plan to keep our readers an fait of the living literature of the world, and serve up for their cosmopolitan taste choice condensations from living writers of every country, we have enlisted the service of some able writers to translate Brief Royances from the French. German and Russian current literature.

But romance will be only a subordinate department; while a prominent feature of the new volume will be Original and Sparkling Sketches of character, persons and places.

The author of "Ashes from the Pipe of an Old Smoker;" "Daisy Howard;" "The Dremmer," and other favorite essayists, will figure under this head. In Foreign Correspondence the coming volume will be especially brilliant. Among other writers, Mrs. Estelle Anna Lewis, the poetess, and Hairty Harewoon Leech, the essayist, (both now residing abroad.) will act as special correspondents, jotting down for our readers everything that is new and interesting in the world of letters, art, fashion and society. THE GREAT INVENTION OF THE AGE HOOP SKIRTS. J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX EL-LIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT. This invention consists of DUPLEX (or two) EL The invention consists of DUPLEX (or two) En-peries Public Street Springs, ingeni-usly braided tightly and firmly together edge to dige, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable spring ever used. They seldom bend, the break, like the Single Springs, and consequent-ty preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more han twice as long as any single spring skirt that wer has or can be made.

wer has or can be made:

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently.

to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never af-terwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are supe-rior to all others.

The Hoops are dovered with 2 ply double twisted thread, and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all single steel hoop skirts. The three bottom rods on every skirt are also double steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use. All are made of the new and elegant corded tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest most desirable, comfortable and economical skirt ever made.

NEW VOLUME—NEW ATTRACTIONS.
Established in 1846, The Home Journal, (on the sixth of January next.) for the twentieth year, greets its old friends and subscribers.

It is still conducted by N. P. WILLIS, assisted by an efficient corps of able editors, talented contributors, and spiey correspondents.

Mr. WILLIS, while maintaining his allowed very able topic, The Chronicle of Gayety and Fashion, thinks he has succeeded in establishing a separate best authority for all that concerns the livelier progress of women.

As the voice of this new want of society, the Home Journal claims to be the indispensable first need of the ladies. One of the features of the new series will be the publication of a new and beautiful story, by Alpronse De Lamarine, entitled Filed Story, by Alphonse De Lamartine, entitled FIOR D'ALIZA: An Idyll of Italian Life, which is pronounced by eminent European critics, "the 'Paul and Virginia' of the nineteenth century," and which is being translated for our columns by George Perry. This will run through about ten numbers. In the first number of the coming volume, will be companed an entire New Neries.
