SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.—The following letter from Judge Rose of Altoona, to B. M. Greene, in regard to the Piano purchased of him speaks for itself:

ALTOONA, January 20, 1866.
B. M. GREENE, Esq.,—Dear Sir.—Allow me to express to you my entire satisfaction with the Steinway & Son's Piano, purchased of you last March.—As far as I am able to judge it combines all the necessary requisites of a perfect instrument. Quite a number of performers have tried it, and ALL pronounce Steinway & Son's as UNEQUALIBED. I have not the least hesitation in recommending their make as the best, and hope those of my friends who desire a good article may give you a call.
