

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, Hon. HIESTER CLYMER, OF BERKS COUNTY.

THE TWO CONVENTIONS.

The Democratic State Convention which was held on the 5th inst., came off very harmoniously, though largely attended from every portion of the State. Its proceedings were conducted in decency and order; its presiding officer behaved like a gentleman; its members treated each other courteously and respectfully; and its nominee spoke the speech of an orator and a statesman.

OUR "GOVERNOR."

O meum juer! "Republican," as well as Republics, are ungrateful. How rudely have our fondest hopes been blasted! How sadly have our brightest anticipations been disappointed!

This world is all a fleeting show For man's illusion given.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakespeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!"

Our "Governor" oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention.

A "BROKEN DOWN DEMOCRAT."

The Disunion party are so scarce of material, that they were compelled to go to the ranks of the Democrats to get timber for a candidate for Governor.

GEN. GEARY'S LETTER.

To S. Maguire, Esq., a leading Copperhead of Philadelphia, who wrote to him to know if he would accept a nomination from the Democratic party.

NEW CUMBERLAND CO., PA., August 14, 1865.

DEAR SIR:—Having been absent and just returned, I have the honor of finding your two letters, viz.: That of the 25th ult., covering your excellent letter of 8—J—, and that of the 3d inst., from Connelville.

I feel assured you will bear me testimony, that I have never personally aspired to the honor of the Chief Magistracy of the State of Pennsylvania, for which position you have the kindness to indicate my name; and further, that when it has been a subject of conversation, that I have instinctively shrunk from the responsibility.

I have been a life-long Democrat, and am still a Democrat in the truest and most ample construction of the word and meaning of the term.

When the thousands of brave men who bore the heat and burden of the late war, deserve our admiration and esteem, the "bumbo" Brigadiers and gassy Generals with which the army was so horribly afflicted, merit only the contempt, and excite, simply, the disgust, of all who estimate the soldier at his true worth.

Whist! the thousands of brave men who bore the heat and burden of the late war, deserve our admiration and esteem, the "bumbo" Brigadiers and gassy Generals with which the army was so horribly afflicted, merit only the contempt, and excite, simply, the disgust, of all who estimate the soldier at his true worth.

Whist! the thousands of brave men who bore the heat and burden of the late war, deserve our admiration and esteem, the "bumbo" Brigadiers and gassy Generals with which the army was so horribly afflicted, merit only the contempt, and excite, simply, the disgust, of all who estimate the soldier at his true worth.

Whist! the thousands of brave men who bore the heat and burden of the late war, deserve our admiration and esteem, the "bumbo" Brigadiers and gassy Generals with which the army was so horribly afflicted, merit only the contempt, and excite, simply, the disgust, of all who estimate the soldier at his true worth.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC REVIVAL!

Thad. Stevens' Earthquakes Coming!! Hurrah for the ground-swell! A general uprising of the people in behalf of Andrew Johnson and the Re-Union Democracy, is going on over the country.

At the municipal election in Troy, N. Y., a few days ago, the Democratic candidate for Mayor was elected by upwards of 900 majority.

The Democrats of Utica, N. Y., have elected nearly their whole ticket, and made large gains.

The charter election at Cairo, Ill., on the 27th ult., resulted in the election of the Democratic ticket, by a majority averaging from 250 to 325, a gain of about 500.

Ellenville, N. Y., has elected the whole Democratic ticket, by 255 majority. Last year the "Republicans" had 200 majority.

Rhinebeck, N. Y., which last year gave 100 "Republican" majority, now elects the Democratic ticket by 45 majority.

Alexandria, Va., which has been under the heel of the Radicals for four years, gives 100 Democratic majority.

This is a glorious Democratic revival. No wonder Thad. Stevens imagines he hears the rumbling of an earthquake.

PRaise FROM SIR HUBERT.

The excellent character of Mr. Clymer, the Democratic nominee for Governor, compels commendation from his bitterest political opponents.

"The Democratic Convention of Pennsylvania transacted its business with little difficulty, and has, perhaps, placed in nomination the best candidate that could have been selected from the ranks of the party.

"It gives us great pleasure to bear testimony to the high personal character of Hon. Hiestor Clymer, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. General Geary may well say that he has a 'foeman worthy of his steel.' Occupying positions exactly the reverse on all the great questions of the day, these two representative men will doubtless, in the canvass in that spirit which should characterize a great controversy between principles that are eternally and unequivocally hostile."

When the leading newspaper organs of the "Republican" party are thus forced to endorse the character of Mr. Clymer, it were a work of supererogation, to defend him against the puerile assaults of the "small fry" that will, doubtless, soon begin to nibble at his reputation.

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

Thaddeus Stevens made a speech in the Ramp Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices!

THE nomination of John W. Geary suits us exactly.

We are always in favor of Democrats for important offices, and if a sound Democrat, like Hiestor Clymer, cannot be elected, we, of course, prefer a slightly decayed one, like Geary, to an old "Republican" like Ketcham or Morehead.

Rumors are again in circulation that the Cabinet is soon to be re-constituted.

HARRISBURG LETTER.

Lex as Pollicium: The rival Conventions: Clymer, Johnson and the Union. Editor Geary:—You will excuse me for not writing my accustomed letter ere this, when I inform you that my services were called upon to assist in preserving the morals of our legislators during the memorable week which has just closed.

Col. McClure, said he rose to a point of order. The crowd yelled and roared with laughter, and the look of the President was one of utter dismay.

Mr. Kirkpatrick, of Allegheny, protested against being gagged, saying the gentleman from Bedford had violated his pledged word in calling for the previous question.

Mr. Cessna replied that he was doing what he did for the good of the party, and that he should not go to the gentleman from Allegheny to learn what was going on.

Mr. Kirkpatrick replied: "I hurl back upon the gentleman from Bedford the assertion that he has violated his pledged word, a thing no gentleman ever does."

Cessna subsided, and called for the putting of the vote on the previous question.

One of the first delegates who voted asked what question was before the body. The Chairman declared the vote to be on the resolution.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

That gave rise to an excited discussion, it being apparent that many members of the Convention regarded it as a cunning scheme for capturing all the patronage in case the nominee should be elected.

The able and energetic chairman of the Democratic State Committee, Hon. W. A. Wallace, will act in that capacity, under a resolution of the late Convention, until the meeting of the next Democratic State Convention.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

SCENES IN THE DISUNION CONVENTION.

The special reporter for the Lancaster Intelligencer, gives the following graphic description of the closing scenes in the Disunion State Convention:

The greatest excitement and confusion prevailed throughout the Hall; and to add to the general disorder, the President of the Convention showed himself utterly unfit to preside.

Mr. Benedict, the clerk of the House of Representatives, took his stand beside him to assist him. But it was no use. Honest John's head was too thick and his brain too much benumbed.

Mr. Benedict, His stupid decisions, which were made one by one, and reversed the next, gave rise to shouts of derisive laughter.

Mr. McClure, Col. McClure badgered him with points of order until he was made a really pitiable object.

Mr. McClure would solemnly remark, "If I be in order, sir," and the mere enunciation of the word "order," invariably brought down the house in shouts of laughter and applause.

Finally John Cessna got the floor against the general confusion, and proposed to re-commit the resolution in regard to President Johnson, to the Committee on Resolutions.

Col. McClure, said he rose to a point of order. The crowd yelled and roared with laughter, and the look of the President was one of utter dismay.

Mr. Kirkpatrick, of Allegheny, protested against being gagged, saying the gentleman from Bedford had violated his pledged word in calling for the previous question.

Mr. Cessna replied that he was doing what he did for the good of the party, and that he should not go to the gentleman from Allegheny to learn what was going on.

Mr. Kirkpatrick replied: "I hurl back upon the gentleman from Bedford the assertion that he has violated his pledged word, a thing no gentleman ever does."

Cessna subsided, and called for the putting of the vote on the previous question.

One of the first delegates who voted asked what question was before the body. The Chairman declared the vote to be on the resolution.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

Important Reports from Burlington, Vermont, Lasting for several days.

Important Reports from Burlington, Vermont, Lasting for several days. The Fenians in that vicinity, Uniforms of fifteen thousand men, and two thousand rifles of the very best pattern, have been transported quietly during the last ten days from New-York City and from Troy to Burlington, Vermont, where they now remain concealed, awaiting the advance of the Fenian host.

It is more than possible that these arms will see the light on St. Patrick's day, when there is to be a grand demonstration of some kind made by the Irish population in that locality.

Arms in abundance are said to be stored at Detroit, Sandusky, Buffalo, Ogdensburg, Painesville, and Montreal. The Fenians are organized in Burlington for service in Canada.

An old officer who has served in Mexico has command of the battalion. The Vermont Fenians have received trustworthy intelligence from Montreal that there was a secret meeting of the leaders of the movement on the night of the 1st inst.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

On the 25th inst., a building north of the city, containing a large quantity of arms, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the Fenians were the authors of the destruction.

Rumors of the Departure of a Fenian Regiment from Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, March 11.—There are rumors circulating here that a body of 800 Fenians, will leave here to-morrow evening for the Northern Central Railroad for Canada or somewhere else.

It is proper to say that said reports are deemed utterly sensational.

THE SEARCH FOR FENIAN ARMS AND DESTRUCTION OF CUSTOMS OFFICES. TORONTO, C. W., March 10.

The government's call for volunteers is being responded to with the utmost alacrity and enthusiasm. A circular published by the Customs Department specially instructs officers to thoroughly search all the baggage, trunks, boxes, and packages coming into the Province, and detain all arms, weapons and munitions of war found, or otherwise brought in or worn by passengers, who may be required to give their names and connection, with a list of arms, etc., taken from them.

Express goods are to be compared with their manifests, and packages may, with reasonable suspicion, be opened. Freight receipts and manifests are examined, and no package is to be mentioned in the manifest will be allowed to pass. The care is to be securely locked or sealed before they pass the frontier.

The greatest vigilance is expected from the officers in seeing that the prohibition against arms is enforced. The Department has also issued another circular, instructing officers that it is considered that the destruction of the Reciprocity Treaty will have the effect of bringing any pre-existing customs duties attached to imports into Canada, of the present list of free goods, which are to continue to be admitted free from any part of the world until the Legislature deems it advisable to reimpose duties thereupon, with the exception of dried fruits, the growth of the United States, furs, skins, pelts, and tails undressed, when imported directly from the States which will, after March 17, be liable to a duty of twenty per cent.

Great Alarm in New Brunswick—Depositors Making a Run on the Bank.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Saturday, March 10.—There is much alarm here about the Fenians, on account of our defenceless condition. The government has done nothing whatever to prepare for the emergency. There is a smart run on the banks for gold by depositors of small sums.

Gov. CURTIS and the State Treasurer have gone to Washington for the purpose of pressing the passage of a law to reimburse Pennsylvania for the amount of money expended for the recruiting and outfitting of troops during the late war.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, has not, nor does not now represent truly the people of the patriotic State that elected him in the paramount issues growing out of the recent rebellion, therefore:

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

In other times, we heard a vast deal of the slave driver's whip being cracked over the heads of Northern members of Congress. Now, it is the rattling whip which is presumed to carry terror in its crack.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, he and he hereby is requested to resign.