ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the pubtion of a weekly journal entitled EVERY SATURDAY:

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at one; attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only emertaining and instancive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a refl x of foreign periodical literature of the better class.
