O^N SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs, TICKNOR & FIELDS began the pub-heation of a weekly journal entitled EVERY SATURDAY:

A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING, SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the Eaglish and Continental magazines and pe-riodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that useh a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and in-structive in itself, but, interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the bet-ter class.

er class. EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and coun Tevens Sarunday is intended for town and con-try, for the fireside, the scaside, the railway and the scamboat. Its plan embraces locidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Scrial Tales, Sport Stories, Poems, Biographics, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with ju-dicions selections from the admirable popular pa-pers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these paper-arises from the fact that scientific subjects, howev-er barsh and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him. It will be, inshort, the sim of its publishers that Eveny Sarunday shall commend itself by its fresh-uest and variety to all classes of intelligent and culturate readers. Eveny Sarunday will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in dou ble columns, with an eng. avec title.
