TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

THE BEDFORD GAZETTE is published every Friday morning by MEYERS & MENGEL, at $2.00 per anum, if paid strictly in advance; $2.50 if paid within six months; $3.00 if not paid within six months. All subscription accounts MUST be uttled annually. No paper will be sent out of the State unless paid for IN ADVANCE, and all such subscriptions will invariably be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they are

All ADVERTISEMENTS for a less term than three months TEN CENTS per fine for each intertion. Special notices one-half additional All esolutions of Associations; communications of, GEO. BLYMYER. mited or individual interest, and notices of marriages and deaths exceeding five lines, ten cents per line. Editorial notices fifteen cents per line. All legal Notices of every kind, and Orphans Court and Judicial Sales, are required by law be published in both papers published in this

All advertising due after first insertion. A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows :

2 months. 6 months. 1 year.

*One square - $4.50 $6.00 $10.00

Two squares - 6.00 9.00 16.00

Three squares - -8.00 12.00 20.00

Quarter column - 14.00 20.00 35.00

Half adumn - 18.00 25.00 45.00

One column - 30.00 45.00 80.00 *One column * - - 30 00 45 00 One square to occupy one inch of space.

JOB PRINTING, of every kind, done with nestness and dispatch. THE GAZETTE OFFICE has just been refitted with a Power Press and new type, and everything in the Printing line can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest ates.-TERMS CASH.

All letters should be addressd to MEYERS & MENGEL, Publishers.

Attorneys at Law.

TOSEPH W. TATE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA., will promptly nd to collections of bounty, back pay, &c., all business entrusted to his care in Bedford advanced on judgments, notes, military d other claims. His for sale Town lots in Tatesville, where a of Church is erected, and where a large School ouse shall be built. Farms, Land and Timber are, from one acre to 500 acres to suit pur-

Office nearly opposite the "Mengel Hotel" and ank of Reed & Schell. April 6, 1866-1y

CHARPE & KERR, ATTORNEYS

AT LAW. BEDFORD, Pa., will practice in the courts of Bedford and adjoining counties Offsee of Juliana st., opposite the Banking House of Reed & Schell.

JOHN LUTZ.

URBORROW.

URBORROW & LUTZ

ATTORNEYS AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA.

Itiend promptly to all business intrusted to pare. Collections made on the shortest no nev are, also, regularly licensed Claim Agents They are, also, regularly lettered claim Agents di will give special attention to the prosecution claims against the Government for Pensions, let Pay, Bounty, Bounty Lands, &c. dimes on Julians street, one door South of the Mengel House," and nearly opposite the Inquirer

TOHN P. REED, ATTORNEY AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA. Respectfully tender is services to the public. Office second door North of the Mengel House. Bedford, Aug. 1, 1861.

JOHN PALMER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA. Will promptly attend by all business entrusted to his care. Particular attention paid to the collection of Hillary claims. Office on Juliana Street, nearly claims. Office on J

USPY M. ALSIP, ATTORNEY AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA. Will faithfully and remptly attend to all business entrusted to his are in Bedford and adjoining counties. Military wims, back pay, bounty, &c., speedily collected. Office with Mann & Spang, on Juliana street, to doors South of the Mengel House. an. 22, 1864,

I KIMMELL & LINGENFELTER. ATTORNEYS AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA., More formed a partnership in the practice of the Law. Office on Juliana street, two doors South of the "Mengel House,

H. SPANG, ATTORNEY AT and to collections and all business entrusted to lise care in Bedford and adjoining counties.

Office on Juliana Street, three doors south of the Mengel House," opposite the residence of Mrs. May 13, 1864.

J. W. DICKERSON.
FEYERS & DICKERSON, AT-TORNEYS AT LAW, Bedford, Pa., office me as formerly occupied by Hon. W. P. Schell, to doers east of the GAZETTE office, will practice the several courts of Bedford county. Pensionally and back pay obtained and the purchase disale of real estate attended to. [may11, '66.] JOHN H. FILLER, Attorney at Law, edford, Pa. Office nearly opposite the Po [apr.20, 66.—1y.

Physicians and Dentists.

D H. PENNSYL, M. D., BLOODY Run, Pa., (Inte surgeon 56th P. V. V.,) to his professional services to the people of the ace and vicinity.

Dec. 22, '65-1y*

W. JAMISON, M. D., BLOODY V . REN, Pa., tenders his professional servi-to the people of that place and vicinity. Office door west of Richard Langdon's store.

R. J. L. MARBOURG, Having ermanently located, respectfully tenders essional services to the citizens of Bedford on Juliana street, east side, nearly opposite

Banking House of Reed & Schell. Bedford, February 12, 1864. J. G. MINNICH. JR., DENTISTS, BEDFORD, PA. ce in the Bank Building, Juliana St. operations pertaining to Surgical or Me-ical Dentistry carefully performed, and ward. Tooth Powders and mouth Washes, ext articles, always on ha

TERMS-CASH. Bedford, January 6, 1865. R. GEO. C. DOUGLAS, Respecttenders his professional services to the Bedford and vicinity.
-2 doors West of the Bedford Hotel, der's Silver Smith Store. ce at Maj. Washabaugh's. TRIUMPH IN DENTISTRY!

EETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN, e use of Nitrous Oxide, and is attended with TEETH INSERTED new style of base, which is a combination and Vulcanite; also, upon Vulcanite, Gold, RARY SETS inserted if called for.

cure warranted or no charge made.

ETH FILLED to last for life, and all work dental line done to the entire satisfaction of the money refunded. Prices to correspond the time. times.

have located permanently in Bedford, leisit Schellsburg the 1st Monday of each smaining one week; Bloody Run the 3rd retaining one week; the balance of my in be found at my office, 3 doors South of thous Radford Pa.

1 House, Bedford, Pa. 166. WM. W. VAN ORMER, Dentist.

Bankers.

REED AND SCHELL, Bankers and EALERS IN EXCHANGE,

BEDFORD, PA., RAFTS bought and sold, collections made and y promptly remitted.

posits solicited.

UPP, SHANNON & CO., BANK-ERS, BEDFORD, PA.

BANK OF DISCOUNT AND DEPOSIT. ECTIONS made for the East, West, North both, and the general business of Exchange acted. Notes and Accounts Collected and thank of the state of the

INWARE OF ALL KINDS AT
B. Mc. BLYMYER & CO'S.

The told the chap inside who he cart when he supposed I he'd be a dead man. I then slipped any less lovely or self-sacrificing?

The Bedford Gazette.

BY MEYERS & MENGEL

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 23, 1866.

VOL. 61.-WHOLE No. 5,373.

Hardware, &c.

JOHN F. BLYMYER. GEORGE BLYMYER & SON having formed a partnership, on the 6th of March, 1866, in the -HARDWARE & HOUSE FURNISHING BUSINESS, respectfully invite the public to their new rooms, three doors west of the old stand, where they will find an immense stock of the most splendid goods ever brought to Bedford county. These goods will be sold at the lowest possible prices. Persons desirous of purchasing BUILDING HARDWARE will find it to their advantage to give a real. will find it to their advantage to give us acall.

WHITE LEAD.—We have on hand a large quantity of White Lead, which we have been fortunate to buy a little lower than the market rates.

The particular brands to which we would invite tention, are the Liberty White Lead. Liberty White Lead, Snow Franklin White Lead,

Washington White Lead,
Washington Zinc White Lead,
New York White Lead,
ALSO:—French Porcelain Finish;
Demar Varnish;
Varnishes of all kinds.
Flaxseed Oil, (pure.)
Turpentine and Alcohol.

All kinds of IRON and NAILS.

No. 1 CHRYSTAL ILLUMINATING COAL OIL.

OIL.

LAMPS in profusion.

We would invite persons wanting Saddlery
Hardware, to give us a call, as we have everything in the Saddlery line, such as Buckles, Rings, Hames and Webbing Leather of all kinds; also a variety of Shoe Findings, consisting of French Calf Skins, Morocco Linings, Bindings, Pews. etc.

Pegs, etc.

Housekeepers will find at Blymyer & Son's tore a great variety of household goods. Knives and Fork of the very best quality; Plated Table and Tea Spoons at all prices.

Give us a call and we can supply you with Barn oor Rollers, the latest improvements; Nova Scotta Forks and Spades. Grain and Grass Scythes and Snathes; Fishing Tackle; Brushes of all kinds; Demi-Johns; Patent Wheel Grease, Tar and Whale Oil, and an infinite variety of articles.

$20.000 WANTED—Would like to get it if our friends would let us have it. Less will do; but persons having unsettled accounts will close them up to the first of March, to enable us to close our old books. This should be done. GEO. BLYMYER & SON. may4,'66.

Drugs, Medicines, &c.

L. LEWIS having purchased the Drug Store, lately owned by Mr. H. C. Reamer takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Bedford and vicinity, that he has just returned from the cities with a well selected stock of DRUGS.

of Bedford and vicinity, that he has just returned from the cities with a well selected stock of DRUGS.

DRUGS.

MEDICINES.

PERFUMERY.

TOILET ARTICLES,

STATIONERY.

COAL OIL, LAMPS

AND CHIMNEYS.

BEST BRANDS OF CIGARS,

SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO,
FRENCH CONFECTIONS, &c., &c.
The stock of Drugs and Medicines consist of the purest quality, and selected with great care.

General assortment of popular Patent Medicines.
The attention of the Ladies is particularly invited to the stock of PERFUMERY, TOILET and PANCY ARTICLES, consisting of the best perfumes of the day. Colognes, Soaps, Preparations for the Hair, Complexion and Teeth; Camphor ice for chapped hands; Teeth and Hair Brushes, Port Monaies, &c.

Of Stationery, there is a fine assortment:
Billet, Note, Letter, Leaf and Mourning Paper, Envelops, Pens, Pencils, Ink, Blank Deeds, Power of Attorneys, Drafting Paper, Marriage Certificates, &c., &c., Also, a large quantity of Books, which will be sold very cheap.

Coal Oil Lamp Hinge Burner, can be lighted without removing the chimney—all patterns and prices. Glass Lanterns, very neat, for burning Coal Oil. Lamp chimneys of an improved pattern.

Lamp Shades of beautiful patterns.

Howe-Framity Dye Colors, the shades being light Fawn, Drab. Snuff and Dark Brown, Light and Dark Brown, Light and Dark Blue, Light and Dark Brown, Light and Boak Humphrey's Homeopathic Remedies.

Cigars of best brands, smokers can rely on a good cigar.

Rose Smoking Tobecco,

Michigan and Solace Fine Cut,

Natural Leaf, Twist and Big Plug,

Finest and purest French Confections,

PEUR DOMESTIC WINES.

Consisting of Grape, Blackberry and Elderberry

Fee Maddings which they can

The attention of physicians is invited to the stock of Drugs and Medicines, which they can purchase at reasonable prices. purchase at reasonable prices.
Country Merchants' orders promptly filled. Goods put up with neatness and care, and at reasonable prices.

J. L. LEWIS designs keeping a first class Drug Store, and having on hand at all times a general assortment of goods. Being a Druggist of several years experience, physicians can rely on having their prescriptions carefully and accurately compounded.

[Feb 9, '66-ti

Clothing, etc.

RALLY! RALLY! RALLY!

Come one, come all,

and examine THE EXCELLENT STOCK OF GOODS

AT LIPPEL'S

CLOTHING EMPORIUM AND FURNISHING

STORE.

A rare chance is offered to ALL to purchase goo and seasonable goods, at the lowest prices, by cal-ling at Lippel's.

If you would have Clothing call at Lippel's.

If you would have good and cheap Ladies' Dress Goods,
Calicoes,
Muslins,
Call at Lippel's.

If you would have furnishing goods of all descriptions, notions, etc., call at Lippel's.

If you would have the best quality of Groceries,

Goods of all kinds, sold at the most reasonable prices, and country produce of all kinds taken in exchange for goods, at Lippel's sep.25, 66.

CLOTHING EMPORIUM.—GEO. CREIMUND, Merchant Tailor, Bedford, Pa., keeps constantly on hand ready-made clothing, such as coats, pants, vests, &c.; also a general assortment of cloths, cassimeres, and gents' furnishing goods of all kinds; also calicoes, muslins, &c., all of which will be sold low for cash. My room is a few doors west of Fyan's store and opposite Rush's marble yard. I invite all to give me a call. I have just received a stock of new goods.

The Beaford Gazette.

AN UNWELCOME PASSENGER.

A PEDDLER'S STORY. A cold winter's night several years since, found a stage load of passengers men of his profession were generally about forty years of age, and gave eviliron handle just sliding down. dence of great physical strength. He gave his name as Lemuel Vinney, and shire.

was during the early part of last spring, the mud. one pleasant evening, that I pulled up at the door of a small village tavern in a motion in the car, followed by a Hancock county, Indiana. I went in, grinding noise, as thugh some heavy called for my supper, and had my horse taken care of. After I had eaten, I sat down in the bar-room. It began to rain about eight o'clock, and it was very dark out of doors. Now, I wanted to be in Jackson the next morning. for I expected a load of goods there for my way home.

and I knew if it did not rain I could he would see that my horse was fed a- I heard a human voice. bout midnight, as I wished to be off about two. He expressed some surprise at this and asked me why I did not stay for breakfast. I told him that I that a new lot of goods was waiting there. for me at Jackson, and I wanted to get there before the express agent left in replied.

the morning. There were a number of persons sit- said I. ting around while I told this, but I took little notice of them; only one answered. arrested my attention. I had seen that week a notice, for the detection of a notorious robber. The bills gave a description of his person, and the man before me answered very well to it. He was a tall, well formed man, rather slight in frame, and had the appearance of a gentleman, save that his face thing but the index of a villainous disscribing the individual. He said he ever acquainted with him.

no doubt as to his identity.

hostler was easily aroused, and by two for the top of the cart was framed with by political differences and unsettled by thought I should have light enough.

gone about half a mile, when my wagon wheel settled with a bump and a jerk into a deep hole. I uttered an exclamation of astonishment, but this was not all. I heard another exclama- in the barn cleaning down some stage tion from the same cause. What could this mean? I looked quietly around but could see nothing; yet I know that the sound was very close behind me. on, "you have had a good ride, have As the hind wheels came up I felt some- n't you?" thing beside the jerk from the hole. I heard something tumble from one side to another of my wagon, and I could also feel the jar occasioned by the move- was my reply. ment. It was simply a man in my cart. I knew this on the instant. Of course I felt puzzled. At first I imagined that some one had taken this method to obtain a ride. My next idea was that somebody got in to sleep there; but this passed away as soon as come to see what was the matter, and rects in the kitchen, now amusing the it came, for no man would have bro- I explained the case. After this I got fretting babe, now diverts half a score ken into my cart for that purpose. one of them to run and rout the sheriff of little folks in the library. She can And that thought, gentlemen, opened and tell him what I believed I'd got assisther younger brothers in their studmy eyes. Whoever was there had bro- for him. The first streak of daylight lies, read the newspaper to her weary ken in. My next thought was of the was coming up, and in half an hour it father, or smooth the aching brow of load was all sold out, and of course he with him. I told him the whole affair every emergency, she is an angel of had reached a safe place, and then creep the iron wrench out, and as I let the

of a tavern bar-room in a New England village. Shortly after we arrived the mud, and examined the hasp. The would remain until next Monday I a peddler drove up and ordered that his outer door of the cart lets town, and is should have the reward of two hundhorse should be stabled for the night. fastened by a hasp, which sips over the red dollars which had been offered. After we had eaten supper we repaired to the bar-room, where conversation The padlock was gone, and then the flowed freely. Several anecdotes had hasp was secured in its own place by a Indianapolis, and then went to stow been related, and finally the peddler bit of pine, so that a slight force from was asked to give us a story, as the within would break it. My wheel

Now I had him. My cart was alhard usage. I did not believe an ordi-"Well, gentlemen," he commenced, nary man could break out. I got on knocking the ashes from his pipe, and my cart as noiselessly as I got off, and putting it in his pocket, "suppose I then urged my horse in, still keeping tell you the last thing of any conse- my pistol handy. I knew that at a quence that happened me. You see I distance of half a mil further I should am now right from the West, and on come to a hard road, and so I allowed my way home for winter quarters. It my horse to pitch hisown way through

About ten minutesafter this I heard force was being appled to the door. I said nothing, but the idea struck me that the villain might judge where I sat, and shoot up through the cart at me; so I sat down on the foot board.

Of course I knew that my unexpected passenger was a villain, for he must me, which I intended to dispose of on have been awake ever since I started, and nothing in the world but absolute The moon would rise about midnight | villainy would have caused him to keep quiet so long, and then start up in this getalong through the mud very well particular place. The thumping and after that. So I asked the landford if pushing grew louder, and pretty soon

"Let me out of this!" and he yelled pretty loud.

I lifted my head so as to make him think I was in the usual place, and had sold my last load about out, and then asked him what he was doing

> "Let me out and I will tell you," he "Tell me what you are in there for!"

> "I got in here to sleep on rags," he

"How did you get in?" I asked. "Let meout, or I'll shoot you through the head!" he replied. Just at that moment my horse's feet struck the hard road, and I knew that the rest of the route to Jackson would be good going; the distance twelve miles. I slipped back to the front bore those hard, cruel marks which an board and took the whip. In fifteen observing man cannot mistake for any- minutes we cleared the woods, and away we went at a keen jump. The chap inside kept yelling to be let out. When I went to my chamber I ask- Finally he stopped, and in a few ed the landlord who that man was, de- minutes came the report of a pistoldid not know him. He had come there the other, and I heard the balls whiz that afternoon, and intended to leave over my head. If I had been on my the next day. The host asked me why seat, one of those balls, if not two of I wished to know and I told him that them, would have gone through me. the man's countenance was familiar, I popped up my head again and gave and I merely wished to know if I was a yeal, and then I said, "O God, save me!-I'm a dead man!" Then I made I was resolved not to let the landlord a kind of shuffling noise, as though I into the secret, but to hurry on to Jack- was falling off, and finally settled down siderable surprise. When we read the inson, and there to give information to on the front board again. I now urgthe sheriff and perhaps he might reach ed up the old mare by giving her an the inn before the villain left, for I had occasional poke with my whip stock, and she peeled it faster than ever. I had an alarm watch, and having The man called out to me twice more set it to give the alarm at one o'clock, pretty soon after this, and as he got no I went to sleep. I was alarmed at the reply he made some tremendous efproper time, and immediately dressed forts to break the door open, and as this between the President and Congress is myself. When I reached the yard I also at last failed him, he made several settled, confidence cannot be expected found the clouds all passed away, and attempts on the top. But I had no to revive. Capitalists will not care to the moon was shining brightly. The more fear of his doing anything there, invest their money in a country so torn o'clock was on the road. The mud dove tails, and each sleeper bolted to political uneasiness. We learn that inwas deep, and my horse could not travel | the post with iron bolts, I had it made very fast. However, on we went, and so I could carry loads there. By and almost ceased, not only in London, but alin the course of half an hour was clear by, after all else failed, the scamp com- so in Frankfort, the quotations being alof the village. At a short distance a- menced to yell "whoa" to the horse. head lay a large torest, mostly of great All this time I kept perfectly quiet, all other securities maintain their pripine. The road lay directly through holding the reins firmly, and kept pothis wood, and, as near as I can remem- king the beast with the stock of my ed more worthy of confidence than those ber, the distance was twelve miles | whip. We were not an hour going that Yet the moon was in the east, and as dozen miles, not a bit of it, and I had passenger was safe, yet I was glad when in the currency, and a consequent rise I came to the Jackson village, and in in the price of gold. And all this is the ten minutes more hauled up in front of result of the blustering vaporing of the the tavern, and found a couple of men Radical party, their constantly reitera-"Well, old fellow," said I, as I got down and went to the back of the wag-

"Who are you?" he said, and he swore as he asked the question. "I am the man you tried to shoot,'

"Where am I?-let me out." pistol is ready for you the moment you show yourself. Now lay quiet. By this time the two hostlers had over and shoot me, or know me down. door down the fellow made a spring. All this passed through my mind by I caught him by the ankle and he came | bridge over a stream which ran through | the treasure, and when he died, a rich the time I had got a rod from the hole. down on his face, and the moment I their farms, had a dispute concerning old man, he only knew this fair earth In a few moments my resolution was saw the chap I recognized him. He some repairs which it required, and one of ours as a dirty road to pick up monformed. My horse was thee deep in was marched to the lock up, and I told of them positively refused to bear any ey as you walk along. the mud, and I knew I ould slip off the sheriff I should remain in town all portion of the expense necessary to the without noise. So I drey my pistol, day .- After breakfast the sheriff came purchase of a few planks. Finally the gathered together around a warm fire and having twined my reps about the down to the tavern and told me I had aggrieved party went to a neighboring

I found my goods all safe, paid the express agent for bringing them from them away in my cart. The bulletholes were found in the top of the vewrench stood in a leathern bucket on hicle just as I expected. They were in full of adventures and anecdotes. He the side of the cart, and I cuickly took a line, about five inches apart, and had was a short, thick set man, somewhere it out and slipped it into the staple, the I been where I usually sit, two of them must have hit me somewhere about the small of the back and passed most new, made of a stort frame of upward, for they were sent with heavy his home was in Dover, New Hamp- white oak, and made on purpose for charges of powder, and his pistols were heavy ones.

On the next morning the sheriff called upon me and paid me two hundred dollars in gold, for he had made himself sure that he had got the villain.

I afterwards found a letter in the post-office at Portsmouth for me, from the sheriff of Hancock county, and he informed me that the fellow who tried to kill and rob me is in prison for life.

MEN WANTED.

The great want of this age is men. Men who are not for sale. Men who are honest, sound from centre to circumferance, true to the heart's core. Men who fear the Lord and covetousness. Men who will condemn wrong in friend or foe, in themselves as well as in others. Men whose consciences are steady as the needle to the pole. Men who will stand for the right if the heavens totter and the earth reels. Men who can tell the truth and look the world and the devil right in the eye. Men that neither swagger nor flinch. Men who can have courage without whistling for it and joy without shouting to bring it. Men in whom the current of everlasting life runs still, and deep, and strong. Men careful of God's honor and careless of Men's applause. Men too large for sectarian limits and too strong for sectarian bands. Men who do not strive, nor cry, nor cause their voices to be heard in the streets, but who will not fail nor be discouraged, till judgment be set in the earth. Men who know their message and tell it. Men who mind their own business. Men who will not lie. Men who are not too lazy to work, nor too proud to be poor. Men who are willing to eat what they have paid for. Men who know in whom they have believed. Men whose feet are on the everlasting rock. Men who are not ashamed of their hope. Men who are strong in divine strength, wise with the wisdom that cometh from above, and loving with the love of christ. Men of God!

FOOD FOR BONDHOLDERS.

The Hamilton Spectator published in Canada West, of the 19th ult., contained the following startling paragraph, which our capitalists will do well to read and seriously ponder upon:

The late rapid decline in United States securities in England has excited concendiary speeches of the Radical leaders, however, their open threats of civil war and fixed determination to regard the Southern States as conquered provinces and not as a portion of a restored Union, we can scarcely wonder at this decline. Until the difficulty at present existing vestments in United States securities have most entirely nominal. At the same time ces, Austrian included, which are deemof the American republic. The consequence of the decline in American secuthe road ran nearly in the West, I not much fear; perhaps I might tell the rities in Europe will, in due course of truth and say I had none, for I had a time, be a corresponding depression in I had entered this wood and had a good pistol, and more than that my the States, coupled with a depreciation ted threats of war with Great Britain, and their evident determination to prevent the London Athenaum, in reviewing a any reconciliation of the adverse parties in the States. THE ELDEST DAUGHTER AT HOME. -To be able to get dinner, to sweep the room, to make a garment, to tend a baby, would add greatly to the list of a young lady's accomplishments. Where can we behold a more lovely sight than "Look here, we've come to a safe the eldest daughter of a family standing stopping place, and mind you that my in the sweet simplicity of her new womanhood, by the side of her toiling, careworn mother, to relieve and aid her? Now she presides at the table, now disuspicious individual I had seen at the was broad daylight. In less than that her fevered mother. Always ready with supposed I had money with me. In in a few words and then made for the ove, and a blessing to the home circle. this he was right, for I had over two cart. He told the chap inside who he Should she be called out of it to origi-

THE LAW.-Two Dutchmen, who built and used in common a small the mud and filth in which he sought hand, said:

"I'll give you all dish money if you'll make Hans do justice mit de bridge." "How much will it cost to repair it?" sked the honest lawyer.

the Dutchman.

"Very well," replied the lawyer, pocketing one of the notes, and giving him the other; "take this and go and get the bridge repaired; 'tis the best course you can take.

"Yaas," said the Dutchman slowly, 'yaas, dat ish more better as to quarrel mit Hans;" but as he went along home he shook his head frequently, as if unable after all, to see quite clearly how he had gained anything by going to DISTRESSING .- A few days since a ing "stake oats"—the only cereal, to judge from his appearance, with which he had been acquainted for many a hungry month. A fanciful wreath of young lady fled, leaving the old horse quietly munching the wreaths and few, if any, exceptions. crown of her hat.

This morning however she propounded it quickly disappeared. a stunner which "brought down the house." Intently watching her mother sweeping, as if to learn the art she must finally practice, saying not a word, girls?"

MANHOOD AND WOMANHOOD .- Who are you, young man, young woman living in this country and age, and yet doing nothing to benefit others? Who are you-blessed with body and intellect, and yet an idler in the busy workshop of life? Who are you with immortal soul, and yet that soul so deaf to the myriad voices all about you that call to duty and to labor? Arise! and be a faithful toiler. God calls you-humanity calls you-and they have both a right to all your powers. Arise! Make your whole life one scene of industry! Arise and go forth, and every moment your feet shall press or your hand touch some pedal or key in the "organs that shake the universe." Arise! there is work for you to do. You were created to toil and bear a hand where the hammers of time are ringing as they fashion the fabric of eternity.

GOOD ADVICE.-Some one says: "Girls, let us tell you a stubborn truth! No young woman ever looks so well to a sensible young man, as when dressed in a plain, neat, modest attire without a single ornament about her person. She looks then as though she possessed worth man about commencing the study of in herself, and needed no artificial rig- law, he was advised not to enter the leging to enhance her value. If a young gal profession, for it was already crowdwoman would spend so much time in calculating her mind, training her tem- nough at the top." per, and cherishing kindness, mercy, and other good qualities, as most of them do in extra dress and ornaments, to increase their personal charms, she would ing vermin, astounded us with the asat a glance, be known among ten thous- sertions: "A fortnight since I was full and-her character would be read in of rats, and now I don't think I have her countenance."

WINGED GAME.—A late number of work on natural history, gives a list of the different terms which are properly applied to flocks of various kinds of father." winged game-a blunder in which would at once settle one's character as a sportsman. Thus one ought to say a brood of grouse, a bevy of quails, a cover of partridges, a covert of coots, a dropping of sheldrake, a flight of woodcock, a gaggle of geese (when they are at rest), a skein of geese (when on the wing), a herd of swans, a nid of pheasants, a spring of teal, a sege of herons, a team of wild ducks a trip of dotterels, a wing of plovers and a wisp of snipes.

MRS. PARTINGTON STILL TALKS. "Dear me, how fluidly he talks?" said Mrs. Partington, recently at a temperance meeting. "I am always rejoiced when he mounts the nostril, for his eltayern. He heard me say that my time the sheriff came and two men a helping hand, or cheerful smile for oquence warms every cartridge of my

> It is estimated that three thousand emigrants have been killed on the way to Montana, this season.

A FABLE-A young man once picked up a sovereign lying on the road. Ever afterward, as he walked along, he kept his eyes steadfastly fixed on the ground, in hopes of finding another. And in the course of a long life he did pick up, at different times, a good amount of gold and silver. But all these days, as he was looking for them, he saw not that heaven was bright above him, and nature beautiful around. He never once allowed his eyes to look up from

Modern Fashions .- A young "lady" from the country, now employed lawyer, and placing ten dollars in his in a New York hoop skirt factory, is said to have written to a friend a letter from which the following is extracted:

"As for the lo necs, the loer it is the more fashunable you are, and the less close you ware the more you are dressed. "Not more ish five dollars," replied miss Geolia gave me a blue silk of herze and i cut its nec orf and susan simmonz cut orf herz and we attrax a great deal of attenshun to our necs promenadin in the streets like other ladies an holdin up our close. Nobody isnt nothing who dusnt hold up her close, an the hier you holtz um the moar youre thot of."

THE VIRGINIA TOBACCO CROP .- The Richmond Whig says that the Virginia tobacco crop has turned out well, the quantity being considerable and the quality good. Nearly every farmer whose land admitted of it has raised tobacco, and as this is the great money fashionably dressed young lady, with crop of Virginia, the Whig anticipates one of those funny little hats upon her that by the sale of their tobacco the farhead, was slowly airing her charms a- mers will be placed in a good financial long Washington street, Indianapolis, position, and can begin their agricultuwhen she passed a country horse munch- ral labor next year under better prospects.

THE MORMON WOMEN.—A Salt Lake correspondent says: The exceeding green leaves encircling the funny atom | plainness, not to say ugliness of Morof a hat attracted the attention of old mon women is a fact that has been comrack'o bones, and he nipped it. The mented upon by almost all the differhat was securely tied under the dimp- ent visitors to Salt Lake City, as inled chin, and for a while the frightened deed it was impossible for the most lady, whose piercing shrieks alarmed cursory observer to avoid noticing it; the whole neighborhood, was in immi- but although often mentioned, I doubt nent danger of strangulation. Finally, if justice has ever been done the subhowever, something gave way, and the ject, which appears to be one of those general rules to which there are very

"Pur down that pickle!" The words Dust .- A few Sabbaths since, Eda are uttered hurriedly and harshly by was, at her own request allowed to go the sergeant, to an ungracious private, to the Sabbath school for the first time, who, carried away by his hungry pasand there she learned the startling in- sions, has snatched a pickle from the telligence that she was made of dust! barrel. "And why should I put down Little Eda's mind was fully impressed | the pickle?" queries the private mildly. with the importance of the great truth, | "Put down that pickle!-that's all I as was evinced by her frequent reference to the subject in the shapeof ques-determinedly. "Down it goes then!" determinedly. "Down it goes then !" tions answerable and unanswerable. he cried, and stuffing it into his mouth ANECDOTE OF DR. GUTHRIE .-"They say I am growing old because my hair is silvered and there are crow's her eyes resting upon the little pile of feet upon my forehead, and my step is dirt accumulated by the mother's not so firm and elastic as of yore. But broom. Just as the dirt was to be swept they are mistaken. That is not me. The into the street, the little philosopher knees are weak, but the knees are not burst forth; "Ma! ma! why don't you me. The eyes are dim, but the eyes save the dust to make some more little are not me. This is the house in which I live, but I am young-younger now than I ever was before."

"SIR," said a fierce lawyer," "do ou, on your solemn oath, declare that this is not your handwriting?"

"I reckon not," was the cool reply. "Does it resemble your handwriting?"

"Yes, sir I think it don't." "Do you swear it don't resemble your writing?" "Well I do old head." "You take your solemn oath that this writing does not resemble yours in a single letter? "Y-e-a-s, sir." "Now how do you know?" "Cause I can't write"

"Sambo, am you posted in de natur al sciences ?"

"Sartingly-ob course I is." "Can you tell me de cause ob de great rot in potatoes for de las' many years gone by ?"

Oh, dat's easy 'nough for de merest chile in scientific larnin.' De great rot in potatoes is all owin' to de rot-toter-y motion ob de earth." When Daniel Webster was a young ed. His reply was: There is room e-A MILLER, in giving a testimonial to the proprietor of a powder for destroy-one." An Irish girl at play on Sunday, was accosted by the priest, "Good morning daughter of the devil." She meekly replied, "Good morning,

A LADY, speaking of the gathering of lawyers to dedicate a new court house, said she supposed they had gone "to view the ground where they must shortly lie."

"Do you think lager beer intoxica ting?" "Vell, ash for dat, Igant say. I trink feefty to seexty classes a tay, end it tosh not hurt me, but I don't know how it would be if a man vash to make a hog of hisself."

the mails were very irregular, said: "It was just so in my young days—no trusting any of 'em." A friend says he's either head over

An old lady, hearing somebody say heels in love or else he's got the coliche can't tell which, as he is not certain which he tasted last, kisses or watermelons.