Beware!

The Mongrels have succeeded, for some years past, in foisting upon the unsuspecting, certain pretended neutral newspapers, such as the Pittsburg Chronicle, the Philadelphia North American, the Baltimore American, and other sheets of a similar character. As this is the time of year when subscriptions for these incendiary publications are taken, we desire to put our readers on their guard, so that they may not be imposed upon. There is not a more rabid Disunion Negro journal published in the United States, than the Baltimore American and the North American, of Philadelphia. As for the Pittsburg Chronicle, it is a cowardly concern, which strikes the Democracy whenever it dares, and should be shunned accordingly. If people would take a good neutral paper, let them subscribe to the Baltimore Star, or the Philadelphia Ledger; if they desire a sound political city paper, a white man's journal, let them take the Harrisburg Patriot & Union, the Philadelphia Age, or the Baltimore Gazette, or Transcript. The Patriot & Union especially should be patronized. It is the central organ of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and its weekly issue is really able and useful. Of course, we think every body should subscribe to the Bedford Gazette; but after the Gazette, we recommend the Weekly Patriot & Union. The Mongrels are getting up clubs for the N. Y. Tribune. Our friends should not allow themselves to be thus outgeneraled. An antidote to Greeley's poison must be circulated. Get every body you can to take the Gazette, and the rest of the year will be the time to extend the usefulness of Democratic papers. Let every working Democrat interest himself in this behalf.

Spolia Opima.

"When Greek meets Greek, then comes the tug of war!" When Mongrel meets Mongrel, then comes the tug for the spoils. The latter is the rendering of the old proverb, as applied to modern American politics. The mixed and motley set that have controlled the government during the last six years, (having, during their ascendancy, fought for the offices alone, shaped the legislation of the country only to the end that they might retain the fat things which attach to official station, used the machinery of war, the muscle and blood and life-breath of the devoted soldier, merely to secure the emoluments of office, and having determined even to keep the Union dissolved to maintain themselves in power) are just now engaged in parceling out among themselves the fruits, the spolia opima, of their ill-gotten victory. In Pennsylvania the struggle among them to become the U. S. Senatorship, soon to be vacant by the expiration of the term of Senator Cowan. Curtin, Cameron, Stevens, Forney, Grow and Morehead are all aspirants for this position. The struggle between them is growing fiercer and bitter. Especially is this the case as between Curtin and Cameron. These two worthies are now busily engaged in plotting and counter-plotting against each other, and the whole Mongrel nest is in a buzz of excitement over the fight between them. Now, were we a Mongrel, our sympathy would be decidedly with Curtin. He is the meanest man in the whole lot, and, therefore, would best represent his party. It is true, we might mistrust his fidelity, for he has betrayed his own party several times and the Democracy once, during the last six years. But that only proves his meanness, and, therefore, his fitness to be a Mongrel U. S. Senator. What the Mongrels themselves think about him, remains to be seen.

Curtin or Cameron, Cameron or Curtin, "Doubtful things are mighty uncertain!"

JOHN MORRISSEY is a reformed prize-fighter; another Congressman is an un-reformed miscegenator. "You pays your money, and you takes your choice."

THE ELECTION IN ALLEGANY COUNTY, MARYLAND.

We are informed that in a number of the districts of Allegany county, Md., at the late election, the judges refused to receive the votes of persons not registered in 1865, declining to be governed by the registration made by the registrars appointed by Gov. Swann. By this process, some three or four hundred conservative voters were disfranchised in that county. Besides, in some districts the radical mongrels had armed bands at the polls and thus prevented conservatives from approaching to deposit their ballots. Still, with all the force and fraud against them, the friends of the Constitution and laws, made a good fight. McCulloh, Conservative, was elected to the House of Delegates, and though the Judges gave certificates to the remainder of the mongrel candidates, their seats will be contested, and we doubt not, the offices into which they have been foisted by force and fraud, given to their conservative opponents. We make the following extract from a letter received from a friend in Cumberland, which shows that Col. Spates, conservative, is really elected to the Senate, instead of Ohr, mongrel, but has been counted out by the Judges:—"The Radicals have all had notices served upon them, that their right to the offices to which they claim to have been elected, would be contested. Colonel Spates, conservative candidate for the Senate, took four men, two radicals and two conservatives, to the Clerk's office, last Saturday, and demanded the tickets, which they counted, and discovered that the Judges had made a mistake, the count giving Spates a majority of 35, instead of his opponent, Ohr, 12, as the radical Judges had certified."

REV. DR. JAMES PRESTLEY, Pastor of the Second United Presbyterian Church of Pittsburg, has been tried by a court of his church, on the several charges of "Unkind, cruel and violent treatment of his wife and family," "Using vulgar and profane language" and "Infidelity to his marriage vow," and has been found guilty of all the charges. He was deposed from the ministry and excommunicated from the church.—Prestley was one of the preachers that went about haranguing Abolition gatherings and was one of the props of the Mongrel party in Allegheny county. "Time sets all things even."

WENDELL PHILLIPS says that President Johnson must be impeached because of "his sins against the whole essence and spirit of the hour." If Wendell (as a German friend of ours calls him) thinks essence and spirit count, let him flow freely enough, now-a-days, he ought to pitch into Congress, not the President.

MONARCH OF ALL HE SURVEYS!—Col. Jo. Severns, of the Washington Union, has been appointed Surveyor of the Port of Philadelphia.

WM. KENNEDY, Esq., of the Carlisle Volunteer, has been appointed an Assistant Assessor. Lucky boy!

HARRISBURG.

Hartranft makes a Forward Movement and Fails Back—Troubles of Gov. "No. 1" Curtin electioneers for the U. S. Senatorship—The Speakership of the House, etc.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 26, 1866.
 MR. EDITOR:—Your correspondent, after a silence perhaps too long protracted, has concluded once more to furnish you with a few items from the State Capital. Quite a sensation was produced here among the Mongrel politicians, a few days ago, by the announcement that Gen. Hartranft had resigned the Auditor-Generalship to take a Colonelcy in the regular army, to which, it was said, the President had appointed him. It seemed strange that so high-toned a patriot as Hartranft would stoop so low as to accept an appointment at the hands of the infamous author of "My Policy," and the upshot has proved that rumor had done the gallant General injustice, for, it seems, he has not resigned at all, but intends to hold on to his position "on the hill." There are those who still say (envious and malicious ones) that the General had advanced his pickets toward Washington, with the intention of laying siege to the White House, but not feeling sure of his base, and fearing that some other eager patriot might occupy his fortification at Harrisburg, he evacuated, he concluded to fall back upon that position and hold it to the last. Brave man! How could the State do without him?

Our newly elected (?) Governor, he of the "no prefix," is in great tribulation just about this time, in regard to his appointment of Cabinet Officers. A number of "loyal" men are willing to serve as Attorney General, Secretary of the Commonwealth, &c., &c. In fact their willingness to sacrifice themselves in this way, is pressed so unrelentingly upon the Governor's attention, that he is in quite a quandary as to how he will succeed in rewarding their disinterested patriotism. There's Frank Jordan, of your town, would like to be Attorney General; but John Scott, of Huntingdon, wants a little pay for services rendered, and claims that nothing but that position will remunerate him for turning his back upon his old friends, and as Geary naturally sympathizes with renegades, John stands a good chance of—"passing over Jordan." Outside pressure, however, may yet put your townsman all right. But between these two (and several more) our Democratic Governor, "without prefix or affix," is in a terrible stew. He "could be happy with either," if other dear charmer were away! But how is he to satisfy both? Poor Geary! he is in the hands of the Philistines, and he cannot now see his way as clear as Samson could when he was asked to be led to the pillars of the temple. Sic transit gloria gubernatoris!

Gov. Curtin is busily engaged in electioneering for the Mongrel caucus nomination for U. S. Senator. Strange as it may seem, he is apparently the strongest candidate spoken of at present. Gen. Cameron is also on the tapis, and I will be greatly mistaken if he doesn't give His Excellency some trouble, before the latter reaches the vacant chair of Edgar Cowan. Curtin has had his fagelman, McClure, to call a county convention in Franklin county, for the purpose of instructing for him (Curtin) for U. S. Senator. Stambaugh, the member from Franklin, and McCoughy, the Senator from the Franklin district, are friends of Cameron, and Curtin took this plan to tie their hands. It remains to be seen whether they will tamely submit to this sort of work. Curtin is just about the meanest man in the whole "Mongrel" party, having deceived everybody that ever placed confidence in him, and I, therefore, think him the very best representative of that party that could be sent to the U. S. Senate. Forney and Stevens too, are aspirants for this position. Apropos of this, it is related that a certain politician visited the latter some time ago, upon the subject of transferring some of his votes to one or another of his competitors. Old Thad. opened out on his visitor as follows: "Forney! No one ever trusted him except Buchanan! Curtin! why, he is the greatest liar in the State, and as to Cameron, he is the greatest rascal! Now, what would you have me do?" A lovely set, are they not?

The U. S. Senator question slightly involves the minor one of Speaker of the House. Col. Quay, of Beaver, is the Curtin candidate, whilst W. B. Waddell, Esq., of Chester, is put forward by the Cameronians. Waddell is the better man of the two, and was really the leader of his party in the last House. It is probable, however, that Quay will be the man. But enough for this time from LEX.

LETTER FROM HOMESPUN.

NEAR CHENEYSVILLE,
 Nov. 26, 1866.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—I am quite relieved to find that the black-guard who has been slandering the people, as well as the topography, of our good old Southernland, under the name of "Homespun," is not the same who, last year, wrote for your paper, in ob-jurgation of the kinky-headed lunatics who wouldn't take passage in his "car of progress." I had been informed that "Pilgrim" is identical with your "Uncle Toby" of last year, but could not believe that the latter had fallen so far from grace as to be capable of so villainous a calumny upon his own friends and neighbors as that uttered in his first letter. Hence my heart was gladdened when I saw, in the GAZETTE, a repudiation and condemnation of that calumnious letter over the proper signature of the veritable "Uncle Toby" himself. I was rejoiced at this, because I could not bear to think of one whose gentle calling requires him to reprove the back-biter and slanderer, and who professes to be a minister of Him Who when He was "reviled, reviled not again," thus dipping his pen "in the gall of bitterness," and striving to blacken the good name of those who, never entertained even a harmful thought of him. The idea of such wanton malignity was so revolting to me that I could not for a moment, connect it with the lamb-like character of our gentle "Uncle Toby," remaining in the "Shadow of the Mountain," or riding quietly and inoffensively in his "Car of Progress." It could not be possible, I thought, that the Fiend himself, had insinuated his loathsome shape under so fair an exterior. I trust the suspicion from me, and almost hated myself for being so ungenerous as to entertain it for a moment. I am convinced, however, of one thing, viz: "Pilgrim" is not a resident of this township. People here are not taught to spell the word campaign (when applied to a political campaign) with only one s; hence "Pilgrim" can't be a Southern-american. By the way, don't you think that "Pilgrim," after spelling campaigns, with but one s, would spell his own name thus, As? But it makes very little difference where this contemptible calumnious lives. The poison he intends for others, will only kill himself. Let the viper blow. His fangs will soon be the trophy of the friends of HOMESPUN.

HANDSOME GAINS.—Although the Democracy of this State, during the past six years, had to encounter Satan and his agents, in the shape of war, provost marshals, sneaks, spies, internal and external foes, forts, prisons and even death, they have, after overcoming all this opposition, increased their vote from 230,000 to 290,000—just 60,000; while our enemies, with all these elements to favor them, have increased from 202,000 to 207,000—or only about 45,000. If Democrats grow in this manner while the soil is filled by our enemies and in time of war, what there to prevent an increase of a hundred fold in time of peace? The Democratic party dead! No, sir-ee. It will whip the whites and black Republicans combined the next time.—Clearfield Republican.

PERIODICALS.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.—This widely circulated and popular journal of the Industrial Arts and Sciences, enters its twenty second year, on the first of January next, and the publishers propose to signalize the occasion by enlarging it to the size of the most costly Scientific Journals of Great Britain, without, however, increasing the subscription price. The Scientific American is the organ of the inventors and artisans of America. It publishes, officially, every patent granted by the Government Patent office, and each number contains the weekly issue of Patent Claims, with copious notices of new inventions, and able reviews of foreign inventions and discoveries in every department of science. It also contains numerous engravings of new inventions, tools, implements &c. Terms $3 per annum; $1.50 for six months; $1 for four months; clubs of ten and upward, $2.50 each. Address Munn & Co., 37 Park Row, New York city.

3,000 PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS.—The new and beautiful edition of Webster's Illustrated Unabridged Dictionary, besides a number of other valuable Premiums, will be given by the proprietors of The Sunday-School Times to any one who will solicit subscribers to their paper. With the first of January, 1867, a new $500 Prize Serial is to be published in the Times, which will form a special attraction. The Columbia Republican says, "One dollar and a half cannot be invested to better advantage in any family, or by any teacher, than in subscribing for this paper. It is full of original matter, and we cannot speak of it in too high terms of commendation." A Descriptive List of a number of attractive works that are to be given as Premiums, also sample copies of the paper, will be sent free on early application to the publishers of The Sunday-School Times, Philadelphia.

THE DEMOCRATIC ALMANAC FOR 1867.—This invaluable compendium will contain, besides the usual matter of all almanacs, full and official returns of all the elections held this year, compared with previous years, the most important acts of Congress, President Johnson's Veto Messages, Lists of members of both the old and new Congress, and statistical and other information indispensable to every politician, farmer, merchant and mechanic. The great feature will be a complete list of all arbitrary arrests made under the Lincoln dynasty. The Almanac will be ready by January 1st, 1867. Single copies, 20 cents; six copies, $1.00; fourteen copies, $2.00, postage paid. Address Van Evrie, Horton & Co., No. 162 Nassau st., New York.

NEW PAPER.—John H. Keatley Esq. has purchased the material for the establishment of a new paper in this place, the initial number of which will be issued in two or three weeks. It is, we learn, to be called the Central Record, and will be devoted to the dissemination of temperance and literature. Considering the high price of paper and everything else appertaining to the printing business, the undertaking is rather a bold one; but if ability, energy, and perseverance will put it through, Mr. K. is bound to succeed. We wish him much success.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

The Sacramento (California) Bee, of October 16th says: "The Chinese population of this city are troubled in mind, and for that reason some of their prominent men-to-day submitted to the board of trustees a document, of which this is a copy: 'To the Honorable the President and the Board of Trustees of the City of Sacramento: The undersigned, residents of the city of Sacramento, pray your honorable board to grant them permission to burn firecrackers and otherwise celebrate, in accordance with the customs of their native country, for the period of three days, for the purpose of driving the devil from the city, and particularly from that portion of it occupied by the Chinese. (Signed) Sacramento Oct. 16, 1866.' The temple for the orgies is being arranged, and the three days' performance will probably commence towards the end of the week."

On a Stumping Tour.

Chief Justice Chase, the great law expounder of the "Lincoln" dynasty—is on a stumping tour among the northern negroes. Thursday night he made his debut in Philadelphia, before the Female branch of the tribe. Verily! what a noble position for a Judge! what a mark for emulation! but then, water will find its level.—The Jeffersonian.

"The Amendments."

The North has pronounced for this amendment with such a degree of unanimity, that we can see no hope for the settlement of our political troubles, and the admission of the South to the right of representation in Congress, but in its adoption, N. Y. Times.

The Times is mistaken. One election does not finally settle a question in this country. A decision at the polls is not irrevocable, but granting it, we do not think that the late elections prove that the majority of the Northern people favor the constitutional amendment; they do not prove that that demand may not be reconsidered. It is not just to invite a people to ostracize their leading citizens. It is not just to prescribe precedent conditions to the exercise of rights conferred by the Constitution, and if the Southern people decline to acquiesce in any such injustice, and make another appeal to the sense of fair dealing of the North, it does not follow that the latter will continue to do injustice in the future because they have been betrayed into it in the past.

The unanimity of which the Times speaks amounts to this: that in a poll of six hundred thousand votes in Pennsylvania, for instance, the Radicals have a majority of 17,000. Now, every sensible man knows that the election was not carried in Pennsylvania or elsewhere by a fair argument of the constitutional amendment, but by an incessant exasperating appeal to the passions. The bloody horrors of the late war were recalled. The costly preparations and vast expenditures of the contest were dwelt upon, with every magnifying detail, except that of the gigantic swindling of political contractors. The dark crime of treason was painted in its blackest, most revolting colors. The loss of fathers and sons, and brothers and husbands, was aggravated by passionate rhetoric and vindictive phrases. The mournful memories of the hospital, the sad tragedies of the prison, were set forth with every harrowing detail of sorrow and agony. The defiant language of a bold, high spirited foe, nerved to desperation, uttered throughout the contest, was reproduced in every variety of provoking presentation, and the spirit of these same people, who would have down their arms, was grossly and persistently represented as one of insolent demand. But the American people are incapable of continued injustice. They will respond to the claims of fairness and constitutional rights. The Radicals may rejoice in their brief hour of triumph, but the reaction of conservative patriotism and of a catholic nationality will ere long assert itself, and the South be restored to its wonted place in the national legislature.—National Intelligencer.

WHERE'S THE NIGGER?—A Radical sheet, the Tamaqua Journal, says: "We have had the Republican victory—now where's the Nigger?"

Thereupon the Bellefonte Watchman "goes in" at the following rapid rate: "Go to your store and you get from eighteen to twenty-five cents worth of nigger in every yard of muslin you buy; from ten to fifteen cents worth of nigger in every yard of calico you wear and children use; from six to eight dollars worth of nigger in each barrel of flour your family consumes; twenty-five cents worth of nigger in each pound of coffee you purchase; from eight to twelve cents worth of nigger in every pound of sugar you buy to sweeten it; you'll find a small bit of nigger in your box of matches, and considerable nigger in your plug of tobacco. You can eat nothing, wear nothing, see nothing, taste nothing or have nothing, that is not more or less affected by the miserable niggerism that has controlled the country since 'Old Abe' left Springfield for Washington."

We reckon, after this burst, the Tamaqua fellow won't "come to time."

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY.—Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning last, an attempt was made to make a burglarious entrance into an outhouse belonging to Mr. C. Boerner, situate on the street adjoining his residence, in this borough, the purpose being to rob the house, which contained quite a quantity of flour, corn, meat, &c. The thief had bored a number of holes through the shutter of one of the windows, making sufficient aperture to admit his hand; through this he had attempted to loosen the fastening of the window; but, finding himself unable to do so had bored another hole through the weatherboarding near the fastening. At this point it is probable he became alarmed and gave up the attempt. Mr. B. will give a handsome reward for the detection of the thief.

The same night the stable of Mr. F. Fixen, a short distance out of town, was entered, and a horse saddle and bridle taken out (doubtless by the same party or parties, for the purpose of carrying away the expected booty), and after having been used, the horse was turned loose, and together with saddle and bridle were found in the morning near Mr. Fixen's stable. The thieves had also taken a pane out of the window of Mr. Peightel's wagon shop, by which means they had been enabled to extract a brace and some half dozen bits, which had doubtless been used in attempting the entrance into Mr. Boerner's outhouse.—Fulton Democrat.

MORE THAN HALF OF THE obstacles in your path are like a rotten stump in the woods, which a timid man takes for a ghost, and runs away. A brave man walks up to it, and finds it to be what it is. Never be assailed and unnerved by what is said about risks and difficulties and competitions. Never retreat into a narrow and obscure walk, with its only chance of success and usefulness, as if it were the safer for that. Push forward, if you have the common consciousness of ability, into the great thoroughfares, where, though a hundred chances of success and usefulness should fail, a hundred chances are left.—James Walker.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP. This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWATER TONIC, AND MARIAGE PILLS, are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respiratory Fan he charges three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all druggists and dealers; price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters addressed should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's principal office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.
