The Bedford Gazette

BY MEYERS & MENGEL. BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 11, 1867. VOL. 61.—WHOLE NO. 5,375.

Drugs, Medicines, &c.

L. LEWIS having purchased the Drug Store, lately owned by Mr. H. C. Ream, takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Bedford and vicinity, that he has just returned from the cities with a well selected stock of DRUGS.

The Bedford Gazette.

I AM THINE. The tide will ebb at day's decline. I shall not weep, or grieve or pine. I shall not weep, or grieve or pine, I shall not weep, or grieve or pine.

THE CRETAN REVOLUTION.

How many times the spark of insurrection has been partially quenched in blood and ashes, and how often it has been revived again in the little Island of Candia, at the mouth of the Egean sea, the Turks, who have with difficulty held its people in subjection during the past two centuries, know full well.

A REAL "DEVIL-FISH."

Victor Hugo's Story Matched. Readers of Mr. Victor Hugo's "Tollers of the Sea," will remember the terrible narrative of the fisherman Gilliat's encounter with the Octopus or sea-devil, who winds his horrible suckers round his victim, and gradually draws away his life's blood.

ONE OF DODGE'S STORIES.

Dr. Lord, formerly of Boston, has been a resident of the West for about six years. During his first year, he was extensively engaged in buying wool, and, on one occasion, becoming a little bewildered by the multiplicity of crooked roads over the broad prairies, he rode up to a small cabin, enclosed in a clump of locust trees, and hailed a white-headed boy, perched on the top of a hen-coop, with—

THE CRETAN REVOLUTION.

In the northwestern part of the Island, in the mountainous district of Arkadioti, the Cretans who have risen in insurrection against the Turks, have recently immortalized themselves by an act of heroism worthy of their ancient lineage, and rivaling the self-devotion of Leonidas and his little band of Spartans in the pass of Thermopylae.

A POSITIVE WARNING.

It is of Warren, the author of Ten Thousand a Year, that this sharp practice in the examination of a man accused of swearing falsely in a will case is recorded. It shows great dramatic power unconsciously exhibited in his daily business.

A YOUNG MAN IN ST. LOUIS RECENTLY

wrote to Mr. Horace Greeley to use his influence in obtaining a situation for him. He received the following reply: "New York is just entering upon the interesting process of starving out 200,000 people whom war and irredeemable paper have driven hither. It is impossible to receive and employ more till these are gone."

SOMEONE ASKED A PARISIAN EDITOR

whether he got all his intelligence. "From the newspapers," "Where do the newspapers get it?" "From other newspapers." "But who is the first author of it?" "Nobody."

THE QUESTION WHY PRINTERS DO NOT

succeed as well as brewers, was thus answered: "Because printers work for the head and brewers for the stomach, and where twenty men have stomachs but one has brains."

PUNCH TELLS OF A CITY MAN WHO NEVER

got up till noon, because, he said it was only fair, as the day broke in the morning, to give it a chance of redeeming its position before beginning with it.

"DO YOU THINK YOU CAN DO THE LAND-

lord in the Lady of Lyons?" said a manager to a steady actor in quest of an engagement. "I've done a good many landlords."

AN AMERICAN LETTER OF REFORMATION said one evening: "Parents, you may have children, or, if you have not, your daughters may have."

The temperance movement is making great headway in St. Louis. A new hall, to cost $20,000, is about to be commenced.
