

Calendar for 1887 showing days of the week and dates.

JOHN W. BOWEN Esq., is a regularly authorized agent for this paper, and will visit our friends throughout the county, for the purpose of making collections and taking subscriptions.

M. E. CHURCH.—On Sunday last the regular missionary anniversary of the M. E. Church was held in Bedford. The pastor, Rev. A. R. Miller, was assisted by Rev. W. Downs, of Lewis-ton, Pa.

THE COLLAPSE OF CRINOLINE.—We have repeatedly announced that a collapse in crinoline was about to take place. We are now able to state that it has actually taken place.

TO DEALERS.—A wise enactment was passed by the last Legislature, which may not be generally known. It provides that any person "who shall receive or buy from minors or unknown or irresponsible parties, any scrap, brass, lead or metal, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and undergo an imprisonment of not more than one year, or both, or either."

FRAUDS.—There is a constant succession of reports of frauds and swindles, of every possible description, from all parts of the country. Smuggling, defalcations, revenue frauds, illicit distillation of spirits, and violations and evasions of the laws in every conceivable way, are now the burden of most of the news columns of a daily journal.

WEDDINGS.—Our young friends—and old ones too—who are anxious to learn how many weddings a married couple may lawfully have, will be pleased to know that one year after marriage comes the paper wedding; five years after marriage the wooden wedding; ten years, the tin wedding; twenty-five years, the silver wedding; fifty years, the golden wedding; and seventy-five years, the diamond wedding.

GOLD tends to lower prices in commercial circles all over the general impression that the Ways and Means Committee have decided to recommend sales by the Treasury.

POORHOUSE APPOINTMENTS.—Samuel Debaugh has been re-appointed Steward of the Poor House, Joseph Wills, Miller, Thos. R. Gettys, Clerk, and E. F. Kerr, Esq., Attorney. Dr. F. C. Reamer has been appointed Surgeon and Wm. Bowles, Treasurer. These are all excellent appointments.

THE JURY COMMISSIONERS, Messrs. Isaac Kensingler and Wm. Kirk, met on Monday last, to fill the wheel for the ensuing year. They appointed John G. Fisher and M. A. Points, Esqs., their clerks. Under this system jurymen are selected with particular reference to their politics, each commissioner confining himself, in his selections, almost exclusively to his own party.

SENSIBLE.—Horace Greeley gets off a good thing now and then. In a lecture recently delivered on "advertising," he said: "Some men who know enough to advertise are yet so narrow-minded as to confine their own advertisements to journals of their own creed and party. If they do not wish to trade with anybody men of like faith, this is wise; but if they desire the whole public for customers, it is otherwise."

H. & B. T. R.—NEW SUPERINTENDENT.—Oliver Ayres, Esq., late Superintendent of the H. & B. T. R. R. has resigned, and J. McKillips, Esq., formerly Assistant Superintendent, has been appointed in his stead. Mr. Ayres was an excellent officer, and his successor is very highly spoken of, and we doubt not, will make an able and efficient Superintendent.

CHANGE OF TIME.—There will be a change of schedule on the H. & B. T. R. R., beginning Thursday, Jan. 10. The Express train will arrive at Mt. Dallas at 11.15 a. m.; leave Mt. Dallas at 1.30 p. m. This change is made for the purpose of making the connection with the Eastern and Western trains on the P. R. R., at Huntingdon.

SOLDIERS OF 1812—ATTENTION!—State Treasurer Kemble has directed to be prepared at once a list of the soldiers of 1812 entitled to pensions from the State of Pennsylvania. Separate lists for each county will, as soon as they are completed, be forwarded to the Treasurers thereof, which officers will pay the semi-annual pensions due on the 1st of January, 1867.

GEESSE FATTENING.—To fatten geese the Irish Farmer's Gazette, says:—Put up three or four in a darkened room and give each bird one pound of oats daily, thrown on a pan of water. In fourteen days they will be found almost too fat. Never shut less than two together, as they pine if left alone. The same rule we rather reckon, will apply to geanders.

Muse awake! why quiet so long? Awake and give your friends a song! Don't sing of the year which has just gone, Nor of the new one that has just come, Nor of ice, or skating—but won't You advise the use of "ZABOAT," a healthy and agreeable preparation for the teeth and gums. For sale at Lewis' drug store.

EPISCOPALIANISM.—The following is given as the statistics of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this country, including the Southern States: Whole number of parishes, 2906; number of clergy, 2526; total membership, 161,227; contributions the past year, $3,051,667.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—This institution is now in a flourishing condition. It is one of the most useful seminaries in the country. Its faculty are able and experienced educators, and their facilities for imparting knowledge are unequalled.

RETURNED.—James B. Farquhar, Esq., has returned from Chambersburg, to this place. He will shortly open out in his old business at the store-room recently occupied by P. A. Reed.

GUNSMITHING.—We call attention to the card of L. Debaugh, blacksmith and repairer of guns, locks, &c. Larry is an excellent workman, in fact one of the best blacksmiths in the county.—Give him a share of your patronage.

GREAT BARGAINS.—Irvine and Berkstresser are offering great inducements to cash buyers for the next 30 days.—Everybody should call.

THE COUNTY AUDITORS met on Monday last and proceeded to audit the accounts of the Treasurer. E. F. Kerr, Esq., was appointed Clerk.

A SWEET THING ON ICE.—Teaching a sweet sixteen year old bundle of calico how to skate.

REVIEW OF THE MARKETS. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8. FLOUR.—The market is very dull, and prices unsettled. Northwest superfine, $7.00@7.50 Northwest extra, 8.00@9.00 Northwest extra family, 11.00@12.25 Penna. and West'n superfine, 8.00@8.50 Penna. and West'n extra, 9.00@10.00 GRAIN.—There is little demand for wheat, and prices are nominal.
