LEGISLATIVE REFORM.

There is one point in the discussion of this question upon which the Radcals preserve a significant silence. Heretofore, amendments agreed on in convention have been submitted to the people for adoption. Is this to be done now? The people want to know. The tendencies of the times are revoluscrupulous, treacherous and cowardly. What they dare not propose openly they will effect by stealth if they can. of constitutional liberty. The proposed convention, ostensibly for the purpose of reform, may in reality be for the purpose of establishing negro equalit. ity. It would be in perfect harmony cheat the people into a convention on the plea of reform, use it when a sem-Col. McClure say on this point?

OUR Legislature seems to have es tablished a national reputation. It is known in Washington, and seems to be in as bad odor there as it is at home. It appears that this imposing body constitutionality or the test oath as apmade an excursion to the national Capital to see Senator Cameron sworn into mitted to its bar under its decision, has office. Tickets and drinks were free, so everybody went along, clerks, mes- certain that any application he may sengers, pages, postmasters, pasters and folders, and the sag-tag and bob-tail bringing the matter before the Sugenerally. Of course they got drunk preme Court of the United States. and had a good time of it. As the fore the next term of the Criminal erowd was exceedingly select, and (in court in June. One Senator said there were one hundred and thirty pasters and folders in the crowd, and would not remove him unless they that these were the most respectable part of it. Another called attention to the fact that most of the Senators were that day paid off, and had the money and the House passed the bill over the Judge of Election, P. Felton; Assess about their persons. Another was willing to admit the rag-tag and bob-tail, but not the members. After a running modest excursionists were waiting at presence of the Senate, the motion was | to consider it. in its favor, whereupon the excursion- read in the House immediately after it verling, E. Cook; Assessor, J. S. Morists adjoured to take a drink. Thus were these men of "great moral ideas" snubbed, jeered and humiliated in presence of the whole country. Every Pennsylvanian will blush that such a this cancer on the body-politic be healsome mass of moral putrescence be buin the nostrils of honest men?

RADICAL legislation is beginning to bear its legitimate fruits. Money is and this supplementary one, as estabcapital at a premium. Hard times are chisement. upon us. Thousands find themselves iel Webster against military governunable to pay their debts, and buy ments founded on force and mock elebread for their families. All this was bread for their families. All this was views herefore expressed in relation to the restoration of the Union, expression to the Uni Democratic party have always been in favor of a monied aristocracy. This ment of their rights under the Constithey have established during the last six years. Their laws have been cunningly framed to shield wealth and oppress poverty. Labor must pay, capital is exempt. Of the two thousand sters and farmers, when they visit millions of government bonds not a town, are compelled either to load their cent is paid in the shape of taxes to wagons very lightly or make a very support the national treasury. Thus nearly half the wealth of the country is exempted from taxation. Where then is the burden to fall if not upon the laboring classes. It is true, heavy manufacturers and other capitalists pay immense revenues to the government, but all this is assessed upon the value of their wares, and comes eventually out of the pockets of the consumers who are the laboring classes. Is not this so? and if so, how long will it be endured?
