"Jokes."—A correspondent at St. Clairsville, sends us a number of jokes. They will be published as soon as we can find room for them.

FARQUHAR'S .- We call attention to the advertisement of Mr J. B. Farquhar. His store has just been filled by new and cheap goods. Call and see.

In Town.-J. M. Cooper, Esq., of Lancaster, paid us a visit on Monday last. No better Democrat, or better fellow, than Cooper, walks the soil of Pennsylvania.

Washington Hotel.—We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. privates upon application being made to them by the holders of the Dibert, of the Washington Hotel, in same and that the recording of the another column. Dibert "knows how to keep a hotel."

STEAM!-We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement, in another. column, of Reese & Slager, Lewistown, Pa., manufacturers of steam engines and boilers, &c., &c.

B. H. Hunt's lecture (subject, The Preparations that are used by the Monk of Eisleben) delivered in the Beauties of the old world, to beautify Court House, on Thursday night last, and make attractive their person. drew a large audience. The lecture was written in Rev. Hunt's usual happy | column. and interesting style.

DEDICATION.—The Union church, at Millerstown, four miles North West Dollar, she can procure an article that of Schellsburg, will be dedicated to the will cause her hair to curl in wavy worship of God, on Sunday, June 9. ringlets, or heavy, massive curls? Services to commence at 10 o'clock a.m. Persons of all denominations are invited

HATS.—The largest stock of Hats, of all the latest styles, ever received in Bedford at one time, have just been received by R. W. Berkstresser & Co.-A head-covering can now be purchased to suit everybody and everybody's pocket. Go and see!

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COM-MITTEE OF THE BEDFORD COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.-We call the attention of the gentlemen appointed the Executive and General Committees of the Bedford County Agricultural Society, to the fact that a meeting of Pennsylvania red, per bus., $3.15@3.35 those committees will be held, in Bedford, on the first Tuesday in June. Let there be a full attendance.

WET WEATHER .- Some very heavy | Oats, showers of rain fell during the beginning of this week. Several of our young friends went out fishing on Monday last. One of them had traveled about six miles, through brush and brake, over rocks and hills, to get the coveted bait, "white worms." The fishermen pursued their piscatorial sport about one hour and caught-a ducking!

APPLICATION FOR A NEW POST OF-FICE. -We understand that application has been made to the P.O. Department for the establishment of a post office at Mr. Hunt's, in Cumberland Valley tp. An office is greatly needed in that locality and we hope the Department will grant it.

CIGARS .- Mr. Dan'l Crouse, Jr., has opened a cigar store in Col. Hafer's building, lately occupied by Mr. Hammond. Dan. is an industrious young fellow, manufactures good cigars and deserves the patronage of smokers.

HUNTINGDON & BROAD TOP R. R.-This road is now in better condition than at any time since 1860, and its passenger trains make close connections with all the principal trains east and west, on the Penn'a Rail Road. We understand that the trestling and bridges of the road, have been thoroughly repaired, so that it is as safe as any other road in the United States. The Superintendent, Mr. McKillips, and the Chief Engineer, Mr. Fulton, are both gentlemen well fitted for their respective positions, and are exerting every effort to improve the road. See schedule for time of arrival and departure of trains at Huntingdon and Mt. Dallas.

REV. SAMUEL KEPLER.—This Rev. gentleman, appointed to Harrisonburg station at the late session of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the E. M. Church, commenced his labors here on Sabbath last, preaching in the morning and evening to densely crowded rives at Huntingdon at 9.10 a. m.; leaves Hunt- auditors. It is scarcely necessary to say that his reputation as an able and eloquent expounder of the great truths of christianity was fully maintained in both efforts. He was heard with serious attention by all classes of our intelligent population, and we hope that, in connection and co-operation with the other zealous ministers of other churches in our town, his labors among us will be productive of much good .-Rockingham (Va.) Register.
