WHAT does the Inquirer think of Horace Greely, by this time? Horace Greely, the man who bailed Jeff. Davis out of prison!

UNDER whose administration occurred the first and heaviest deficits in the Poor House account? Under that of Gideon D. Trout and George D. Shuck, Republican Poor Directors.

Who discovered and rectified those deficits? The present Democratic board of Poor Directors and the present Democratic Steward.

THE PHARISEES HOWL.

The New York Tribune, whose chief elitor, Horace Greely, is one of the sureties for Jefferson Davis, says, the "Pharisees are howling" over the release of the ex-president of the ex-Confederacy. That is a good name for your partizans, Mr. Greely! Pharisees! Hit them again!

A QUESTION.

The Inquirer, of last week, has an article reflecting upon the Southern whites for trying to control the Negro copy of the Legislative Record for the vote. Of course, in the opinion of the Inquirer, nobody in the South has any right to ask a negro to vote for him except some Yankee spoon-thief acting in the capacity of "Agent of the Freedmen's Bureau." Well, perhaps, negroes ought to vote for such fellows, for nobody else will. In connection with this subject, will the Inquirer please inform us whether its party is in favor of giving the negroes the same rights in Pennsylvania which it has forced upon them in the South? Is the Radical party in favor of Negro Suffrage in Pennsylvania?

"Since there is no difference of opinion between the Gazette and the In-QUIRER in regard to Mr. Blymyer's responsibility for the deficit which was discovered in the Poor Houseaccounts, will the Gazette be kind enough to state who is responsible for it? myer, it is admitted on all hands, NOT responsible. Now come up squareto know.

"It is a well known fact that the County Auditors settle the accounts between the county and the Treasurer of the Poor House Fund, and NOT THE DIREC-We believe this to be all wrong, TORS. nevertheless, it is the case and those gentlemen-Shuck and Trout-knew as little about the settlement of the Poor House Accounts as any other individual who read the published statement.'

The above articles appeared, separately, as editorials in the last Inquirer. The reader will observe the complete backing-down of that paper so far as Mr. Blymyer and the Poor Directors are concerned. It declares that "it is admitted on all hands that Mr. Blymyer is NOT responsible, and, in the eral second article, it states that the Poor Directors have nothing to do with the settlement of the Poor House Accounts. Let this be borne in mind. The Inquirer entirely exculpates the Poor Directors as well as Mr. Blymyer. But it wants to know who is responsible. The Inquirer may guess its own conundrums. We will propound one in return. Is any body responsible for any deficiency when the county loses nothing?

LINCOLN ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

The sayings of that sainted personage whose apotheosis is claimed by all who believe that a man who dies in a theatre, goes straight to heaven, ought to have some weight with those who believed in him while living and affect to worship him now that he is dead. And, inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together there must be the as much as any other man, am in favor

Mark well that Mr. Lincoln said "there is a physical difference between the black and white races which I believe will forever prohibit the two races from ever living on terms of social and po equality without respect to color or teachings they profess to follow! The appended expose of the extrava-too, did not acquiesce in this scheme of wholesale plunder? We ask for information, as we did not get to see a single last session, and, therefore, cannot, at present, speak by the book. For this time let the testimony of the Lancaster Examiner, suffice, for it convicts the Radicals of the last Legislature, as body, of the most unparallelled and corrupt extravagance. READ!

From the Lancaster Examnier, Rad. We are indebted to the Hon. I. B. Gara, Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, for an official copy of the acts of the last Legislature, making the ordinary appropriations for the ex-penses of the State government and other general and specific appropriations. Instead of being "ordinary" they had better be designated "extraordinary" It is a most alarming document for the tax-payers of the State to contemplate. For reckless and profigate extravagance it has never been equalled in the history of this Commonwealth. For the last few years the appropriation bills have been gradually growing in magnitude. When this last one had gone through the first process of incubation by both houses, nearly a million to know." than the whole revenues of the State amounted to. But the vigilant State unpaid, if a bill so profigate in appropriations was allowed to become a law, ceded it.

Since 1865 there has been an increase in salaries in the appropriation bills, and offices alone, involving annually an expenditure of not less than from fifty to a hundred thousand dollars. Every year some trifle—a few hundred dollars, or a thousand, is added to some body's salary, or some "friend" of somebody is slipped into a snug place with nothing to do but draw his salary. We do not intend to compare all the different items of this bill with other But we will confine our comparison for the present to two items which we readers that this disposition to vote away the hard earned dollars of the tax payers has gone far enough, and that they had better be looking after those who are sent to legislate for them a little more in the future than they have in the past. We will compare the appropriations of 1867 with those

It is a question which the peo-ple ought to be looking after. The remedy rests with them in the selection of representatives. If men are elected who are either incompetent, or venal and corrupt, profligate with their own or other people's money, drunkards or gamblers, it cannot be expected that they will prove either prudent or economical legislators.

The cry now is, that corruption and extravagance is not alone to be found at Harrisburg; but at the capitols of other States, Albany, Trenton, &c., the same evil is sapping the foundations of the law making powers.

WIDE AWAKE. - Our excellent Democratic neighbors of Bedford County for the big victory that surely will be next fall. The energetic Chairman of their County Committee, J. W. Dickerson, Esq., has issued a call for the Annual Convention of the party to meet in Bedford on the 18th of June. A number of announcements for office (always a sign of life in a party) appear in the Gazette; and the Gazette itself begins to quicken its usual adroit keen thrusts at the enemy, betokening in every line its self-satisfied appreciation of the fact, that a big fight is on hands and that we are 'going in to win.' To all of which responds Fulton County Amen.—Fulton Democrat.

MILITARY DESPOTISM is costly .-Like war itself it eats into the resources of the people. It is a bad animal to be yoked up with civil government, under a common flag. KNOW THY DESTINY .-- MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, ished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a lifelike picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with the date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to ourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communication, sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, MADAME E. F. THORNTON, P. O. Box 223, Hudson, marl,'67yl
