Among the many testimonials we clip the following from the Pittsburg Evening Gazette of Dec. 8:

Rev. E. M. Long, the Children's Preacher, has been delivering a course of sermons on the plan of salvationillustrating the text by a series of large and beautiful oil paintings, which were painted for that purpose. By this means the attention of the young is secured, and many soul-saving truths simplified and impressed on the mind. These services have been held in the following churches:-Rev. Messrs. Swift's, Bell's, McLean's, and the Central Presbyterian, (late Dr. Plumer's,) Alleghany and Rev. Drs. Howard's and Paxton's signed, Administrators of the estate of Samuel in Pittsburg. Much interest has been awakened among the young so that the largest churches have been unable to hold them, and although some evenings the aisles and spaces about the pulation of the pulation of the estate of Samuel Armstrong, late of Snake Spring township, deceased, will sell at public outcry, on the premises, on MONDAY, the 17th day of JUNE, 1867, the following described real estate, situated in said township, to wit: All that certain TRACT of LAND, adjoining lands of Jacob Snider, John Armstrong, Issee Ritchev and others, containing 137 agrees. and Rev. Drs. Howard's and Paxton's hold them, and although some even-ings the aisles and spaces about the pulpit have been full by persons standing, yet the church doors had to be locked to prevent any more from entering and service to begin before the appointed time. On one evening ninety-four letters and notes were handed Mr. Long, written by children.
